Philosophy And Everyday Life:

101 Experiments in the Philosophy of Everyday Life Roger-Pol Droit, 2003-11-06 Roger Pol Droit's highly original book is a reassessment of our day to day engagement with life. In 101 short texts written with limpid elegance Droit invites us to reconsider our most ordinary actions as unexpected philosophical events: peeling an apple, trying to lie in a hammock, watching someone sleep, hearing your voice on an answering machine, playing with a small child, activities that when considered outside of their routine invite us to experience the familiar in startling new ways. Droit encourages us to go further: pretend to be an animal of your choice, create a wall with your hands, try to walk around your room in total darkness, spend time in the Underground and observe your oddity.

Grayling, 2010-08-10 A volume of philosophical essays by the London Times and Prospect columnist shares accessible insights into provocative questions about such topics as human self-deception, the relevance of beauty, and the relationship between goodness and happiness. Critique of Everyday Life: Foundations for a sociology of the everyday Henri Lefebvre, 1991 Henri Lefebvre's three-volume Critique of Everyday Life is perhaps the richest, most prescient work by one of the twentieth century's greatest philosophers. The first volume presented an introduction to the concept of everyday life. Written twenty years later, this second volume attempts to establish the necessary formal instruments for analysis and outlines a series of theoretical categories within everyday life, such as the theory of the semantic field and the theory of moments. The moment at which the book appeared, 1961, was significant both for France and for Lefebvre himself: he was just beginning his career as a lecturer in sociology at Strasbourg and then at Nanterre, and many of the ideas which were influential in the events leading up to 1968 are to be found in this critique. In its impetuous, often undisciplined prose, the reader may catch a glimpse of how charismatic a lecturer Lefebvre must have been.

Henri Lefebvre and the Theory of the Production of Space Christian Schmid, 2022-11-29 Henri Lefebvre was the major theorist of space and of the urban. This is the definitive book on Lefebvre. Shortlisted for the Deutscher Memorial Prize 2023. This book presents an encompassing, detailed and thorough overview and reconstruction of Lefebvre's theory of space and of the urban. Henri Lefebvre belongs to the generation of the great French intellectuals and philosophers, together with his contemporaries Michel Foucault and Jean-Paul Sartre. His theory has experienced a remarkable revival over the last two decades and is discussed and applied today in many disciplines in humanities and social sciences, particularly in urban studies, geography, urban sociology, urban anthropology, architecture and planning. Lefebvre, together with David Harvey, is one of the leading and most read theoreticians in these fields. This book explains in an accessible way the theoretical and epistemological context of this work in French philosophy and in the German dialectic: Hegel, Marx, and Nietzsche, and reconstructs in detail the historical development of its different elements. It also gives an overview on the receptions of Lefebvre and discusses a wide range of applications of this theory in many research fields, such as urban and regional development, urbanization, urbanity, social space, and everyday life.

Understanding Everyday Racism Philomena Essed, 1991-07-25 While there are many studies of racism and racial inequality at the macro level of analysis there has been little work done on the experience of everyday racism for black people Philomena Essed's brilliant work fills this gap The book compares contemporary racism in the US and the Netherlands

Wittgenstein on Mind and Language David G. increasingly being recognized as one of the great twentieth century thinkers Nevertheless the majority of scholarship on Lefebvre predominantly focuses on his theorizing of space often taking Lefebvre's The Production of Space as the point of departure and or on his theorizing of everyday life with his multi volume Critique of Everyday Life as the focal point This book argues that it is Lefebvre's concept of metaphilosophy that provides the connective tissues for these works one that is chiefly concerned with deciphering the enigma of modernity The book will appeal to a wide interdisciplinary and international audience from the fields of sociology philosophy cultural studies geography the history of ideas and literary studies This includes scholars and students interested in Henri Lefebvre's writings everyday life modernity space time leisure work continental thought critical theory Marxism and technology Ágnes Heller and Hannah Arendt Ángel Prior Olnos, Ángel Rivero, 2018-09-30 This book reconstructs through texts by Agnes Heller and international scholars a timely conversation between Hannah Arendt and Heller on the malaises of modernity This valuable work will be appreciated both by academics and students interested in social and political philosophy in addition to the wider public curious of intellectual history Both Arendt and Heller are great thinkers with the ability to enlighten the great moral and political problems of our time Although these two great figures belong to different generations the dialogue reconstructed here provides a fuller picture of the demise of the great totalitarian forces of the twentieth century Both Arendt and Heller in a sense accepted the burden of understanding the evils of their age It is however Heller by addressing the perennial problems of modernity posed by Arendt who makes this conversation possible illuminating the problems of this century Philosophy of Everyday Life Eric Knopp, 2000-05 The age old philosophical concerns are still relevant today This book suggests new and current readings of western culture's most important thinkers setting them in new relations to one another and to daily life

Metaphilosophy Henri Lefebvre, 2016-07-12 In Metaphilosophy Henri Lefebvre works through the implications of Marx's revolutionary thought to consider philosophy's engagement with the world Lefebvre takes Marx's notion of the world becoming philosophical and philosophy becoming worldly as a leitmotif examining the relation between Hegelian Marxist supersession and Nietzschean overcoming Metaphilosophy is conceived of as a transformation of philosophy developing it into a programme of radical worldwide change The book demonstrates Lefebvre's threefold debt to Hegel Marx and Nietzsche but it also brings a number of other figures into the conversation including Sartre Heidegger and Axelos A key text in Lefebvre's oeuvre Metaphilosophy is also a milestone in contemporary thinking about philosophy's relation to the world

Sub Specie Aeternitatis Nikolay Alexandrovich Berdyaev, 2021-12-20 Wealth without work Pleasure without conscience Science without humanity Knowledge without character Politics without principle Commerce without morality Worship without sacrifice <https://vidjambov.blogspot.com/2023/01/book-inventory-vladimir-djambov-talmach.html> The philosophical foundation and defense of religion and mysticism is an important task of our era and in defending this we must be not apologists but free researchers and seekers My experiences of philosophical journalism attempts to consider the temporary sub specie aeternitatis a feasible contribution to the philosophical defense of religious cultural and religious social ideas We are accused that in such a hot and difficult time we are busy with eternity we are interested in God but this is the strangest and most unacceptable of all objections Say that there is no eternity and there is no God this is understandable and this will be an objection in essence But let the reality of God for one second and you will have to admit that at all times you should think about Him and look for ways to unite with Him and especially at the moment of storm earthquake and fire Long live Reason and may common sense the kingdom of darkness the kingdom of sober rational madness be hidden The concept of personality human individuality is unthinkable without freedom as an internal definition of its nature The creative acts of the individual are free but it the individual is bound by the creative acts of other personalities and by her belonging to the world whole therefore at every step the personality is faced with necessity which takes the forms of oppression and enslavement 93 Therefore the inner spiritual freedom of the human person can and should be opposed to imposed necessity oppression enslavement that is external lack of freedom Fighting for freedom for himself and for others an internally free person realizes his destiny in the world puts his creative stamp on it defends his right to be determined only by his freedom his inner creative power which collides with a bound and imposed world And that unfree object which the positivists call man cannot oppose itself to anything to any external oppression to any lack of freedom it is not able to introduce any creative and opposing principle into this bound slave world Only a free man a spiritual being whose roots lie in the bottomless depths of being can strive for ultimate freedom in a position to fight for it while an unfree piece of nature would remain in slavery until the end of time And we are now inspired by an undefined social and state system historically limited and in reality bourgeois but by the inalienable rights of the individual which constitute absolute superclass and supra historical benefits
