Paul Bowles's Literary Engagement with Morocco
Bouchra Benlemlih,2018-01-05 This study argues that Paul Bowles is more perceptive than many American travelers in Morocco The book provides us with what are perhaps the most sustained meditations to date on Bowles s translation work and his autobiography as well as perceptive analyses of key stories such as A Distant Episode and Here to Learn and his second novel Let It Come Down set primarily in Tangier The chapter on translation dwells on the complex interactions between Moroccan storytellers and Bowles The work considers translation as a site where the oral and written colonial and post colonial scene and English and Maghrebi come face to face it is a place where things are worked out in dynamic interaction The chapter on Bowles s autobiography Without Stopping urges us to take this piece of self writing famously dubbed Without Telling by William Burroughs more seriously drawing our attention to baroque architectural features of mind and external landscape worlds distorted by mirrors dreams and fluid transit where forms morph The work also highlights difference between experience and representation of experience through language transformed through the prism of memory In the chapter on Without Stopping as well as in my discussions of Bowles s fiction I provide useful elaborations of connections between Bowles s work and that of Edgar Allan Poe My reading of one of Bowles s best known stories A Distant Episode brings to the surface a recognition that the tragic fate of the Professor the story s protagonist is an outcome of his inability to admit that cultures are not static The academically trained linguist demonstrates an unwillingness or inability to adapt to change or to read cultural signs accurately The message is that Morocco is not stuck in time and cannot be held in place by Orientalist fantasies or preconceived externally derived intellectual constructs and assumptions The book concludes that against the grain of Samuel Huntington's notion of Clash of Civilizations Bowles's poetic and geographical journey forcefully projects cosmopolitanism and transnational attention confirming that civilizations and identities open up rather than shut down war or clash

Conversations with Paul Bowles Paul Bowles, 1993 Paul Bowles says Each man's life has the quality he gives it but you can't say that life itself has any qualities If we suffer it's because we haven't learned how not to The man who wrote the books didn't exist No Writer exists He exists in his books and that's all I write unconsciously without knowing what I am writing

Paul Bowles Barry Tharaud, 2020 Shows that the writings of Paul Bowles who is often seen as a literary renegade owe much to the antinomian American tradition of Emerson and his literary descendants

Re-creating Paul Bowles, the Other, and the Imagination Raj Chandarlapaty, 2014-11-05 As we withdraw farther from American canonical literature and poetry and move closer to a re appraisal of literature's impact upon the arts through media we may easily find a match for greater humanism and popular interaction in American rock culture through Paul Bowles In this work Bowles is re-invented within the postmodern the postcolonial and the renegade future underscored by liberal elites that had breathed new life into the American counterculture Re-Creating Paul Bowles attests to the moments of relentless humanism and imaginative transformation that are most dreamlike engaging the antagonism of psychology with imperialism at last In his youth a classical composer and critic Bowles deserves credit for spawning new generations of rock and pop music through his use of sound and tapping of non-Western or non-European folk music bringing classic ethnography to the rock generation with Music of Morocco Re-Creating Paul Bowles examines the Latin American African and Arab moments of his scholastic effort a primary beginning for understanding modern popular music's free transcription of tradition Re-Creating Paul Bowles includes several examples of films that adapt the author's personal life and times the production of surrealist technique in film and literature and the re-invention of classic works such as The Sheltering Sky and Collected Stories It assumes the technique for re-production allows the elder Bowles greater freedom in crossing cultural boundaries and overruling the colonialist separateness that guarded cultural content for centuries Bowles has always deserved re appraisal in the American academy and liberation from his stereotypical cult figure identity a positive force in the ethnic comprehension of Self and society

Writing Tangier Ralph M. Coury, Robert Kevin Lacey, 2009 Writing Tangier discusses an array of topics relating to the literature on Tangier from the seventeenth century to the present Major questions include Why has Tangier come to play an important role in contemporary world literary history as a signifier in the literary imagination what is the nature of the inter-textual output produced through Paul Bowles translations of the oral tales of a circle of uneducated storytellers including Mohammed Mrabet and Larbi Layachi and the text For Bread Alone brought to Bowles by the literate Mohamed Choukri how do academics artists and writers who have been based in the city or who have written about it assess the various socio economic political and cultural factors that have shaped its cultural production and the relationship of this production to the celebrated hybrid aspects of its identity does the success of the literature of Tangier reflect a truly new multicultural cosmopolitanism or does it stem from the fact that this literature is congenial to Westerners that it is understood in terms that they themselves define and that much of it including productions in Arabic prepared with the expectation of translation has even been written to measure for them

the northernmost tip of Africa but just nine miles from Europe Tangier is more than a destination it is an escape The Interzone as William Burroughs called it has attracted spies outlaws outcasts and writers for centuries men and women breaking through artistic borders The results were some of the most incendiary and influential books of our time and the list of outlaw originals is long stretching from Ibn Battuta and Alexandre Dumas to Twain and Wharton and from the darkly brilliant Beats of Bowles Kerouac Gysin and Ginsberg to the great Moroccan novelists Mohamed Choukri Mohammed Mrabet and Tahar Ben Jelloun William S. Burroughs Cutting Up the Century Joan Hawkins,Alex Wermer-Colan,2019-05-17 This definitive book on Burroughs decades long cut up project and its relevance to the American twentieth century including previously unpublished works William S Burroughs s Nova Trilogy The Soft Machine Nova Express and The Ticket That Exploded remains the best known of his textual cut up creations but he committed more than a decade of his life to searching out multimedia for use in works of collage By cutting up folding in and splicing together newspapers magazines letters book reviews classical literature audio recordings photographs and films Burroughs created an eclectic and wide ranging countercultural archive This collection includes previously unpublished work by Burroughs such as cut ups of work written by his son cut ups of critical responses to his own work collages on the Vietnam War and the Watergate scandal excerpts from his dream journals and some of the few diary entries that Burroughs wrote about his wife Joan William S Burroughs Cutting Up the Century also features original essays interviews and discussions by established Burroughs scholars respected artists and people who encountered Burroughs The essays consider Burroughs from a range of perspectives literary studies media studies popular culture gender studies post colonialism history and geography A landmark in scholarship Choice

Journal of Middle Eastern and North African Intellectual and Cultural Studies ,2003 Henry James' Travel Mirosława Buchholtz,2018-12-17 Henry James Travel Fiction and Non Fiction offers a multifaceted approach to Henry James idea and practice of travel from the perspective of the globalized world today Each chapter addresses a different selection of James fiction and non fiction and offers a different approach towards the ideas that are still with us today history reflected in art and architecture the tourist gaze museum culture transnationalism and the return home As a whole the book encompasses both early and late fiction and non fiction by Henry James giving the reader a sense of how his idea of travel evolved over several decades of his creative activity and shows how thin the line between fiction and non fiction travel writing really is

Travel Narratives, Travel Fictions Daniel Cooper Alarcón,2024-02-02 In Travel Narratives Travel Fictions Daniel Cooper Alarc n argues that travel literature performs important social and cultural criticism often overlooked in studies of the genre By examining non fiction and fiction novels and short stories that purposefully examine different types of travel in relationship to each other Cooper Alarc n documents and highlights the sophisticated ways that both types of writing have anticipated and contributed ideas central to critical studies of travel tourism and migration The author uses the term travel fictions to illustrate the ways in which travel narratives supposed factual accounts of travel often misrepresent distort and fabricate notions about the people and places they purport to describe creating useful mythologies and hinting at the ways in which the acts of reading and writing have become an integral part of traveling shaping not just itineraries but perceptions and beliefs about places travelers visit Both types of travel writing are influential in this regard and they frequently borrow from one another mutually reinforcing ideas tropes and modes of representation often in problematic ways

Cosmopolitan Minds Alexa Weik von Mossner, 2014-05-15 The book explores the role of empathy and emotion in the emergence of cosmopolitan imaginations through the works of a diverse set of American writers who during World War II and the early Cold War period lived in Europe Asia and Africa It draws on theories of emotion and literary imagination from cognitive psychology philosophy and cognitive literary studies to offer a new perspective on the affective and imaginative underpinnings of critical and reflexive cosmopolitanism It argues that our emotional engagements with others real and imagined are crucially important for the development of cosmopolitan imaginations The book concentrates on specifically American cosmopolitan imaginations in the mid twentieth century focusing on a core of transnational writers who for various reasons had highly conflicted relationships with the American nation Kay Boyle Pearl S Buck Richard Wright William Gardner Smith and Paul Bowles Their literary works are emotionally powerful indictments of institutionalized racism and national violence inside and outside of the United States at the same time they testify to the complex cosmopolitan identities of their authors Reading these texts as affective cosmopolitan critiques the book works out important and complex role played by imaginative and emotional engagements in the development of solidarities that go beyond self family community and nation Reading transnational American literature from a cognitive perspective the book adds a new dimension to recent work in American literary history that seeks to reconceptualize U S literary and cultural production in its global context At the same time it also widens and deepens the array of literature available to researchers in cognitive literary studies The
