Selections Paul Celan, 2005-03-14 Paul Celan is one of the essential poets not just of the twentieth century but of all time Pierre Joris's selections from the remarkable heart shattering work provide what is surely the best one volume introduction to Celan ever published in English Paul Auster No twentieth century poet pierces the heart of language with such an exquisite blade as Paul Celan With Pierre Joris company's translations of key poems poetics letters and exemplary commentary it is as if we are reading Celan for the last time once again Charles Bernstein author of With Strings Joris has dwelled during the better part of his life in Celan's words and silences and as his brilliant introduction demonstrates he has journeyed through the work's intricacies like very few others Michael Palmer author of The Promises of Glass A beautiful and necessary book Celan's charred radiance shines through every page Richard Sieburth translator of Hymns and Fragments

Selections Paul Celan, 2005 Paul Celan is one of the essential poets not just of the twentieth century but of all time Pierre Joris's selections from the remarkable heart shattering work provide what is surely the best one volume introduction to Celan ever published in English Paul Auster No twentieth century poet pierces the heart of language with such an exquisite blade as Paul Celan With Pierre Joris company's translations of key poems poetics letters and exemplary commentary it is as if we are reading Celan for the last time once again Charles Bernstein author of With Strings Joris has dwelled during the better part of his life in Celan's words and silences and as his brilliant introduction demonstrates he has journeyed through the work's intricacies like very few others Michael Palmer author of The Promises of Glass A beautiful and necessary book Celan's charred radiance shines through every page Richard Sieburth translator of Hymns and Fragments Paul Celan Paul Celan, 2005-03-14 The best introduction to the work of Paul Celan this anthology offers a broad collection of his writing in unsurpassed English translations along with a wealth of commentaries by major writers and philosophers The present selection is based on Celan's own 1968 selected poems though enlarged to include both earlier and later poems as well as two prose works The Meridian Celan's core statement on poetics and the narrative Conversation in the Mountains This volume also includes letters to Celan's wife the artist Gisèle Celan-Lestrange to his friend Erich Einhorn and to Ren Char and Jean Paul Sartre all appearing here for the first time in English Under the Dome Jean Daive, 2020-11-03 An arresting memoir of the final years and tragic suicide of one of twentieth century Europe's greatest poets published on the centenary of his birth Daive's memoir sensitively conjures a portrait of a man tormented by both his mind and his medical treatment but who nonetheless remained a generous friend and a poet for whom writing was a matter of life and death The New Yorker Jean Daive's memoir of his brief but intense spell as confidant and poetic confrère of Paul Celan offers us unique access to the mind and personality of one of the great poets of the dark twentieth century J M Coetzee Paul Celan 1920-1970 is considered one of Europe's greatest post World War II poets known for his astonishing experiments in poetic form expression and address Under the Dome is French poet Jean Daive's haunting memoir of his friendship with Celan a precise yet elliptical

account of their daily meetings discussions and walks through Paris a routine that ended suddenly when Celan committed suicide by drowning himself in the Seine Daive's grief at the loss of his friend finds expression in Under the Dome where we are given an intimate insight into Celan's last years at the height of his poetic powers and as he approached the moment when he would succumb to the debilitating emotional pain of a Holocaust survivor In Under the Dome Jean Daive illuminates Celan's process of thinking about poetry grappling with questions of where it comes from and what it does invaluable insights about poetry's relation to history and ethics and how poems offer pathways into a deeper grasp of our past and present This new edition of Rosmarie Waldrop's masterful translation includes an introduction by scholars Robert Kaufman and Philip Gerard which provides critical historical and cultural context for Daive's enigmatic timeless text Under the Dome breathes with Celan while walking with Celan walking in the dark and the light with Celan invoking the stillness the silence of the breathturn while speaking for the deeply human necessity of poetry Michael Palmer author of The Laughter of the Sphinx The fragments textured together in this more than magnificent rendering of Jean Daive's prose poem by this master of the word Rosmarie Waldrop grab on and leave us haunted and speechless Mary Ann Caws author of Creative Gatherings Meeting Places of Modernism and editor of the Yale Anthology of Twentieth Century French Poetry Rosmarie Waldrop's brilliant translation resonates with her profound knowledge of both Celan's and Daive's poetry and the passion for language that she shares with them The text brings these three major poets together in a highly unusual and wholly successful collaboration Cole Swensen author of On Walking On Rosmarie Waldrop takes up Celan's question to Jean Daive as her own I cannot unread her inimitable ease in these pages This is a book that contends with time Fady Joudah author of Footnotes in the Order of Disappearance Daive's writing is a highly punctuated recollection a memoir perhaps a testimony but also surely a way of attending to the time of the writing the conditions and coordinates of Celan's various enunciations his linguistic humility Celan's death what Daive calls really unforeseeable remains as an undercurrent in the conversations recollected here gathered up again with an insistence and clarity of true mourning and acknowledgement Judith Butler author of The Force of Nonviolence

Contemporary Translation in Transition Maria Khotimsky, Friederike Reents, Henrieke Stahl, William Waters, 2025-01-07 This book investigates the hybrid multiform nature of contemporary poetry with particular emphasis on recent Russian lyric and its translations into German and English Poetry translation thriving and obstinately open ended is not so much a defined process as a practice of ongoing transit across linguistic and national borders The book's innovative format invites contemporary poets into dialogue with literary translators editors publishers and scholars the conversations among their wide ranging essays poems and exchanges both model and investigate the work of transcultural dialogue As a kind of transition poetry translation engages the composition and disintegration of forms revises relations of producers to receivers mixes and rethinks genres and media translates itself as multilingual writing or language experiment Multiple translations of a poem do not compete but interact reshaping the putative gulf between source and target language
