CHAPTER ONE CRISIS AND TRAUMAS V PRESENT EVERYWHERE What are the Distinguishing Traits of a Crisis Research has shown that the Chinese word for crisis involves two characters one means danger and the other means opportunity One psychologist summarized the peculiarities in this manner A crisis is a turning point that usually cannot be avoided They are filled with danger because they disrupt life and threaten to overwhelm the people who are affected Furthermore a crisis also present people with the opportunity to change grow and develop better ways of coping Since people in crisis often feel confused and helpless they tend to be more opened to receive outside help including the help that comes from rescue workers from counselors and from God

CHAPTER TWO THE MULTIFARIOUS ELEMENTS OF LOSS Increasing Number of Loss Individuals seem to cope with losses better when they are occasional Yet after the age of 50 or 60 they pass into a period of increasing number of losses Still grieving from the previous loss it is ever so hard to make sense of the current one Furthermore if one had never learnt to deal effectively or contend with occasional losses then it is inevitable having several will be catastrophic Equally important is that each type of loss brings its own kind of suffering and reaction

CHAPTER THREE PURPOSE OF CRISIS COUNSELING When a visit is made if the crisis counselor does not have an objective the appointment will be unsuccessful Therefore the underlining purpose of crisis counseling is to support the hurting and not to encourage the avoidance of reality This means the counselor advises individuals in crisis to admit the crisis express grief normally and arrive at a healthy resolution

CHAPTER FOUR THE CRISIS OF DEATH AND DYING Although human suffering in multiple dimensions is a factor of life which causes great pain and human anguish it must not be used as a reason for justifying the direct taking of human life K God must always be understood as the Creator and Sustainer of life It was Norman St John Stevas who articulated this view skillfully The value of human life for the Christian in the first century A D as today rested not on its development of superior sentience but on the unique character of the union of a body and soul both destined for eternal life The right to life thus has a philosophical foundation

K Respect for the lives of others because of their eternal destiny is the essence of the Christian teaching

CHAPTER FIVE COMFORTING THE SUCIDAL AND VICTIMS FAMILY The following are invaluable principles that are crucial to the helpline counseling methods

The Suicidal X Activity The person needs to feel that something is being done for him or her right now This solemn promise or guarantee can alleviate his or her anxiety

X Involvement of others If the caller realizes that others are now involved and caring for him or her the person will be more apt to feel the care and concern and will more likely respond The Family Counselors friends and family members alike feel guilt extreme displeasure and self blame because the death was not averted However ultimately responsibility for suicide rests with the victim who was unable or unwilling to cope with the pressures of life Ways to support Promise to visit the mortuary and advise family members to do the same If possible accompany the grief stricken relatives knowing that the initial shock and denial could be overwhelming X Resist the phrase It was an accident a terrible accident Some may think this is helpful but its more of an expression of ones own anxiety X Do not pass judgment But he or she was up all night drinking They did not understand what they were doing It is not helpful or necessary to give reasons for the suicide X The date on which the suicide took plac Self-destructive Behavior Among Younger Age Groups Calvin J. Frederick,National Institute of Mental Health (U.S.),1976 Aggressivity, Narcissism, and Self-Destructiveness in the Psychotherapeutic Rela Otto Kernberg,2008-10-01 In this book a leading psychoanalytic clinician and theoretician presents his thoughts on the latest psychodynamic developments and insights related to treatment of severe personality disorders Dividing his discussions into two sections one on psychopathology and the other on psychotherapy Dr Otto F Kernberg examines borderline personality disorder narcissism sexual inhibition transference and countertransference suicidal behavior and eating disorders In each chapter he integrates the ideas of European and Latin American psychoanalytic thinkers bringing them to the attention of English speaking readers This book includes a selection of recently published journal articles Their collection into one volume makes readily available Dr Kernberg s present thinking on an important subject Gender Issues and Nursing Practice Margaret Miers,2000-02-15 The relevance of gender to nursing as an activity and as a profession has already been discussed extensively in the sociological literature and gender is recognised as a relevant variable by social policy analysts interested in community care Furthermore there is a growing awareness of the sociological aspects of women s and increasingly men s health issues This book demonstrates the relevance of theoretical approaches to the understanding of gender issues within nursing practice FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin ,1983 Suicide Jason Manning,2020-06-11 The conventional approach to suicide is psychiatric ask the average person why people kill themselves and they will likely cite depression But this approach fails to recognize suicide s social causes People kill themselves because of breakups and divorces because of lost jobs and ruined finances because of public humiliations and the threat of arrest While some psychological approaches address external stressors this comprehensive study is the first to systematically examine suicide as a social behavior with social catalysts Drawing on Donald Black s theories of conflict management and pure sociology Suicide presents a new theory of the social conditions that compel an aggrieved person to turn to self destruction Interpersonal conflict plays a central but underappreciated role in the incidence of suicide Examining a wide range of cross cultural cases Jason Manning argues that suicide arises from increased inequality and decreasing intimacy and that conflicts are more likely to become suicidal when they occur in a context of social inferiority As suicide rates continue to rise around the world this timely new theory can help clinicians scholars and members of the general public to explain and predict patterns of self destructive behavior

When the Body Is the Target Sharon Klayman Farber,2002-11-05 In this comprehensive and insightful work Dr Sharon K Farber provides an invaluable resource for the mental health professional who is struggling to understand self harm and its origins Using attachment theory to explain how addictive connections to pain and suffering develop she discusses various kinds and functions of self harm behavior From eating disorders to body modifications such as tattooing Dr Farber explores the language of self harm and the translation of that language and its psychic functions in the therapeutic setting She tells us When the body weeps tears of blood we need to wonder what terrible sorrows cannot be spoken Brilliantly illustrated with rich clinical material this book offers a practical approach to the diagnosis assessment and treatment of the increasing number of patients whose emotions are expressed through bodily harm The challenges of working with patients who tend to view the world of relationships in terms of predator and prey are clearly explicated and the stormy countertransference responses that threaten to destroy the treatment are given a full hearing Finally she shows how the attachment relationship formed in treatment can repair the traumatic attachment in mind body psyche and soul and can serve as the cornerstone of therapeutic change A Jason Aronson Book

When Men Kill Kenneth Polk,1994-11-25 Important policy issues regarding the role of gender and class in homicide are raised by descriptions of various patterns of crimes committed exclusively by males Case studies of four specific scenarios of violence supplement this qualitative statistical analysis
