Barker,2009-05-27 The Tactile Eye expands on phenomenological analysis and film theory in its accessible and beautifully written exploration of the visceral connection between films and their viewers Jennifer M Barker argues that the experience of cinema can be understood as deeply tactile a sensuous exchange between film and viewer that goes beyond the visual and aural gets beneath the skin and reverberates in the body Barker combines analysis of embodiment and phenomenological film theory to provide an expansive description of cinematic tactility She considers feminist experimental film early cinema animation and horror as well as classic modernist and postmodern cinema films from ten national cinemas and work by Chuck Jones Buster Keaton the Quay Brothers Satyajit Ray Carolee Schneemann and Tom Tykwer among others Puzzle Films Warren Buckland,2009-01-12 Drawing upon the expertise of film scholars from around the world Puzzle Films investigates a number of films that sport complex storytelling from Memento Old Boy and Run Lola Run to the Infernal Affairs trilogy and In the Mood for Love Unites American independent cinema the European and International Art film and certain modes of avant garde filmmaking on the basis of their shared storytelling complexity Draws upon the expertise of film scholars from North America Britain China Poland Holland Italy Greece New Zealand and Australia Nostalgia After Nazism Heidi M. Schlipphacke,2010 Nostalgia After Nazism is a compelling sophisticated entry in the growing field of German and Austrian memory studies It introduces into German studies a nuanced set of tools drawn from the broad panoply of contemporary theory and sets those voices onto the broader historical landscape of post World War II confrontations between the West s recent history and its present The result is a highly readable impeccably documented volume that joins the best of literary history and close readings to a broad spectrum of theoretical models Nostalgia After Nazism offers an exemplary model for cultural scholarship after the supposed end of theory recapturing how theory history and the texts of culture are mutually illuminating Katherine Arens The University of Texas at Austin Light Motives Randall Halle,Margaret McCarthy,2003 Light Motives undertakes a long overdue critical reassessment of German popular cinema challenging the traditional view of German film history and offering new ways to think about popular cinema in general

Brereton,2012-05-30 Examining post 1990s Indie cinema alongside more mainstream films Brereton explores the emergence of smart independent sensibility and how films break the classic linear narratives that have defined Hollywood and its alternative art cinema The work explores how bonus features on contemporary smart films speak to new generational audiences Violating Time Christina Lee,2008-11-01 Violating Time explores the complexity of nonlinear and disrupted cinematic time the delayed period between the actual recording of an event and its eventual public viewing the recreation of an historical event years after it has occurred a nostalgic return to retro in the postmodern era and manipulation of the clock in time travel movies to alter the course of events and create new cultural geographies of time space and experience This collection investigates the politics of tactical remembering and forgetting the selective editing of time and narrative not only as acts of subversion but also of creative potential and empowerment It argues that representations of the past and projections of the future are not isolated commentaries of a romantic yesterday or grand visions of tomorrow Rather they evoke the preoccupations and anxieties of the present whether it is the skepticism of nostalgic kitsch The Royal Tenenbaums or the projected post millennial fears of disappearing histories and mutating pasts manufactured memories and loss of identity Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind and 2046
