

An abstract collage artwork featuring a face composed of various geometric shapes and textures. The face is primarily white and yellow, with a large black eye and a black nose. The background is a mix of brown, tan, and black tones, with various textures and patterns. The title "Patterns in the mind" is written in a white, cursive font across the top left. The subtitle "Language and Human Nature" is written in a black, serif font on a white rectangular background in the center. The author's name "RAY JACKENDOFF" is written in a white, serif font at the bottom. A quote from the Los Angeles Times Book Review is located above the author's name.
