Paths To The Triune God An Encounter Between Aquinas And Recent Theologies:

Paths to the Triune God Anselm Kyongsuk Min, 2005 In Paths to the Triune God Anselm K Min brings five relevant themes in the theology of Thomas Aquinas into mutually critical dialogue with contemporary theological concerns Min defends Aquinas's Trinitarian theology of reason and creation against modern detractors of natural theology while also calling attention to the lack of historical consciousness in Aquinas's writing Min discusses Aquinas's affirmation of the salvation of the non-Christian through a moral life but also criticizes his sometimes naive approach to salvation history Min presents Aquinas's Trinitarian theology of salvation through the incarnation and the possibility of a sacramental theology of religions for today while also taking seriously the scandal of his doctrine of reprobation Min highlights Aquinas's contemplative sapiential conception of theology against contemporary preoccupations with praxis while also criticizing his intellectualist interpretation of human existence Min also devotes a significant portion of this study to the immanent Trinity and Chapter 6 is a full scale analysis and critique of the views of contemporary social Trinitarians such as Jurgen Moltmann, Wolfhart Pannenberg and Cornelius Plantinga Jr in light of Aquinas Min concludes that neither the purely sapiential theology of Aquinas nor the purely prophetic theology of contemporary liberation movements is adequate He argues that contemporary theology must methodologically incorporate into its content a tension between wisdom and praxis between sapiential and prophetic theology Min's book represents a genuine encounter between Aquinas and contemporary theologies on many topical issues It will be of interest to students and scholars of theology both medieval and contemporary

In Counterpoint Kristine Suna-Koro, 2017-05-01 What does postcoloniality have to do with sacramentality How do diasporic lives and imaginaries shape the course of postcolonial sacramental theology Neither postcolonial theorists nor sacramental theologians have hitherto sought to engage in a sustained dialogue with one another In this trailblazing volume Kristine Suna Koro brings postcolonialism diaspora discourse and Christian sacramental theology into a mutually critical and constructive transdisciplinary conversation Dialoguing with thinkers as diverse as Edward Said and Gayatri Spivak as well as Francis D Sa

S J Martin Luther Mayra Rivera and John Chryssavgis the author offers a postcolonial retrieval of sacramentality through a robust theological engagement with the postcolonial notions of hybridity contrapuntality planetarity and Third Space While exploring the methodological potential of diasporic imaginary in theology this innovative book advances the notion of sacramental pluriverse and of Christ as its paradigmatic crescendo within the sacramental economy of creation and redemptive transformation In the context of ecological degradation In Counterpoint argues that it is vital for the postcolonial sacramental renewal to be rooted in ethics as a uniquely postcolonial fundamental theology The Unity of Theology Theodore James Whapham,2017-11-01 Wolfhart Pannenberg is among the most important Protestant Continental theologians of the twentieth century This volume offers the first full historical and thematic survey of Pannenberg s corpus from his early work in Christology and eschatology to his writings on science anthropology theology and the university and the pivotal achievement of his systematic theology As such the project will make a significant contribution to theological assessment and will be a useful text for students and scholars in modern and contemporary theology The Cambridge Companion to the Trinity Peter C. Tan, Jonathan Y., Tran, Anh Q., 2016-04-13 Catholicism and Interreligious Dialogue James Heft, 2011-11-21 Each article is followed by a significant response from a member of the non Catholic faith community being addressed and by a response to the response by the author of the article

Engaging the Doctrine of the Holy Spirit Matthew Levering, 2016-07-19 A Distinguished Theologian on the Doctrine of the Holy Spirit Distinguished theologian Matthew Levering offers a historical examination of the doctrine of the Holy Spirit defending an Augustinian model against various contemporary theological views A companion piece to Levering's Engaging the Doctrine of Revelation this work critically engages contemporary and classical doctrines of the Holy Spirit in dialogue with Orthodox and Reformed interlocutors Levering makes a strong dogmatic case for conceiving of the Holy Spirit as love between Father and Son given to the people of God as a gift

Predestination Matthew Levering, 2011-05-26 Predestination has been the subject of perennial controversy among Christians although in recent years theologians have shied away from it as a divisive and unedifying topic In this book Matthew Levering argues that Christian theological reflection needs to continue to return to the topic of predestination for two reasons Firstly predestinarian doctrine is taught in the New Testament Reflecting the importance of the topic in many strands of Second Temple Judaism the New Testament authors teach predestination in a manner that explains why Christian theologians continually recur to this topic Secondly the doctrine of predestination provides a way for Christian theologians to reflect upon two fundamental affirmations of biblical revelation The first is God's love without any deficiency or crimp for each and every rational creature the second is that God from eternity brings about the purpose for which he created us and that he permits some rational creatures freely and permanently to rebel against his love When theologians reflect on these two key biblical affirmations they generally try to unite them in a logical synthesis Instead Levering argues it is necessary to allow for the truth of each side of the mystery without trying to blend the two affirmations into one Levering pairs his discussion of Scripture with ecumenically oriented discussion of the doctrine of predestination in through the ages through the figures of Origen Augustine Boethius John of Damascus Eriugena Aquinas Ockham Catherine of Siena Calvin Molina Francis de Sales Leibniz Bulgakov Barth Maritain and Balthasar He concludes with a constructive chapter regarding the future of the doctrine

Ethics of Belief: Essays in Tribute to D.Z. Phillips Eugene Thomas Long, Patrick Horn, 2008-02-28 Eugene Thomas Long Originally published in the International Journal for Philosophy of Religion Volume 63 Nos 1-3 DOI 10.1007/s11153-007-9155-4 Springer Science Business Media B.V. 2007 This volume is presented as a tribute to the life and work of D.Z. Phillips Six of the articles were originally presented at the annual conference on the philosophy of religion organized by Phillips and held at Claremont Graduate University February 9-10 2007

Unfortunately Phillips did not live to participate in the conference itself. He died unexpectedly July 25 2006 in the library of his beloved University of Wales Swansea. Previously published volumes of essays based on conferences organized by Phillips in Claremont included a chapter entitled Voices in Discussion in which Phillips provided his own reactions to the discussions written almost immediately after the conference. Sadly this volume appears without the addition of his voice. Born in Morriston near Swansea Phillips was a Welsh speaker a strong supporter of Welsh speaking schools and the author of many works in philosophy and literature in Welsh and English. Known widely as the leading representative of the movement in the philosophy of religion called Wittgensteinianism Phillips spent much of his effort challenging the tendency of philosophers to elevate one kind of discourse to the point where it becomes the norm by which other forms of discourse are to be judged.

Confucianism and Christianity Edmund Kee-Fook Chia, 2020-11-29 This book reflects on three broad themes of Confucian Christian relations to assist in the appreciation of the church's theology of mission. While the themes of this volume are theological in orientation the dialogue is engaged in from an interdisciplinary approach that prioritises the act of listening. Part I surveys the historical background necessary for an adequate understanding of the contemporary Confucian Christian dialogues. It examines the history of Confucian Christian relations explores the Chinese Rites Controversy and delineates the contemporary task of indigenizing Christianity by Sino-Christian theologians. Part II compares elements in the Confucian and Christian traditions that exemplify the epitome and fullness of spiritual development. It discusses the Confucian practice of rites li interrogates how the noble or exemplary person junzi competes and outlines the Confucian understanding of sageliness shengren. Lastly Part III examines different aspects of the church's engagements with the world outside of itself. It advocates for a Confucian Christian hermeneutic of moral goodness attends to the Confucian emphasis on moral self cultivation proposes that Confucian virtue ethics can shed light on Christian moral living and offers a Confucian Christian understanding of care for mother earth. This book is ideally suited to lecturers and students of both Christian studies and Confucian studies as well as those engaged in mission studies and interfaith studies. It will also be a valuable resource for anyone interested in comparative religious and theological studies on Christianity and Confucianism.

Cirpit Review n. 6 - 2015 Aa. Vv., 2016-02-09T00:00:00+01:00 Five of the six papers below were presented at a symposium in conjunction with the Annual Meeting of the American Academy of Religion AAR in San Diego on November 21 2014. The AAR meeting has for long been an annual feature where scholars of religion gather from around the world to discuss various aspects of religion across time and space and culture. In conjunction with the Society of Asian and Comparative Philosophy SACP members of both societies have thought the AAR meetings a good opportunity to hold an annual meeting of Panikkar scholars. On this particular occasion Young Chan Ro and Joseph Prabhu invited contributions to two panels one for more senior scholars and the other for scholars and researchers who engaged with Panikkar either as part of their doctoral dissertations or as part of their ongoing research. The papers by Mark Banas Erik

Ranstrom Anselm Min Peter Phan and Young chan Ro represent revised versions of the presentations made in the San Diego symposium Some parts of the paper by Joseph Prabhu were presented at the AAR SACP symposium but the full paper provided here draws on an essay presented at another Panikkar conference The idea both of the call for papers and the decision to publish some of them is at least three fold 1 to encourage collaboration and dialogue between more senior scholars and those who are starting out on their study of Panikkar 2 to make available some of the fruits of such research and publication and 3 to develop in general the field of Panikkar Studies Those who have worked in the field know that Panikkar is a challenging author both because of the complexity of his ideas spanning many disciplines times and cultures and also because of his equally complex mode of expression It is encouraging to note that interest in Panikkar s thought is indeed growing and these papers are one indication of that interest What follow are short thematic introductions to each of the papers

Korean Religions in Relation Anselm K. Min, 2016-09-30 Instead of simply being another survey of the three dominant religions in contemporary Korea Buddhism Confucianism and Christianity this unique book studies them in relation to each other in terms of assimilation accommodation conflict and exclusion The contributors focus on major issues that have historically challenged the relations between the three religions from the Goryeo period to the present and how each religion has responded to them The essays bring a new perspective to the study of Korean religions one that is especially pertinent in the current age of religious pluralism with all its tensions

Reading Romans with St. Thomas Aquinas Matthew Levering, Michael Dauphinais, 2012-04-16 St Thomas Aquinas produced his commentary on Romans near the end of his life while working on the Summa theologiae and commenting on Aristotle The doctrinal richness of Paul s letter to the Romans was well known to the church fathers including Origen and Augustine on whom Aquinas drew for his commentary With this rich collection of essays by leading scholars both Catholic and Protestant Aquinas s commentary will become a major resource for ecumenical biblical and theological discussion Authored by theologians historians and biblical scholars Reading Romans with St Thomas Aquinas contributes to a historical reconstruction of Aquinas s exegesis and theology by addressing such topics as the Holy Spirit the Church the faith of Abraham worship preaching justification sin and grace predestination Paul s apostolic vocation the Jewish people human sexuality the relationship of flesh and spirit in the human person the literal sense of Scripture Paul s use of the Old Testament and the relationship of Aquinas s commentary on Romans to his Summa theologiae This volume fits within the contemporary reappropriation of St Thomas Aquinas which emphasizes his use of Scripture and the teachings of the church fathers without neglecting his philosophical insight Contributors Bernhard Blankenhorn Markus Bockmuehl Hans Boersma John F Boyle Edgardo Col n Emeric Holly Taylor Coolman Adam Cooper Michael Dauphinais Gilles Emery Scott W Hahn John A Kincaid Mary Healy Matthew Levering Bruce Marshall Charles Raith II Geoffrey Wainwright Michael Waldstein and Robert Louis Wilken ABOUT THE EDITORS Matthew Levering is professor of theology at the University of Dayton Michael Dauphinais is academic dean and associate professor of theology at Ave Maria

Global Justice, Christology and Christian Ethics Lisa Sowle Cahill, 2013-01-17 Global realities of human inequality poverty violence and ecological destruction call for a twenty first century Christian response which links cross cultural and interreligious cooperation for change to the Gospel This book demonstrates why just action is necessarily a criterion of authentic Christian theology and gives grounds for Christian hope that change in violent structures is really possible Lisa Sowle Cahill argues that theology and biblical interpretation are already embedded in and indebted to ethical political practices and choices Within this ecumenical study she explores the use of the historical Jesus in constructive theology the merits of Word and Spirit Christologies the importance of liberation and feminist theologies as well as theologies from the global south and also the possibility of qualified moral universalism The book will be of great interest to all students of theology religious ethics and politics and biblical studies
