Meister,2009-06-01 It can be hard to share faith with others especially when people can t agree on whether there is even any actual truth With that in mind Chad Meister has developed a simple logical way for you to help others move past relativism to a place where Christian belief makes sense the Apologetics Pyramid In Building Belief Meister leads you up each step of the pyramid beginning where many find themselves today doubting if anything is really true From there he powerfully builds a case for absolute truth the existence of God universal morals and values the reliability and divine inspiration of the Bible the resurrection of Christ and ultimately the good news that Jesus is the Son of God who offers salvation to the world

Introducing Ethics Justin P. McBrayer,Peter J. Markie,2014 Introducing Ethics A Critical Thinking Approach with Readings combines guiding commentary and questions with a rich selection of concise carefully edited and accessible readings on ethical theory and contemporary moral issues This unique introduction shows students how to do philosophy by first analyzing texts identifying ethical positions and the arguments that support them and then evaluating the truth of those positions and the soundness of the arguments In doing so it provides students with a uniquely engaging introduction to ethics that also hones their critical thinking skills FEATURES A unique Unit 1 gives students the conceptual tools to do philosophy with coverage of logic arguments moral reasoning and reading and writing philosophy Extensive coverage of the three main areas of ethics metaethics normative ethics and applied ethics addresses issues often ignored by other texts including ethics vs science moral responsibility moral vs legal issues torture terrorism and more Unit and chapter introductions outline major themes and issues and explain why they matter Reading questions precede the essays and focus students studying on key points while discussion questions follow the readings and help students move into the evaluation phase Argument Reconstruction Exercises after each reading provide practice in identifying the premises and conclusions in the essays An Instructor s Manual with Test Bank on CD is available to adopters A Companion Website at www.oup.com/us/mcbrayer provides all the material contained on the CD along with student resources Sport, Play, and Ethical Reflection Randolph Feezell,Randolph M. Feezell,2006-09 In paperback for the first time Randolph Feezell s Sport Play and Ethical Reflection immediately tackles two big questions about sport What is it and Why does it attract so many people Feezell argues that sports participation is best described as a form of human play and the attraction for participants and viewers alike derives from both its aesthetic richness and narrative structure He then claims that the way in which sports encourage serious competition in trivial pursuits is fundamentally absurd and therefore participation requires a state of irony in the participants where seriousness and playfulness are combined Feezell builds on these conclusions addressing important ethical issues arguing that sportsmanship should be seen as a kind of Aristotelian mean between the extremes of over and under investment in sport Chapters on cheating running up the score and character building stress sport as a rule governed tradition bound practice with standards of excellence and goods internal to the practice With clear writing and numerous illuminating examples Feezell demonstrates deep insight into both of his subjects
