Subcommittee on Space and Aeronautics, 2008 Managing New Security Threats in the Caribbean Georgina Chami, Jerome Teelucksingh, Marlon Anatol, 2022-08-31 This book examines non-traditional forms of security and expands the notion of security to include non-state actors and non-human actors With a wide-ranging look into some of the new security threats facing state and non-state actors today this book is designed to specifically offer new angles on tackling these threats in the Caribbean region It explores issues relating to viruses war and conflict migration geopolitics climate change and terrorism through multi and interdisciplinary perspectives on global insecurities Each chapter clearly elucidates the connectedness of these non-traditional threats drawing on a remarkable number of the most recent reports and scholarly works Most importantly there is a lack of Caribbean studies in the security themes that are studied This book is a much needed and timely addition to intellectual thought on Caribbean security in an increasingly fragmented world It will be of great interest to students of international security studies human security global politics and international relations

How to Become an International Disaster Volunteer Michael Noone, 2017-02-27 How to Become an International Disaster Volunteer discusses the immense value an experienced water systems engineer trauma surgeon or communications specialist could bring to a disaster stricken community while also explaining how their professional educations do not prepare them for the logistical psychological and physical demands of traveling to and functioning in an international catastrophe with little water or electricity limited sleep and food a chaotic working environment and with team members from diverse backgrounds and with different personalities This book provides a step by step guide for the entire process including self evaluating tactics fitness measurements for volunteering how to research disaster relief organizations how to gain appropriate training and applicable experiences the best practices during deployments and the personal recovery process upon returning home Each chapter focuses on one aspect of the progression but also includes case studies of disasters profiles of relief organizations and checklists for each stage Presents tactics from an emergency manager who has extensive international disaster volunteer experience Includes proven strategies that will help readers stand out to organizations Provides practical advice on how to prepare for chaotic disaster conditions

Making Washington Work John D. Donahue, 2010-12-01 Everybody knows federal agencies are brain dead leviathans Everybody knows that the watchword of federal management is that s the way we ve always done it Everybody knows that any creativity within American government shows up only in the cities and states Everybody s wrong In 1995 the Ford Foundation s annual Innovation in American Government award competition was opened up to federal candidates and a third of the winners since then have been federal institutions This book profiles the 14 federal award winners from 1995 to 1998 and challenges the conventional wisdom about the federal bureaucracy s capacity to adapt Examples include the Consumer Product Safety Commission which figured out how to identify and act upon business and government s shared stake in keeping dangerous products out of consumers hands and the Wage and Hour inspectors in the Labor Department who deployed market leverage to put pressure on the garment industry scofflaws whose sweatshops had evaded conventional enforcement The stories show how pressure promises and professional pride can galvanize federal managers and front line workers to overcome what are admittedly imposing impediments to change and persevere with new ways to deliver on their missions And they illustrate the unfashionable truth that innovation is within Washington s repertoire after all Copublished with the Council for Excellence in Government
