The Vampire Killer Ron Hicks, 2009 When police found the body of Edward Baldock by the shores of the Brisbane River he had been so savagely murdered his head was nearly severed And there were strange marks on his neck There seemed no reason for this horrific crime but as they searched the scene the police found a bank keycard tucked neatly into the victim's shoe The card was soon identified as belonging to Tracey Avril Wigginton In one of the most sensational and bizarre cases in Australia's criminal history Tracey Wigginton's three female companions that night told the police that Baldock was killed to feed Tracey's blood lust because she was a vampire Was Tracey Wigginton the first vampire for over 300 years Or was there a deeper darker reason for her crime Why was it that during police interviews it was clear that one part of Tracey knew what happened but another didn't The Vampire Killer unravels the tragic and at times horrifying true story of Tracey Wigginton and her desperate cry for help
