Tailor Made Concrete Structures Joost C. Walraven, Dick Stoelhorst, 2008-05-01 In recent years knowledge of concrete and concrete structures has increased as has its applications New types of concrete challenged scientists and engineers and ecological constraints encouraged the implementation of life cycle design of concrete structures moving the focus more and more to maintenance and uprating of structures And since bui

ITER: The Giant Fusion Reactor Michel Claessens, 2019-10-17 This book provides for the first time an insider's view into ITER the biggest fusion reactor in the world which is currently being constructed in southern France Aimed at bringing the energy of the stars to earth ITER is funded by the major economic powers China the EU India Japan Korea Russia and the US Often presented as a nuclear but green energy source fusion could play an important role in the future electricity supply But as delays accumulate and budgets continue to grow ITER is currently a star partially obscured by clouds Will ITER save humanity by providing a clean safe and limitless source of energy or is it merely a political showcase of cutting edge technology Is ITER merely an ambitious research project and partly a PR initiative driven by some politically connected scientists In any case ITER has already helped spur on rival projects in the US Canada and the UK This book offers readers a behind the scenes look at this controversial project which France snatched from Japan and introduces them to a world of superlatives with the largest magnets in the world the biggest cryogenic plant and tremendous computing power ITER is one of the most fascinating and most international scientific and technological endeavours of our time

Architecture Competitions and the Production of Culture, Quality and Knowledge Jean-Pierre Chupin, Carmela Cucuzzella, Bechara Helal, 2015-01-26 Winner of the 2016 Bronze medal in Architecture Independent Publisher Book Awards This book comprises a series of 22 case studies by renowned experts and new scholars in the field of architecture competition research In 2015 it constitutes the most comprehensive survey of the dynamics behind the definition organization judging archiving and publishing of architectural landscape and urban design competitions in the world These richly documented contributions revolve around a few questions that can be summarized in a two fold critical interrogation How can design competitions these historical democratic devices both praised and dreaded by designers be considered laboratories for the production of environmental design quality and ultimately for the renewing of culture and knowledge Includes 340 illustrations bibliographical references and index of over 200 cited competitions Keywords Architecture International competitions Architectural judgment Design thinking Digital archiving databases Architectural publications Architectural experimentation Landscape architecture Urban studies

About Star Architecture Nadia Alaily-Mattar, Davide Ponzini, Alain Thierstein, 2020-03-16 Cities across the world have been resorting to star architects to brand their projects spark urban regeneration and market the city image internationally This book shifts the attention from star architects to star architecture arguing that the process of deciding about and implementing relevant architectural and urban projects is not the product of any single actor Star architecture can in fact be better studied and understood as assembled by multiple actors and in its relationship with urban transformation In its 18 chapters the book presents a multidisciplinary collection of expert contributions in the fields of urban planning architecture media studies urban economics geography and sociology consistently brought together for the first time to deal with this topic Through a vast array of case studies and analytical techniques touching over 20 cities in Europe the book shows the positive and more problematic impacts of star architecture with reference to the preservation of built heritage tourism and media The book will be of interest to architects sociologists urban planners and public administrators

Materiality and Architecture Sandra Loschke, 2016-03-17 Once regarded a secondary consideration in recent years materiality has emerged as a powerful concept in architectural discourse and practice Prompted in part by developments in digital fabrication and digital science the impact of materiality on design and practice is being widely reassessed and reimagined Materiality and Architecture extends architectural thinking beyond the confines of current design literatures to explore conceptions of materiality across the field of architecture Fourteen international contributors use elucidate the problems and possibilities of materiality based approaches in architecture from interdisciplinary perspectives The book includes contributions from the professions of architecture art architectural history theory and philosophy including essays from Gernot Böhme Jonathan Hill and Philip Ursprung Important immaterial aspects such as presentation agency ecology and concept are examined deepening our understanding of materiality's role in architectural processes the production of cultural identities the pursuit of political agendas and the staging of everyday environments and atmospheres In depth illustrated case studies examine works by Herzog de Meuron Zaha Hadid and Lacaton Vassal interspersed with visual essays and interviews with architects such as MVRDV providing a direct connection to practice Materiality and Architecture is an important read for researchers and students with an interest in architectural theory and related fields such as art history or visual and cultural studies
