Rumi lived the quiet life of a religious teacher in Anatolia until the age of thirty-seven when he came under the influence of a whirling dervish Shams Tabriz and was moved to a state of mystical ecstasy. One of the results of this ecstasy was a prodigious output of poems about the search for the lost Divine Beloved whom Rumi identified with Shams. To symbolize this search, Rumi also invented the famous whirling dance of the Melevi dervishes which are performed accompanied by the chanting of Rumi's poems. Professor Schimmel illuminates the symbolism and significance of Rumi's vast output and offers her own translations of some of his most famous poems.      A Critical History of Contemporary Architecture Asst Prof David Rifkind, Dr Elie G Haddad, 2014-03-28 This book provides a comprehensive critical overview of the developments in architecture from 1960 to 2010. The first section provides a presentation of major movements in architecture after 1960 and the second a geographic survey that covers a wide range of territories around the world. This book not only reflects the different perspectives of its various authors but also charts a middle course between the aesthetic histories that examine architecture solely in terms of its formal aspects and the more ideological histories that subject it to a critique that often skirts the discussion of its formal aspects.      Audition Freedom Vp Boyle, V.
