Peter Greenaway A Zed And Two Noughts:

A Zed & Two Noughts Peter Greenaway, 1998 The lives of two brothers working in a zoo are altered when their wives die in a car accident One begins to obsessively photograph dead animals while the other crusades to set them free A bizarre and unexpected story emerges Peter Greenaway's Postmodern / Poststructuralist Cinema Paula Willoquet-Maricondi, Mary Alemany-Galway, 2008-07-17 Since the 1960s British multi media artist Peter Greenaway has shocked and intrigued audiences with his avant garde approach to filmmaking and other artistic ventures From early experimental films to provocative features Greenaway has deployed strategies associated with structuralist cinema only to challenge or critique the very limits of that cinema and of film in general In this collection of essays scholars from a variety of disciplines explore various postmodern and poststructuralist aspects of Greenaway's films starting with his early shorts and delving into his feature length works including The Draughtman's Contract The Belly of an Architect A Zed and Two Noughts The Cook the Thief His Wife and Her Lover The Baby of Mcon and The Pillow Book Other artistic productions including his paintings and installations are also discussed These essays examine the filmmaker's position within British and avant garde cinema and his interest in constructing and deconstructing representational systems In the years since the first edition of this book Greenaway has enjoyed continued success in creating hybridized media projects for the stage and screen as evidenced by additional essays for this revised edition A new chapter addresses how Dutch political events and Dutch art have been crucial in shaping Greenaway's aesthetic focusing on The Draughtsman's Contract the 1991 opera Writing to Vermeer and Nightwatching the audio visual installation and 2007 film of the same name which were inspired by Rembrandt's Night Watch Also new to this collection is an essay that examines Greenaway's most ambitious endeavor to date The Tulse Luper Suitcases which exists as four feature films multiple websites an online game several books and installations and a number of theatrical events Peter Greenaway's Postmodern Poststructuralist Cinema Revised Edition explores the cultural historical and philosophical implication Peter Greenaway Peter Greenaway, 2000 Twenty one interviews with the controversial director of films such as Prospero's Books and The Cook The Thief His Wife and Her Lover Historical Dictionary of Irish Cinema Roddy Flynn, Tony Tracy, 2019-08-09 From capsule descriptions assessments of individual feature films to extended essays on areas such as Irish animation short film experimental film and documentary production along with discussion of a wide range of key creative and administrative personnel the Dictionary combines a breath of existing scholarship with extensive new information and research carried out especially for this volume It is the definitive guide to Irish cinema in the 21st century This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Irish Cinema contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 500 cross referenced entries on key Irish actors directors producers and other personnel from over a century of Irish film history This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Irish Cinema Religion without Belief Jeanne Ellen

Petrolle,2008-06-05 In our present cultural moment when God is supposed to be dead and metaphysical speculation unfashionable why does postmodern fiction in a variety of genres make such frequent use of the ancient rhetorical form of allegory In Religion without Belief Jean Ellen Petrolle argues that contrary to popular understandings of postmodernism as an irreligious and amoral climate postmodern allegory remains deeply engaged in the quest for religious insight Examining a range of films and novels this book shows that postmodern fiction despite its posturing about the unverifiable nature of truth and reality routinely offers theological and cosmological speculation Works considered include virtual reality films such as The Matrix and The Truman Show avant garde films and Amerindian and feminist novels Derrida Reframed K. Malcolm Richards,2013-02-05 Are your students baffled by Baudrillard Dazed by Deleuze Confused by Kristeva Other beginners guides can feel as impenetrable as the original texts to students who think in images Contemporary Thinkers Reframed instead uses the language of the arts to explore the usefulness in practice of complex ideas Short contemporary and accessible these lively books utilise actual examples of artworks films television shows works of architecture fashion and even computer games to explain and explore the work of the most commonly taught thinkers Conceived specifically for the visually minded the series will prove invaluable to students right across the visual arts Deconstruction is touted in every visual area from architecture to fashion yet few really understand what Derrida s notorious concept means much less his elusive idea of differance In fact Derrida s work can seem almost impenetrable This guide explains Derrida s key concepts through examples from across the whole spectrum of the arts looking at the work of architects such as Bernard Tschumi and Daniel Libeskind fashion designers such as Ann Demeulemeister and at the work of artists as varied as Kara Walker Yinka Shonibare MBE Rachel Whiteread and Jeff Wall Showing what Derrida s work really means in practice this short guide makes this thinker s complex work accessible to a wider public The Frame and the Mirror Thomas P. Brockelman,2001 If the postmodern is a collage as some critics have suggested or if collage is itself a kernel of the postmodern what does this mean for our way of understanding the world The Frame and the Mirror uses this question to probe the distinctive character of the postmodern situation and the philosophical problem of representation Brockelman s work is itself a collage of sorts using juxtapositions of critics and art historical figures to conduct a debate between such figures as Karsten Harries Gianni Vattimo Rosalind Krauss Immanuel Kant Jean Francois Lyotard Slavoj Žižek and Le Corbusier about issues such as truth in art perspectivism theatricality the sublime psychoanalytic theory politics and urbanism More than an introduction to the postmodern The Frame and the Mirror advances our understanding of the contemporary world by relating its features to the peculiar characteristics of collage Ultimately Brockelman shows how collage demands that we reinterpret modernity conceiving of it as suspended between a loss of certainty and a new kind of knowledge about the human condition In doing so his work challenges many of the claims made in the name of postmodernism and offers in their place a new and ironic view of the cultural space in which contemporary and historical events occur Electronic Monuments Gregory L. Ulmer,2005

While corporations governmental groups and public relations firms debated the best way to memorialize the event of 9 11 sites of commemoration could be seen across the country and especially on the Internet Greg Ulmer suggests that this reality points us to a new sense of monumentality one that is collaborative in nature rather than iconic From a do it yourself Mount Rushmore to an automated tribute to the devastating annual toll of traffic deaths in the United States Electronic Monuments describes commemoration as a fundamental experience joining individual and collective identity and adapting both to the emerging apparatus of electracy or digital literacy Concerns about the destruction of civic life caused by the society of the spectacle are refocused on the question of how a collectivity remembers who or what it is Ulmer proposes that the Internet makes it possible for monumentality to become a primary site of self knowledge one that supports a new politics ethics and dimension of education The Internet thus holds the promise of bringing citizens back into the political equation as witnesses and monitors Gregory L Ulmer is professor of English and media studies at the University of Florida Gainesville

A Life in 16 Films Steve Waters,2021-06-03 Steve Waters examines how the very idea of film has defined him as a playwright and a person in this book Through the the lens of cinema it provides a cultural and political snapshot of life in Britain from the 2nd part of the 20th century up to the present day The films spanning almost a century starting with The White Hell of Pitz Palu 1929 and moving most recently to Dark Waters 2019 each chapter examines aspects of Waters s journey from his working class Midlands upbringing to working in professional theatre to living through the Covid epidemic through the prism of a particular film From The Wizard of Oz to Code Unknown from sci fi to documentary from queer cinema to world cinema this honest comic book offers a view of film as a way of thinking about how we live In doing so it illuminates culture and politics in the UK over half a century and provides an intimate insight into drama and writing

The Self-deceiving Muse Alan Singer,2010 Focuses on the phenomenon of self deception and proposes a radical revision of our commonplace understanding of it as a token of irrationality Argues that self deception can illuminate the rationalistic functions of character
