

PAUL'S USE OF THE OLD TESTAMENT IN ROMANS 9:25-26

JOHN A. BATTLE, JR.

A number of premillennial writers are now agreeing with amillennialists that a literal interpretation of OT prophecies concerning Israel is not justified. They claim that the NT interprets these prophecies in a "spiritualized" sense, applying them to the present church, and conclude that the OT provides no proof of a future national conversion of Israel or of a future millennial kingdom. The quotations of Hosea in Rom 9:25-26 are cited as a primary example. Most who hold to the literal interpretation of prophecy assume that Paul quotes Hosea by way of analogy only, without denying a future fulfillment for Israel; others believe that Paul quotes Hosea literally and has specifically in mind Israel's present unbelief and future conversion. The author prefers the second alternative and sees evidence for this interpretation not only in the context of Hosea, but also in the context of Romans 9. The background and contexts of the other OT passages cited in Romans 9 confirm the suggested interpretation. It is concluded that the literal interpretation of OT prophecy not only agrees with Paul's normal hermeneutics but helps greatly in the exegesis of this particular passage.

Today it is recognized more than ever that one's theology as a whole is closely related to one's hermeneutics. This fact especially comes to the fore in the study of eschatology. For decades the dictum has held true that amillennialism requires an allegorical or "spiritual" interpretation of biblical prophecy (especially in the OT), while premillennialism springs from a more literal interpretation of those prophecies.

Therefore, it comes as a surprise that a premillennial writer would favor a spiritualized interpretation of OT prophecy. Yet, several premillennialists have done this, the most prominent being George Eldon Ladd of Fuller Theological Seminary. In an interesting

Pauls Use Of The Old Testament:

Paul's Use of the Old Testament E. Earle Ellis, 2003-03-18 The use of the Old Testament in the New has long been recognized as an important field of research writes the author Too often however the emphasis placed upon rabbinic and Hellenistic influences has tended to subordinate and obscure the unique place of the Old Testament in the minds and theology of the early Christian writers The purpose of this volume is to discover the rationale underlying the Pauline usage both in its textual manifestation and in its theological application The author concludes that while rabbinic Judaism has influenced the mechanics of Pauline citation one must look to the apostolic Church and to Christ Himself to find the primary source of the apostle s understanding and use of the Old Testament

Paul and Scripture Steve Moyise, 2011-09-22 This is the only short book available that summarizes the role scripture played in Paul s thought Accessibly written at undergraduate level it outlines the key arguments in the debate Written by an international expert on the subject Paul and Scripture also contributes to contemporary Church discussions about the proper interpretation of scripture

Swimming in the Sea of Scripture Paul Han, 2015-02-26 In examining the appropriation of Scripture in 2 Corinthians 4 13 Han argues that the apostle is not only aware of the original contexts of the passages he refers to but also goes beyond the immediate contexts and brings in the larger context of the Old Testament In the course of adapting the Scripture necessary changes of referent occur and Paul appears to use the method of identification in reading the Old Testament Whether it is Paul himself the Corinthians or the opponents various kinds of identification take place with the scriptural writers and the characters mentioned in it This identification extends even to the point of identifying the Corinthians with the Servant of Isaiah Jesus and God From this it is suggested that there is a concept of corporate identity present throughout the chapters which is also seen in the Old Testament In many cases Paul s basic thrust is sufficiently clear even without any understanding of scriptural references he makes This is because Paul often makes a rhetorical use of the Scripture by citing a text at climactic points or near the closing of a section he is developing to strengthen his points even as he brings in the big picture of the Old Testament
