Díospóireachtaí Párlaiminte Ireland. Oireachtas. Dáil,1986 Introduction to Nursing Informatics Kathryn J. Hannah,Marion J. Ball,Margaret J.A. Edwards,2013-04-17 This series is intended for the rapidly increasing number of health care professionals who have rudimentary knowledge and experience in health care computing and are seeking opportunities to expand their horizons It does not attempt to compete with the primers already on the market Eminent international experts will edit author or contribute to each volume in order to provide comprehensive and current accounts of in novations and future trends in this quickly evolving field Each book will be practical easy to use and well referenced Our aim is for the series to encompass all of the health professions by focusing on specific professions such as nursing in individual volumes However integrated computing systems are only one tool for improving communication among members of the health care team Therefore it is our hope that the series will stimulate professionals to explore additional means of fostering interdisciplinary exchange This series springs from a professional collaboration that has grown over the years into a highly valued personal friendship Our joint values put people first If the Computers in Health Care series lets us share those values by helping health care professionals to communicate their ideas for the benefit of patients then our efforts will have succeeded Nursing Informatics National Center for Nursing Research,1993 Parliamentary Papers Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,1914 The Heart and Soul of Kerry Football Weeshie Fogarty (decd.),2016-09-05 Why has Kerry in the rugged south west won more All Ireland Gaelic football championships than any other county It s a fascinating question and The Heart Soul of Kerry Football provides plenty of answers Weeshie Fogarty tells stories about the great players he played with and against Kerry's intense rivalries and its outstanding captains He extols the handing down of a unique tradition and explains why the increasing profile of girls and women bodes well for the future of the sport Weeshie also selects his all time most skilful classy stylish team which is sure to spark debate in the homes and pubs of Kerry Gaelic football is the very heartbeat of Irish life and culture both in the Kingdom and beyond and players and coaches from the most successful county have grown the sport in Ireland and internationally This unique book reveals the living heart and soul of Kerry football

At the Altar of the Bottom Line Tom Juravich, 2009 Based on extensive interviews with workers in four different industries this book takes us behind the statistics of the economic collapse and into the lives of Americans who are struggling to make ends meet and support their families Tom Juravich combines oral history with social and economic analysis to provide a vivid account of the multiple challenges presented in today's workplaces At a Verizon call center in Andover Massachusetts customer service reps find themselves overwhelmed by the pace of work and the constant monitoring They describe a daily routine marked by regimentation intense pressure to sell and unrelenting stress In New Bedford undocumented Guatemalans in the fish processing industry are fired if they don't work fast enough cheated out of wages and mistreated by supervisors Juravich describes a brutal immigration raid by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement that divided families and forced workers further underground Juravich then takes us inside the operating rooms at the Boston Medical Center where hospital consolidation has brought a new bottom line philosophy that has fundamentally altered the way patient care is delivered Surgery takes place almost non stop driving some nurses from their chosen profession and leaving those who remain exhausted The final case study looks at the shuttering of the Jones Beloit plant an internationally known manufacturer of machinery for the paper industry Despite the best efforts of highly skilled and productive workers to save their plant it was abruptly closed and they were abandoned after their CEO recklessly became involved in a shaky foreign investment Juravich argues that workers face a series of paradoxes in the contemporary American workplace They can no longer assume that large established firms create good jobs The new working conditions often resemble what was traditionally associated with marginal and low wage employers He concludes that we must bring a discussion about the quality of jobs back into the public discourse and that a good jobs strategy is a fundamental building block to economic recovery Workers' voices are front and center in this highly readable book It includes striking photographs by Paul Shoul and a CD that presents a series of audio documentaries with excerpts from the interviews as well as four original songs written and performed by Juravich
