Revelation Reason The Christian Doctri:

Revelation and Reason Emil Brunner, 1946 To many people both inside the Church and outside it what goes on in the Church is either routine or irrelevant Consequently what the Church has to say is not very meaningful Why should people listen to what the Church has to preach and think about it No one is better qualified to answer this question than Professor Emil Brunner Dr Brunner is a teacher of theology in the University at Zurich Switzerland and one of the clearest and most constructive religious thinkers of our day Any book of his is an event because he succeeds so well in combining sound learning with persuasive and readable analysis and because he is thoroughly acquainted with both American and Continental ways of thinking In this book Dr Brunner sets the claim of the widespread intellectual relativism of contemporary culture He seeks to show that both Catholic and secular thought misunderstand the relations between reason and revelation because revelation is always subordinated to reason Brunner reverses the position He goes back to the Bible and the Reformers and maintains that when reason is subordinated to revelation the preaching of the Gospel is at once true to itself and intelligible Here is a forceful and thorough volume which helps both believers and unbelievers to understand themselves Publisher

Law and Gospel in Emil Brunner's Earlier Dialectical Theology David Andrew Gilland, 2013-10-24 The Swiss Reformed Theologian Emil Brunner was one of the key figures in the early 20th century theological movement of Dialectical Theology In this monograph David Gilland offers an account of Bruner's earlier theology in relation to one of the central themes of the Protestant Reformation Law and Gospel He examines Brunner's early relationship with fellow Swiss Reformed theologian Karl Barth and provides a detailed reading of a variety of Brunner's essays from the early to mid 1920s centering on Brunner's efforts to use the law gospel relationship to establish a basis for Christian theology After analyzing the influence this has on Brunner's theological method Gilland examines Brunner's earliest text on Christology The Mediator 1927 In light of the preceding analysis the fourth chapter provides a careful reading of Brunner's controversial polemic against Karl Barth Nature and Grace 1934 The monograph concludes with reflections on Brunner's earlier theological work and his turbulent relationship with Karl Barth

The Noetic Effects of Sin Stephen K. Moroney, 2000-01-01 Stephen Moroney's fascinating study examines the frequently neglected topic of the noetic effects of sin a phenomenon in which sin distorts human thinking Drawing on the detailed models formulated by John Calvin Abraham Kuyper and Emil Brunner Moroney sets forth a more contemporary model of the subject He extends beyond all previous views by relating the noetic effects of sin to the complex and unpredictable interaction between the object of knowledge and the knowing subject Moroney also further examines some of the implications of the noetic effects of sin for the rationalist theology of Wolfhart Pannenberg and the Reformed epistemology of Alvin Plantinga and Nicholas Wolterstorff Lastly Moroney undertakes an interdisciplinary study of what social psychology and Christian theology contribute to our understanding of the noetic effects of sin An invaluable addition to current conversations on theology and epistemology The Noetic Effects of Sin will be of interest to scholars of theology religion and social psychology

Jesus of History The Word of the Cross The Power and the Wisdom The Spirit of the Lord The People of God The Means of Grace The Written Word The Double Cure and The Hope of Glory Canon and Criterion in Christian Theology William James Abraham, 2002 Canon and Criterion in Christian Theology provides an original and important narrative on the significance of canon in the Christian tradition Standard accounts of canon reduce canon to scripture and treat scripture as a criterion of truth Scripture is then related in positive or negative ways to tradition reason and experience Such projects involve a misreading of the meaning and content of canon they locate the canonical heritage of the church within epistemology and Abraham charts the fatal consequences of this move from the Fathers to modern feminist theology In the process he shows that the central epistemological concerns of the Enlightenment have Christian origins and echoes He also shows that the crucial developments of theology from the Reformation onwards involve extraordinary efforts to fix the foundations of faith This trajectory is now exhausted theologically and spiritually Hence the door is opened for a recovery of the full canonical heritage of the early church and for fresh work on the epistemology of theology The Princeton Theological Review ,1903 *Christian Theology explained and defended ...
