Hajj Travelogues Richard van Leeuwen, 2024-06-03 In Hajj Travelogues Texts and Contexts from the 12th Century until 1950 Richard van Leeuwen maps the corpus of hajj accounts from the Muslim world and Europe The work outlines the main issues in a field of study which has largely been neglected A large number of hajj travelogues are described as a textual type integrating religious discourse into the form of the journey Special attention is given to their intertextual embedding in the broader discursive tradition of the hajj Since the corpus is seen as dynamic and responsive to historical developments the texts are situated in their historical context and the subsequent phases of globalisation It is shown how in travelogues forms of religious subjectivity are constructed and expressed

Tourism, Religion and Pilgrimage in Jerusalem Kobi Cohen-Hattab, Noam Shoval, 2014-08-07 Jerusalem is a city with a singular nature Home to three religions it contains spiritual meaning for people the world over it is at once a tourist destination and a location with a complex political reality Tourism therefore is an integral part of Jerusalem's development and its political conflicts. The book traces tourism and pilgrimage to Jerusalem from the late Ottoman era through the British Mandate during the period of the divided city and to the reunification of the city under Israeli rule. Throughout the city's evolution is shown to be intertwined with its tourist industry as tourist sites, accommodations, infrastructure, and services transform the city's structures and open spaces. At the same time, tourism is wielded by various parties in an effort to gain political recognition to bolster territorial control or to garner support. The city's future and the role tourism can play in it are examined. While the construction of a security fence will have many implications on Jerusalem's tourist industry, steps are proposed to minimize the effects of the security fence and optimize tourism. Written by leading academics, this title will be valuable reading for students, academics, and researchers in the fields of tourism, religious studies, geography, history, cultural studies, and anthropology.

Approaching Pilgrimage Mario Katić, John Eade, 2023-10-13. This volume seeks to explore pilgrimage studies as a distinctive sub-field of research and to define its key methodological approaches and problems. Pilgrimage studies has long been influenced by such academic disciplines as anthropology, and this volume considers the new insights that pilgrimage studies can offer to these disciplinary fields. Bringing together experienced pioneers and a younger generation of pilgrimage scholars, the chapters address the directions contemporary pilgrimage research is taking and how it is developing into the future. Covering topics like digital pilgrimage, multi-site pilgrimages, and long-term ethnography with examples from Europe, the Middle East, and Japan, this is an important resource for all researchers engaging with pilgrimage.

The British Journal of Photography William Crookes, T.A. Malone, George Shadbolt, J. Traill Taylor, William Blanchard Bolton, Thomas Bedding, 1900. Pre-State Photographic Archives and the Zionist Movement Rotem Rozental, 2023-03-24. By entering and critically re-activating the Zionist photographic archive established by the Division of Journalism and Propaganda of the Jewish National Fund, this research examines its rippling impact on civil landscapes prior to 1948 in Palestine and its lasting impact on the region to date. This study argues that the Zionist movement makes particular use of the machinery of the photographic archive, aiming to constitute the boundaries of Palestine as a Jewish state, claiming ownership over the land and announcing internationally the success of its enterprise, thus substantiating the image it sought to embed as the reality of the land. This archive was not stand-alone as it was functioning in relation to a vast, complicated network of organizational systems and technologies in the Middle East and across the world. Crucially, this system functioned as a national archive in future tense for a nation-state that was not yet in existence, seeking to substantiate its regional authority and shape its cultural repository, outlining parameters for inclusion and exclusion from its civic space. The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history, photography history, visual culture, Jewish studies, Israel studies, and Middle East studies.
