Revelation And The Fall Of Judea:

Revelation Maurice A Williams,2008-04 The Book of Revelation has been interpreted many different ways throughout history Revelation Fall of Judea Rise of the Church focuses on three concepts from Scripture John the Baptist announced who the Messiah is those who try to destroy the Messiah s mission will themselves be destroyed Judea ceased to exist as a nation from A D 135 until recent times and Satan will be released after one thousand years to deceive the nations Unlike many popular interpretations of Revelation that predict a future rapture and tribulation the author proposes that many of the predictions happened during the early Church age as unbelievers tried to destroy Christ s Church Satan as predicted was released to deceive the nations one thousand years after the Church was firmly established As a result the world today is filled with thousands of conflicting Christian sects and with non Christian occult even anti Christian movements that have propelled humans to as dangerous a rebellion against God as the one before the flood Egypt My People... and Israel

My Inheritance Daniel C. Timmer,2025-07-01 Few parts of the OT are more challenging to read than the prophets Not only are so called messianic passages relatively rare but apart from Jonah these books seem to present a message that is particularly negative if not xenophobic when it comes to the nations Daniel Timmer contends that this impression is not only mistaken but diametrically opposed to the books message Following the direction established by God s foundational promise to Abram in Genesis 12 Timmer examines the presentation of the nations in the Latter Prophets in their original contexts through the NT and into the church s contemporary mission He explains how the prophets negative presentations of the nations fit into God s purpose to redeem people from every tribe and nation and explores the radical significance of the prophets frequent predictions that non Israelites will become integral members of God s chosen people The volume also deals with practical issues including the place of ethnicity and nationality in Christian identity and the church s fraught relationships with secular and political power structures The Decline and Fall of the Kingdom of Judah Thomas Kelly

Cheyne,1908 Revelation: Mature Look Maurice Williams,2018-09-14 This is a rewrite of a book I wrote in 1988 in which I presented my conviction that Revelation was first of all a warning to the Judean people that if they did not accept the prophesized Jewish Messiah when he arrived in A D 27 God would reject them A secondary message is that at the end times if the gentile world also does not accept the Messiah God will then bring this present world to an end and commence his eternal heavenly kingdom where God will judge every person he created according to their works My first book picked up on an argument proposed by J Massyngberde Ford in her introduction to revelation in the Anchor Bible Series that most of Revelation came from the preaching of John the Baptist who preached directly to the Judeans The disciples of the Baptist John the Evangelist was one of them continued preaching the Baptist s warnings right up into the ministry of Jesus Christ Finally near the end of his life the Evangelist put what he preached into writing It included what he learned from John the Baptist and became the concluding book of the New Testament After the crucifixion the unbelieving Judeans and their descendants tried to defeat the Church and could have wiped out the Church if the revolt under Bar Kochba was successful in liberating Judea from Roman control But Bar Kochba was totally defeated by Severus in A D 135 causing an immense slaughter of Jews The surviving Judeans were deported elsewhere in the Roman Empire and foreign people were introduced into Palestine Not many people are aware that for hundreds of years thereafter only a very small population of Jewish people living in the ancestral homeland of the Jews No other interpretation that I have reads has pinpointed the historical event that coincided with the fall of Judea like I did I identify the historical fulfillment of Rev 15 17 when the seventh angel pours out his vial saying It is done as the final defeat of Judea by General Severus in A D 135 Most interpretations never discuss the fall of Judea in A D 135 Instead they try to predict a future event future even to us that will cause the final conflict when all gentile nations will fall I also discuss how I think the scenes in Revelation apply to the end of times I think God has been warning the modern world all along through apparitions by the mother of Christ I try to show the relevance of the Devil Lucifer as the cause of the wickedness of humans Lucifer is identified in Scripture as the instigator of evil I think God cannot correct the evils of man until he finally punishes Lucifer in eternal damnation In my new book I also point out that the rebellion of the angel Lucifer the Devil is the cause of the rejection of the Messiah by the human race I trace the influence of Lucifer misguiding the human race from the very beginning in the Garden of Eden I point out how his influence misguided the human race all through history with false ideologies and human conquest by human utopias to try to conduct ourselves outside of Gods embrace I was unsure how readers would view my book when I first launched publication of my book but now I have seen many favorable reviews by readers of many different religious convictions that do not take exception to what I have written This encouraged me to continue I hope you read my book and find it interesting At the very least it should at least give you food for thought
