Phlamoudhi Vounari A Sanctuary Site In Cyprus:

Phlamoudhi Vounari ,1981 Phlamoudhi Vounari Selma M. S. Al-Radi,1983 Ancient Building in Cyprus

George R. H. Wright,1992 The wealth of excavation in Cyprus conducted across a period of nearly a century and a half has revealed much evidence of ancient building of all functional categories This picture extends over a vast range of time ca 10 000 years since Cyprus is probably the place where the earliest substantial building known the Neolithic round house style is better presented than anywhere else in the world It is the aim of this book to set forth and document the building tradition which hitherto has received no detailed exposition The book will fill several gaps in the library shelves at one and the same time architectural history that presents all the archaeological evidence The Archaeology of Cyprus A. Bernard Knapp,2013-03-18 This book examines the archaeology of Cyprus from the first known human presence during the Late Epipalaeolithic through the end of the Bronze Age Phlamoudhi Vounari Selma M. S. Al- Radi,1981 Prehistoric and Protohistoric Cyprus A. Bernard Knapp,2008-02-21 A Bernard Knapp presents a new island archaeology and island history of Bronze Age and early Iron Age Cyprus set in its Mediterranean context Drawing out tensions between different ways of thinking about islands and how they are connected or isolated from surrounding islands and mainlands Knapp addresses an under studied but dynamic new field of archaeological enquiry the social identity of prehistoric and protohistoric Mediterranean islanders In treating issues such as ethnicity migration and hybridization he provides an up to date theoretical analysis of a wide range of relevant archaeological data In using historical documents to re present the Cypriot past he also offers an integrated archaeological and socio historical synthesis of insularity and social identity on the Mediterranean s third largest island Religion and Social Transformations in Cyprus Giorgos Papantoniou,2012-10-19 By focusing on religion this monograph represents the first extended attempt to explore how the socio cultural infrastructure of Cyprus was affected by the transition from segmented administration by many Cypriot kings to the island wide government by a foreign Ptolemaic correspondent Barrington Atlas of the Greek and Roman World Richard J.A. Talbert,2000-10-08 In 102 full color maps spread over 175 pages the Barrington Atlas re creates the entire world of the Greeks and Romans from the British Isles to the Indian subcontinent and deep into North Africa It spans the territory of more than 75 modern countries Its large format 13 1 4 x 18 in or 33 7 x 46 4 cm has been custom designed by the leading cartographic supplier MapQuest com Inc and is unrivaled for range clarity and detail Over 70 experts aided by an equal number of consultants have worked from satellite generated aeronautical charts to return the modern landscape to its ancient appearance and to mark ancient names and features in accordance with the most up to date historical scholarship and archaeological discoveries Chronologically the Barrington Atlas spans archaic Greece to the Late Roman Empire and no more than two standard scales 1 500 000 and 1 1 000 000 are used to represent most regions Since the 1870s all attempts to map the classical world comprehensively have failed The Barrington Atlas has finally achieved that elusive and challenging goal It began in 1988 at the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill under the direction of the distinguished ancient historian Richard Talbert and has been developed with approximately 4.5 million in funding support. The resulting Barrington Atlas is a reference work of permanent value. It has an exceptionally broad appeal to everyone worldwide with an interest in the ancient Greeks and Romans, the lands they penetrated and the peoples and cultures they encountered in Europe, North Africa, and Western Asia. Scholars and libraries should find it essential. It is also for students, travelers, lovers of fine cartography, and anyone eager to retrace Alexander's eastward marches, cross the Alps with Hannibal, traverse the Eastern Mediterranean with St. Paul, or ponder the roads, aqueducts, and defense works of the Roman Empire. For the new millennium, the Barrington Atlas brings the ancient past back to life in an unforgettably vivid and inspiring way. Map by Map Directory: A Map by Map Directory to the Barrington Atlas is available online: http://assets.press.princeton.edu/B_ATLAS/B_ATLAS.PDF and in a separate two-volume print edition of close to 1,500 pages. The Directory is designed to provide information about every place or feature in the Barrington Atlas. The section for each map comprises a concise text drawing attention to special difficulties in mapping a region, such as extensive landscape change since antiquity or uneven modern exploration; a listing of every name and feature on the map with basic data about the period of occupation, the modern equivalents of ancient placenames, the modern country within which they are located, and brief references to relevant ancient testimony or modern studies; a bibliography of works cited. The Map by Map Directory is an essential accompaniment to the Barrington Atlas. As a uniquely rich, comprehensive, up-to-date distillation of evidence and scholarship, it has no match elsewhere and opens the way to an immense variety of further research initiatives.

Faunal Extinction in an Island Society Alan H. Simmons, 2006-01-22. The multidisciplinary research program at Akrotiri, Aetokremnos, is important in my opinion for three reasons: two empirical and one conceptual. Quite apart from the archaeology work at the site, is a major contribution to island biogeography in that the Phanourios sample, certainly the best from Cyprus and probably the best anywhere in the world, has already provided and will continue to provide important ecological and behavioral data on these intriguing creatures. Dwarfed island faunas are important to our understanding of the complex factors that shape natural selection in ecologically closed environments over the evolutionary long term. At Aetokremnos, we seem to have the end of a long sequence of hippo evolution on the island. With comparative studies of other Cypriot hippo faunas, we should be able to pin down the interval of initial colonization by what were presumably normal-sized hippos, and if the other sites can be dated, document the dwarfing process in considerable detail. Aetokremnos would still be a significant paleontological locality even in the absence of evidence of a human presence there. While reading the text of the monograph, a number of questions strictly related to the paleontology occurred to me. One was how to model the colonization process. There seems to be little question that the large mammals colonized the island by swimming to it, because I gather Cyprus has not been connected to the mainland for roughly 5.6 million years.

Sacred Landscapes in Antiquity Ralph Haussler, Gian Franco Chiaia, 2020-07-31. From generation to generation, people experience their landscapes differently. Humans depend on their natural environment it shapes their behavior while it is often felt that deities responsible for both natural benefits and natural calamities such as droughts famines floods and landslides need to be appeased We presume that in many societies lakes rivers rocks mountains caves and groves were considered sacred Individual sites and entire landscapes are often associated with divine actions mythical heroes and etiological myths Throughout human history people have also felt the need to monumentalize their sacred landscape But this is where the similarities end as different societies had very different understandings beliefs and practices The aim of this new thematic appraisal is to scrutinize carefully our evidence and rethink our methodologies in a multi disciplinary approach More than 30 papers investigate diverse sacred landscapes from the Iberian peninsula and Britain in the west to China in the east They discuss how to interpret the intricate web of ciphers and symbols in the landscape and how people might have experienced it We see the role of performance ritual orality textuality and memory in people s sacred landscapes A diachronic view allows us to study how landscapes were rewritten adapted and redefined in the course of time to suit new cultural political and religious understandings not to mention the impact of urbanism on people s understandings A key question is how was the landscape manipulated transformed and monumentalized especially the colossal investments in monumental architecture we see in certain socio historic contexts or the creation of an alternative humanmade seemingly non natural landscape with perfectly astronomically aligned buildings that define a cosmological order Sacred Landscapes therefore aims to analyze the complex links between landscape religiosity and society developing a dialectic framework that explores sacred landscapes across the ancient world in a dynamic holistic contextual and historical perspective

New Directions in Cypriot Archaeology Catherine Kearns,Sturt W. Manning,2019-04-15 New Directions in Cypriot Archaeology highlights current scholarship that employs a range of new techniques methods and theoretical approaches to questions related to the archaeology of the prehistoric and protohistoric periods on the island of Cyprus From revolutions in radiocarbon dating to the compositional analysis of ceramic remains to the digital applications used to study landscape histories at broad scales to rethinking human environment climate interrelationships the last few decades of research on Cyprus invite inquiry into the implications of these novel archaeological methods for the field and its future directions This edited volume gathers together a new generation of scholars who offer a revealing exploration of these insights as well as challenges to big questions in Cypriot archaeology such as the rise of social complexity urban settlement histories and changes in culture and identity These enduring topics provide the foundation for investigating the benefits and challenges of twenty first century methods and conceptual frameworks Divided into three main sections related to critical chronological transitions from earliest prehistory to the development of autonomous kingdoms during the Iron Age each contribution exposes and engages with a different advance in studies of material culture absolute dating paleoenvironmental analysis and spatial studies using geographic information systems From rethinking the chronological transitions of the Early Bronze Age to exploring regional craft production regimes of the Middle and Late Bronze Ages to locating Iron Age cemeteries through archival topographic maps these exciting and pioneering authors provide innovative ways of thinking about Cypriot archaeology and its relationship to the wider discipline

Salamis of Cyprus Sabine Rogge, Christina Ioannou, Theodoros Mavrojannis, 2019 In May 2015 an international conference organised by the University of Cyprus and the Cypriot Department of Antiquities was held in Nicosia a conference which could well be called the largest ever symposium on ancient Salamis During the three day event some 60 scholars from many countries presented their current research on this important and spectacular archaeological site on the east coast of the island of Cyprus Two generations of scholars met in Nicosia during the conference an older one whose relationship with ancient Salamis can be characterized as very direct since many representatives of that generation had actively participated in the extremely productive excavations at that spot until these activities came to an abrupt end in the summer of 1974 due to the Turkish invasion and a younger generation which is of course lacking this very direct contact The conference successfully connected the older with the younger generation and thus contributed to maintaining and renewing the interest in ancient Salamis This richly illustrated book compiles most of the lectures presented during the conference It might be regarded as a tribute to Salamis an outstanding ancient city which existed for more than one and a half millennia eventually under the name of Constantia

The Oxford Handbook of the Archaeology of the Levant Margarete Laura Steiner, Ann E. Killebrew, 2014 This Handbook offers an overview of the archaeology of the Levant Written by leading scholars in the field it integrates the treatment of the archaeology of the region within its larger cultural and social context and focuses chronologically on the Neolithic through to the Persian periods

The Development of Pre-State Communities in the Ancient Near East Diane Bolger, Louise C. Maguire, 2010-04-30 This book explores the dynamics of small scale societies in the ancient Near East by examining the ways in which particular communities functioned and interacted and by moving beyond the broad neo evolutionary models of social change which have characterised many earlier approaches By focusing on issues of diversity scale and context it considers the ways in which economy crafts technology and ritual were organised the roles played by mortuary practices and households in the structure and development of ancient societies and the importance of agency identity ethnicity gender community and cultural interaction for the rise of socio economic complexity The contributors to this volume are well known archaeologists in the field of Near Eastern studies all are currently engaged in fieldwork or research in Cyprus the Levant or Turkey The variety and depth of the research they present here reflect the richness of the archaeological record in the cradle of civilisation and convey the vibrancy of current interpretive approaches within the field of Near Eastern prehistory today

Ancient Building in Cyprus G.R.H. Wright, 2022-11-07 The wealth of excavation in Cyprus conducted across a period of nearly a century and a half has revealed much evidence of ancient building of all functional categories Whereas the earlier excavation concerned mainly funerary and religious contexts more recent work has endeavoured to clarify the whole range of building in Cyprus This picture extends over a vast range of time ca 10 000 years since Cyprus is probably the place where the earliest substantial building known the Neolithic round house style is better presented than anywhere else in the world Certainly it was immeasurably longer lived in Cyprus than in any other region of the ancient world This longevity of tradition became a proverbial aspect of the Cypriote character It is the aim of this book to set forth and document this building tradition which hitherto has received no detailed exposition After preliminary geographical and historical introductions the ancient building of Cyprus has been surveyed and analysed from the following view points its historical development its design its construction and its foreign connections Because of the extensive and detailed coverage every effort has been made to facilitate the use of the book equally as a treatise and as a work of instant reference e g by way of introductory pre cis list of general references running titles to pages and marginal rubrics The book is also virtually a double treatment of the subject since a separate volume contains specially drawn illustrations arranged with captions on the facing pages which themselves constitute an incisive coverage of the subject matter The book will fill several gaps in the library shelves at one and the same time architectural history that presents all the archaeological evidence The print edition is available as a set of two volumes 9789004095472 Report of the Department of Antiquities, Cyprus Cyprus. The Wide Lens in Archaeology Allan Gilbert, Justin Lev-Tov, Paula Wapnish, 2017-06-01 This book honors the memory of Brian Hesse a scholar of Near Eastern archaeology a writer of alliterative and punned publication titles and an accomplished amateur photographer Hesse specialized in zooarchaeology but he influenced a wider range of excavators and ancient historians with his broad interpretive reach He spent much of his career analyzing faunal materials from different countries in the Middle East including Iran Yemen and Israel and his publications covered themes particular to animal bone studies such as domestication ancient market economics as well as broader themes such as determining ethnicity in archaeology The essays in this volume reflect the breadth of his interests Most chapters share an Old World geographic setting focusing either on Europe or the Middle East The topics are diverse with the majority discussing animal bones as was Hesse s specialization but some take a nonfaunal perspective related to the problems with which Hesse grappled The volume is also broad in temporal scope ranging from Neolithic Iran to early Medieval England and it addresses theoretical matters as well as methodological innovations including taphonomy and the history of computers in zooarchaeology Several of the essays are direct revisits to inspirations from or extensions of Hesse s own research All the contributions reflect his intense interest in social questions about antiquity the theme of social archaeology informed much of Brian Hesse s thinking and it is why his work made such an impact on those working outside his own disciplinary research Divine Images and Human Imaginations in Ancient Greece and Rome ,2015-08-27 The polytheistic religious systems of ancient Greece and Rome reveal an imaginative attitude towards the construction of the divine One of the most important instruments in this process was certainly the visualisation Images of the gods transformed the divine world into a visually experienceable entity comprehensible even without a theoretical or theological superstructure For the illiterates images were together with oral traditions and rituals the only possibility to approach the idea of the divine for the intellectuals images of the gods could be allegorically transcended symbols to reflect upon Based on the art historical and textual evidence this volume offers a fresh view on the historical literary and artistic significance of divine images as powerful visual media of religious and intellectual communication Nitovikla Reconsidered Gunnel Hult,1992 The Journal of Hellenic Studies ,1985 Vols 1 8 1880 87 plates published separately and numbered I LXXXIII
