Revelation And Theology The Gospel As Narrated Promise:

Revelation and Theology Ronald F. Thiemann, 2005-11-01 Arguing that the Christian doctrine of revelation is necessary for understanding the prevenience of God's grace Ronald Thiemann defends the doctrine of revelation by focusing on the identity and reality of the promising God depicted in the biblical narrative According to Thiemann The crisis of revelation has occurred within a cultural context decisively marked by radical pluralism The modern defender of God's reality must seek to show how God is both in relation and prior to those human concepts by which we seek to grasp his reality He or she must do so by an argument which resists the reduction of theology to anthropology In analysis of such diverse thinkers as John Locke Friedrich Schleiermacher and Thomas Torrance Thiemann criticizes the epistemological foundationalism adopted by theologians to provide theoretical justification for the divine origins of Christian beliefs He argues that the doctrine of revelation must be seen as an account supporting the intelligibility and truth of a set of Christian convictions His notion of the narrated promise reveals God's prevenience as promiser and humanity as recipient of the promise In an examination of the Gospel of Matthew Thiemann shows how the biblical narrative identifies God as the God of promise and invites the reader to participate in God's prevenient reality

Faith Seeking Understanding Daniel L. Migliore, 2004-06-14 Daniel Migliore's Faith Seeking Understanding has been a standard introduction to Christian theology for more than a decade The book's presentation of traditional doctrine in freshly contemporary ways its concern to hear and critically engage new voices in theology and its creative and accessible style have kept it one of the most stimulating balanced and readable guides to theology available This second edition of Faith Seeking Understanding features improvements from cover to cover Besides updating and expanding the entire text of the book Migliore has added two completely new chapters The first Confessing Jesus Christ in Context explores the unique contributions to Christian theology made by recent theologians working in the African American Asian American Latin American Hispanic feminist womanist and mujerista traditions The second new chapter The Finality of Jesus Christ and Religious Pluralism addresses the growing interest in the relationship of Christianity to other religions and their adherents Migliore's three delightful theological dialogues are followed by a new appendix an extensive glossary of theological terms making the book even more useful to students seeking to understand the history themes and challenges of Christian belief

Biblical Narrative in the Philosophy of Paul Ricoeur Kevin J. Vanhoozer, 1990-04-27 A critical account of Ricoeur's theory of narrative interpretation and its contribution to theology

Theology's Epistemological Dilemma Kevin Diller, 2014-10-24 Karl Barth and Alvin Plantinga are not thought of as theological allies Barth is famous for his opposition to philosophy's role in theology while Plantinga is famous for his emphasis on warranted belief Kevin Diller argues that they actually offer a unified response to the central epistemological dilemma in theology

Why Narrative? Stanley Hauerwas, L. Gregory Jones, 1997-10-28 Narrative Theology is still with us to the delight of some and to the chagrin of others Why Narrative is in reprint because it represents what is still a very important question This diverse collection of essays on narrative theology has proven very useful in university and seminary theology classes It is also of great use as a primer for the educated layperson or church study group Jones and Hauerwas have done an excellent job of selecting representative essays that deal with appeals to narrative in areas such as personal identity and human action biblical hermeneutics epistemology and theological and ethical method

Rhetorical Interaction in 1 Corinthians 8 and 10 Yeo,2021-09-06 Rhetorical Interaction in 1 Corinthians 8 and 10 is a formal analysis of Paul's rhetorical interaction with the Corinthians over the issues of participation in the cultic meal 1 Cor 10 1 22 and the eating of idol food 1 Cor 8 1 13 10 23 11 1 The thesis is that Paul's theology and rhetoric are predicated on knowledge and love Major portions of the book employ rhetorical sociological archaeological and historical critical approaches to examine the triangular interaction between Paul the Corinthians and the biblical texts paying particular attention to the complex configuration of the Corinthian congregation including the influence of proto Gnosticism as well as the ways Paul responded to the shifting situation and different issues The two chapters on rhetorical hermeneutical theory and criticism are especially creative as the author suggests a Chinese hermeneutic for cross cultural dialogues the issue of ancestor worship being a specific example

Realism and Christian Faith Andrew Moore,2003-03-27 Table of contents

The Nature of Doctrine in T.F. Torrance's Theology Elmer M. Colyer,2001-11-09 Thomas F Torrance is considered by many to be the most important English speaking theologian of the last fifty years Torrance has written extensively over six hundred items on nearly every theme in theology especially theological method and the nature of theology Yet little secondary literature about his theology has been published to date The significance of this book by Elmer M Colyer is that it discusses a theme the nature of doctrine that takes readers into the heart of Torrance's critical realist epistemology theological method and understanding of the nature and purpose of theology Colyer also contributes significantly to the ongoing conversation concerning the nature of doctrine since Torrance's understanding of doctrine moves considerably beyond the work of George Lindbeck The Nature of Doctrine and Alister McGrath The Genesis of Doctrine in this area

Christian Dogmatics van der Kooi & van den Brink,2017 A fresh inviting text on the content of Christian faith in our contemporary context This one volume systematic theology presents an accessible orthodox overview of the Christian faith for students teachers pastors and serious lay readers Cornelis van der Kooi and Gijsbert van den Brink not only cover all the traditional themes creation sin Jesus Christ Scripture and so on but also relate those classical themes to contemporary developments like Pentecostalism postfoundationalism and evolutionary theory Consisting of sixteen chapters the book is ideal for classroom use Each chapter begins with engaging questions and a statement of learning goals and concludes with a list of recommended further reading Written in a student friendly tone and style and expertly translated and edited van der Kooi and van den Brink's Christian Dogmatics splendidly displays the real practical relevance of theology to the complexities of our world today

Revelation and the Word of God Paul

Avis,2024-05-02 A unique work of Fundamental Theology Revelation and the Word of God explores key issues of divine revelation as open questions They include Why is revelation so elusive Existential and philosophical problems of revelation in the context of apologetics The self revelation of God in mystery What does it mean to say as the Bible does that God speaks and acts How does revelation relate to the Bible history religious experience and the church The relational and personalist dimensions of revelation What the biblical Wisdom tradition contributes to our understanding of revelation The threefold form of the Word of God Jesus Christ the incarnate Word Logos and Wisdom Sophia of God the Scriptures that witness to him and the church s proclamation kerygma in preaching sacraments and other ways The role of hermeneutics cultural constraints and imagination in the reception of revelation Critique including Feminist Theology of claimed revelation Is there revelation today How do developments in doctrine and practice relate to divine revelation The liturgy as a vehicle of the Word of God The Word in pastoral practice Jesus Christ as the crown and criterion of divine revelation according to the Fourth Gospel

The Christology of John Macquarrie Vernon L. Purdy,2009 The Christology of John Macquarrie comprehensively scrutinizes the life and writings of Scottish born systematic theologian and philosopher John Macquarrie 1919 2007 in an attempt to comprehend and evaluate his Christology The author examines the people e g Heidegger Schleiermacher the philosophical and theological positions and the writings that formed Macquarrie s thinking One major influence was his commitment to modern critical theology including the premise that in the modern world the only acceptable Christological tenets are those that can stand up to the scrutiny of modern critical reasoning The work concludes that this commitment profoundly shaped Macquarrie s theology especially his Christology The book also discusses Macquarrie s evaluation and criticisms of the Christology of other theologians e g Kierkegaard Moltmann Pannenberg and others concluding that Macquarrie s understanding of the Christian faith and the person of Jesus Christ is consonant with modern liberal Anglo Catholicism This idea furthers the argument that Macquarrie s reluctance to accept traditional incarnational categories suggests that his Christology is a modern form of Adoptionism

Christian Faith as Religion Paul E. Capetz,2011-05-26 Christian Faith as Religion investigates the theologies of John Calvin and Friedrich Schleiermacher with respect to the questions What is Religion and What is Christian Religion The author argues that the classical and liberal exemplars of Protestant theology are best compared when these two questions are thoroughly examined and calls into question the contention of neo orthodox theologians Karl Barth and Emil Brunner that Schleiermacher s theological use of the category religion signifies a departure from the tradition of the Reformation He offers a revised comparative framework that discloses the material and formal similarities between Calvin and Schleiermacher with respect to their employment of the categories religion and revelation and allows the historical theologian to delineate the trajectory that accounts for both continuity and discontinuity in the transition from classical to modern Protestant theology This allows the systematic hermeneutical question of a contemporary Protestant theology informed by the historical and philosophical study of religion to be taken up anew Continuing the Reformation B. A. Gerrish, 1993 Modern Christian religious thought B A Gerrish argues has constantly revised the inherited faith In these twelve essays written or published in the 1980s one of the most distinguished historical theologians of our time examines the changes that occurred as the Catholic tradition gave way to the Reformation and an interest in the phenomenon of believing replaced adherence to unchanging dogma Gerrish devotes three essays to each of four topics Martin Luther and the Reformation religious belief and the Age of Reason Friedrich Schleiermacher and the renewal of Protestant theology and Schleiermacher s disciple Ernst Troeltsch for whom the theological task was to give a rigorous account of the faith prevailing in a particular religious community at a particular time Gerrish shows how faith itself has become a primary object of inquiry not only in the newly emerging philosophy of religion but also in a new style of church theology which no longer assumes that faith rests on immutable dogmas For Gerrish the new theology of Protestant liberalism takes for its primary object of inquiry the changing forms of the religious life This important book will interest scholars of systematic Christian theology modern intellectual and cultural history and the history and philosophy of religion Narrative and Morality Paul Nelson, 2010-11-01 Introduction to Christian Theology Roger A. Badham, 1998-01-01 This book covers a broad spectrum of current perspectives in theology including evangelical liberal liberationist feminist and postmodern approaches A textbook for introductory theology classes in seminaries and colleges this wide ranging collection of essays also represents the best available resource for any reader seeking to explore and understand the diversity of current trends in theology and ethics Theology and the Public Daniel D. Shin, 2018-11-28 Hans W Frei s groundbreaking achievement in theological hermeneutics Christology and theological method has made possible new alternatives in contemporary theology and has become a key impetus to the emergence of postliberal theology also known as the Yale School Much discussion has taken place since the publication of The Eclipse of Biblical Narrative in 1974 and his work continues to generate intense debate among his proponents critics and sympathetic observers One of the key questions in this conversation is whether Frei s work signals a sectarian flight from the public world at large to a private enclave in the intratextual world of biblical narrative Unfortunately his critics have misinterpreted his thought and failed to recognize that the notion of the public is a pivotal feature of his theology Therefore the aim of this book is to debunk common misunderstandings of his project by showing that Frei maintains a sustained and robust commitment to the public world This book demonstrates the public character of Frei s thought by examining the major foci of his work theological hermeneutics Christology ecclesiology and theological method It begins with an introductory chapter on postliberal theology with special attention to the criticism of sectarianism followed by a study of Frei s constructive proposals in relation to the church society and academy The Public Forum and Christian Ethics Robert Gascoigne, 2001 This book addresses the question of the communication of Christian ethics in the public forum of liberal pluralist societies Drawing on debates in philosophy theology and sociological theory it relates the problem of communication to fundamental questions about the nature of liberal societies and the identity of Christian faith and the Christian community With particular emphasis on Kantian and neo Kantian ethics it explores the link between autonomy and community in liberal societies The theology of communio expressed in revealed Christian traditions can reconcile autonomy and community Any Christian attempt to communicate this vision must also reflect on Christianity's own identity especially the ways in which its own self consciousness grows in critical interaction with secularity In this light Christian ethical communication is both a witness to a distinctive identity founded in the revelation of the triune God and a vision of universal human solidarity which can reconcile autonomy and community

Holy Scripture John Webster, 2003-10-23 May we speak in the present age of holy scripture And what validation of that claim can be offered robust enough to hold good for both religious practice and intellectual enquiry John Webster argues that while any understanding of scripture must subject it to proper textual and historical interrogation it is necessary at the same time to acknowledge the special character of scriptural writing His 2003 book is an exercise in Christian dogmatics a loud reaffirmation of the triune God at the heart of a scripture based Christianity But it is written with intellectual rigour by a theologian who understands the currents of modern secular thought and is able to work from them towards a constructive position on biblical authority It will resonate with anyone who has wondered or worried about the grounds on which we may validly regard the Bible as God's direct communication with humanity

Beyond Liberalism and Fundamentalism Nancey Murphy, 1996-10-01 American Protestant Christianity is often described as a two party system divided into liberals and conservatives This book clarifies differences between the intellectual positions of these two groups by advancing the thesis that the philosophy of the modern period is largely responsible for the polarity of Protestant Christian thought A second thesis is that the modern philosophical positions driving the division between liberals and conservatives have themselves been called into question It therefore becomes opportune to ask how theology ought to be done in a postmodern era and to envision a rapprochement between theologians of the left and right A concluding chapter speculates specifically on the era now dawning and the likelihood that the compulsion to separate the spectrum into two distinct camps will be precluded by the coexistence of a wide range of theological positions from left to right Nancey C Murphy is Associate Professor of Christian Philosophy at Fuller Theological Seminary Pasadena and the author of Reasoning and Rhetoric in Religion also published by Trinity Press Her book Theology in the Age of Scientific Reasoning earned the American Academy of Religion's Award for Excellence
