Helping Teens with Stress, Anxiety, and Depression Roy Petitfils, 2019-03-08. Winner of a 2020 Excellence in Publishing Award from the Association of Catholic Publishers, second place ministry 2020 Catholic Press Association book award, second place family life. Do you struggle to know when or if it's appropriate to step in to help a teen who seems stressed, anxious or depressed? Do you know the signs to look for to determine whether a teen is in distress? In Helping Teens with Stress, Anxiety, and Depression, Roy Petitfils, a Catholic author, speaker, and psychotherapist, offers his personal experience, advice, and faith to give parents, pastors, and youth leaders the knowledge, courage, and tools they need to step in, make a difference, and be the presence of Christ for teens in crisis. Roy Petitfils knows what it's like to be an addicted, depressed teenager filled with self-loathing and desperate for help. He describes himself at high school graduation as by far the largest person in his hometown and yet feeling as though he were stuck in Harry Potter's invisibility cloak. Weighing more than 500 pounds, he was addicted to food and hated himself. Now a leading Catholic voice in youth advocacy and creator of the popular podcast Today's Teenager, Petitfils entered adulthood a very different person than he is today. His life was radically changed by a handful of people in college who reached out in friendship and helped him set a new course. Using personal life lessons and expertise gleaned from more than twenty-five years in youth ministry and private practice as a licensed counselor, Petitfils teaches parents, pastors, and youth leaders what they need to know about mental health issues among America's youth. Whether teens need help coping with healthy levels of stress or face persistent, more serious problems with anxiety and depression, Petitfils will help the adults in their lives get comfortable with stepping in. Petitfils offers information and advice on the major causes of stress and anxiety in teens today, differentiating healthy stress from toxic stress, simple steps to take after identifying a hurting kid, beginning with how to assess whether and how to step in, the art of listening. He explores the support and comfort available through the sacraments, Catholic devotions, different forms of prayer, and reading the Bible. Ultimately, Petitfils identifies how to gently yet persuasively guide hurting young people to deeper trust in the tender mercies of God.

What Matters Most Leonard J. DeLorenzo, 2018. What if we taught young people that they can measure success by how they follow Christ rather than by how much money they make or where they go to college? In What Matters Most, University of Notre Dame theology professor Leonard J. DeLorenzo urges youth ministers, teachers, and parents to help young people redefine success in light of their call to discipleship, completely saying yes to God. In Luke's account of the Annunciation, Mary offers a true model of discipleship for young people to follow. Her example will empower them to make choices about how to live their lives as a courageous yes to God in everything they choose, just as she did DeLorenzo who served as the long time director of Notre Dame Vision a program designed to help young Catholics find their true calling as disciples of Jesus shows how Mary exhibited four habits that will guide young people to make important life decisions Listen carefully and practice patience Remember who we are and what we value most Respond with compassion to choices we face Embrace sacrifice for the sake of love DeLorenzo includes personal stories from his experience as a father and working with youth and young adults with spiritual wisdom to equip teachers mentors pastoral ministers and parents to reexamine the way they encourage and help form young Catholics approaching significant life choices such as college and jobs He presents ways to remedy spiritual deficits in these young people created by cultural realities such as the fast pace of tech driven lives and the looming pressure to succeed with worldly accomplishments
