Mexico trilogy The Magic Journey tells the tale of how relentless progress transformed a rural backwater into a boomtown Boom times came to the forgotten little southwestern town of Chamisaville just as the rest of America was in the Great Depression They came when a rattletrap bus loaded with stolen dynamite blew sky high leaving behind a giant gushing hot spring Within minutes the town s wheeler dealers had organized and within a year Chamisaville was flooded with tourists and pilgrims and the wheeler dealers were rich At first it was a magic time for Chamisaville almost as if every day were a holiday But the euphoria gradually dissipated and the land hungry developers speculators and interlopers moved in Finally the day came when Chamisaville s people found themselves all but displaced their children no longer heirs to their land or their tradition With mounting intensity The Magic Journey reaches a climax that is tragically foreordained A sensitive vital and honest chronicle of life in America s Southwest it is also an incisive commentary on what America has become on its road to progress The Magic Journey is part of John Nichols s New Mexico trilogy which includes The Milagro Beanfield War and The Nirvana Blues Drum, 2002-05 Indigenous Religion(s) in Sápmi Siv Ellen Kraft, 2021-11-29 Indigenous religion s are afterlives of a particular sort shaped by globalising discourses on what counts as an indigenous religion on the one hand and the continued presence of local traditions on the other Focusing on the Norwegian side of Sápmi since the 1970s this book explores the reclaiming of ancestral pasts and notions of a specifically Sápmi religion It connects religion identity and nation building and takes seriously the indigenous turn as well as geographical and generational distinctions Focal themes include protective activism and case studies from the art and culture domain both of which are considered vital to the making of indigenous afterlives in indigenous formats This volume will be of great interest to scholars of Global Indigenous studies Sápmi cultural studies and politics Ethnicity and emergence of new identities Anthropology Studies in religion and folklore studies Shamanism Mariko Namba Walter, Eva Jane Neumann Fridman, 2004-12-15 A guide to worldwide shamanism and shamanistic practices emphasizing historical and current cultural adaptations This two volume reference is the first international survey of shamanistic beliefs from prehistory to the present day In nearly 200 detailed readable entries leading ethnographers psychologists archaeologists historians and scholars of religion and folk literature explain the general principles of shamanism as well as the details of widely varied practices What is it like to be a shaman Entries describe region by region the traits such as sicknesses and dreams that mark a person as a shaman as well as the training undertaken by initiates They detail the costumes music rituals artifacts and drugs that shamans use to achieve altered states of consciousness communicate with spirits travel in the spirit world and retrieve souls Unlike most Western books on shamanism which focus narrowly on the individual s experience of healing and trance Shamanism also examines the function of shamanism in society from social political and historical perspectives and identifies the ancient continuous thread that connects shamanistic beliefs and rituals across cultures and millennia Riding Spirit Horse: A Journey Into Shamanism Michael Drake, 2022-01-04 In this visionary memoir author Michael Drake recounts his spiritual journey into shamanism Drake's engaging narrative moves from his first ecstatic experience as a youth at a church revival to his mystical shamanic awakening transformational pilgrimages to sacred places working with indigenous wisdom keepers to the experiences that prompted his writing particularly his trance experiences riding the drum or Spirit Horse Studying with Native elders and shamans Drake discovered his shamanic gifts as a drummer storyteller and ceremonialist Riding Spirit Horse takes readers on a transcendent pilgrimage of the soul through birth death rebirth ritual and ceremony to the frontiers of expanded consciousness

No Escape Ron Gosbee, 2024-08-12 IN THE 1950S AT FIVE YEARS OLD Ron Gosbee the son of the post manager for the Hudson's Bay Company in remote Fort Albany Ontario was sent to the local St Anne's Indian Residential School with his two sisters The only white children at the school at the time they would become unwilling witnesses to the systemic cultural genocide against Canada's Indigenous Peoples While there they too lived in fear of cruel nuns and priests choked down inedible food and were forced to maintain a rigorous daily schedule far from the warmth of their loving homes Over sixty years later Ron adds his unique perspective to the memories of fellow inmates shining one more light on the trauma and neglect of generations of Indigenous survivors of residential schools in Canada

Going with the Grain Susan Seligson, 2013-12-17 My lifelong love affair with bread has less to do with crust crumb and the vagaries of sourdough cultures and more to do with bread as a reflection of people's varied beliefs daily lives and blood memories Bread tells the most essential human stories So begins Susan Seligson's personal and often humorous journey to discover the secrets of the baker's trade and the place bread has in the lives of those who consume it Part travelogue part cultural history with a handful of recipes thrown in for good measure it is an exploration of the customs traditions and rituals around the creating and eating of this most basic and enduring form of sustenance Bread is the stuff of life Governments have been overthrown and religious rituals created because of it Fry bread matzo kasha nan baguette all are as resonant of their specific culture as any artifact In Going with the Grain Seligson wanders the streets of the Casbah in Fes Morocco to unlock the secrets of the thousand year old communal bakeries there In Saratoga Springs New York she finds a bread maker so committed to making the ultimate loaf he built a unique sixty ton hearth and uses only certified biodynamically grown wheat Seligson knelt in the Jordanian desert beside a woman turning flat breads over glowing embers and plumbed the mysteries of Wonder Bread in an aseptic American factory As satisfying as a slice of good bread with butter Going with the Grain is for the armchair traveler and armchair baker alike

The Films of Delmer Daves Douglas Horlock, 2022-03-25 Delmer Daves 1904 1977 was an American screenwriter director and producer known for his dramas and Western adventures most notably Broken Arrow and 3:10 to Yuma Despite the popularity of his films there has been little serious examination of Daves's work Filmmaker Bertrand Tavernier has called Daves the most forgotten of American directors and to date no scholarly monograph has focused on his work In The Films of Delmer Daves Visions of Progress in Mid Twentieth Century America author Douglas Horlock contends that the director's work warrants sustained scholarly attention Examining all of Daves's films as well as his screenplays scripts that were not filmed and personal papers Horlock argues that Daves was a serious distinctive and enlightened filmmaker whose work confronts the general conservatism of Hollywood in the mid twentieth century Horlock considers Daves s films through the lenses of political and social values race and civil rights and gender and sexuality Ultimately Horlock suggests that Daves s work through its examination of bigotry and irrational fear and depiction of institutional and personal morality and freedom presents a consistent innovative and progressive vision of America
