Running the Lydiard Way Arthur Lydiard, Garth Gilmour, 1978

Running with Lydiard Arthur Lydiard, Garth Gilmour, 2000 Since the success of his New Zealand athletes Snell Halberg and Magee at the 1960 Rome Olympics Arthur Lydiard's name has been synonymous with the best training methods used by the world's top middle and long distance runners. Instructing runners in Finland Mexico Venezuela Denmark Japan the USA and New Zealand Lydiard has continued to refine his methods and this manual contains information on exercise physiology diet injury prevention and cure discussion of Lydiard's methods and revised training schedules. Running with the Buffaloes Chris Lear, 2011-04-01 Top five Best Books About Running Runner's World Magazine Top three Best Books About Running readers of Runner's World Magazine December 2009 A phenomenal portrait of courage and desire that will do for college cross country what John Feinstein's A Season on the Brink did for college basketball. Body Problems Ben Agger, 2012-08-06 This book addresses the relationship between the body and society in a fast food society. Agger focuses on issues of food exercise work dieting and eating disorders fashion bariatric and cosmetic surgery and health. He addresses the dilemma that we have ample access to abundant calories but lead lifestyles and have jobs that for the most part do not enable us to expend those calories. He proposes solutions both individual and structural that involve re-orienting ourselves to exercise as play. The book can be used in introductory sociology social problems work sociology of sport gender health and illness. The goal of this new unique Series is to offer readable teachable thinking frames on today's social problems and social issues by leading scholars all in short 60 page or shorter formats and available for view on <http://routledge.customgateway.com/routledge-social-issues.html> For instructors teaching a wide range of courses in the social sciences the Routledge Social Issues Collection now offers the best of both worlds originally written short texts that provide overviews to important social issues as well as teachable excerpts from larger works previously published by Routledge and other presses. RUN Fitzgerald Matt, 2010-05-24 Most serious runners don't realize their potential. They simply stop getting faster and don't understand why. The reason is simple most runners are unable to run by feel. The best elite runners have learned that the key to faster running is to hear what their bodies are telling them. Drawing on new research on endurance sports best selling author Matt Fitzgerald explores the practices of elite runners to explain why their techniques can be effective for all runners. RUN The Mind Body Method of Running by Feel will help runners reach their full potential by teaching them how to train in the most personalized and adaptable way. Fitzgerald's mind body method will revolutionize how runners think about training their personal limits and their potential. RUN explains how to interpret emotional and physical messages like confidence enjoyment fatigue suffering and aches and pains. RUN guides readers toward the optimal balance of intensity and enjoyment volume and recovery repetition and variation. As the miles add up runners will become increasingly confident that they are doing the right training on the right day from one season to the next. RUN marks the start of a better way to train. The culmination of science and personal experience the mind body method of running by feel will lead runners to faster more enjoyable training and racing

Natural Running Danny Abshire, Brian Metzler, 2010-12-01 Natural Running is the middle ground runners have been looking for By learning to run the barefoot way while wearing shoes runners will become more efficient stronger and healthier runners Backed by studies at MIT and Harvard running form and injury expert Danny Abshire presents the natural running technique form drills and an 8 week transition plan that will put runners on the path to faster more efficient and healthier running In Natural Running Abshire explains how modern running shoes distort the efficient running technique that humans evolved over thousands of years He reviews the history of running shoes and injuries making the case for barefoot running but also warning about its dangers By learning the natural running technique runners can enjoy both worlds comfortable feet knees and legs and an efficient running form that reduces impact and injuries Natural Running teaches runners to think about injuries as symptoms of poor running form Abshire specifies the overuse injuries that are most commonly associated with particular body alignment problems foot types and form flaws Runners will learn how to analyze and identify their own characteristics so they can start down the path to natural running Abshire explains the natural running technique describing the posture arm carriage cadence and land lever lift foot positioning that mimic the barefoot running style Using Abshire's 8 week transition plan and a tool kit of strength and form drills runners will move from heel striking to a midfoot or forefoot strike Natural Running is the newest way to run and also the oldest By discovering how they were meant to run runners will become more efficient stronger and healthier runners

The Four-Minute Mile John Bale, David Howe, 2020-11-25 Breaking records and challenging the limits of human ability are central to much of our understanding of athletic track and field sports with a world record title arguably as valued as an Olympic gold medal Some particular limits and records take on greater significance however as in the case of the Four Minute Mile which was roundly believed to be impossible until Roger Bannister shattered the illusion with half a second to spare in May 1954. These essays look at the background of Bannister's achievement and the meaning that was ascribed to it by the media and the public at large, drawing on an array of interdisciplinary and international influences to unpick the legend surrounding an historic moment in our social and sporting past.

80/20 Running Matt Fitzgerald, 2014-09-02. TRAIN EASIER TO RUN FASTER. This revolutionary training method has been embraced by elite runners with extraordinary results and now you can do it too. Respected running and fitness expert Matt Fitzgerald explains how the 80/20 running program, in which you do 80 percent of runs at a lower intensity and just 20 percent at a higher intensity, is the best change runners of all abilities can make to improve their performance. With a thorough examination of the science and research behind this training method, 80/20 Running is a hands-on guide for runners of all levels, with training programs for 5K, 10K, half marathon, and marathon distances. In 80/20 Running, you'll discover how to transform your workouts to avoid burnout. Runs will become more pleasant and less draining. You'll carry less fatigue from one run to the next. Your performance will improve in the few high intensity runs. Your fitness levels will reach new heights. 80/20 Running promotes a message that all runners, as well as cyclists, triathletes, and even weight loss seekers, can embrace. Get better results by making the majority of your workouts easier.

Runner's World Complete Book of Running Editors of Runner's World Magazine, 2009-12-22. Revised and updated edition of the popular book on everything you need to know about running.

Running Times, 2008-10. Running Times magazine explores training from the perspective of top athletes, coaches, and scientists; rates and profiles elite runners; and provides stories and commentary reflecting the dedicated runner's worldview.

Running in the Zone Steve King, Dan Cumming, 2006-09-01. Twenty-six runners ranging in age from 46 to 76 share their secrets, motivations, and experiences in the fields of running. All are active runners, and many presently hold world age class records. Some have held world records and have achieved world level performances at the Olympics, Commonwealth, and European games. But Running in the Zone isn't about super achievement; it is about getting the most out of the running experience, regardless of age or even ability. This book is for anyone interested in running and running-related sports, whether they are elite age class runners wanting to keep up performances or newcomers considering taking up running in their middle or even advanced years. Many of the contributors didn't start running until they were over 40, and some didn't achieve their best personal performances until they were in their 50s. You will meet men and women who have a life-long interest in running, as well as those who took it up as personal challenges. All are inspiring in one way or another and have something valuable to teach, not necessarily about running per se, but rather personal satisfaction, giving back through voluntarism, and commitment to a goal or purpose. The book was the idea of editors Steve King and Dan Cumming and has come together through Steve's contacts in the world of running and Dan's love of running and editorial ability to pull the best out of a story. Both Steve and Dan have a long-term relationship with the sport. They both perceived that a growing number of older runners are involved in the running, and that Running in the Zone would answer many of the needs of this group of active men and women helping them to get the best out of one of the most fundamental of athletic endeavors For more information visit authors blog www.runninginthezone.ca Keep on Running Eric Newsholme,Anthony Leech,Glenda Duester,1994-10-20 Written for anyone who wishes to understand more about the scientific basis of athletic training and performance Biochemistry nutrition physiology and psychology are all included Intended to help sports science students especially those who do not have a strong background in science Appealing to athletes at any stage of their career it is also helpful to coaches and physicians Features high carbohydrate recipe suggestions practical training schedules and a comprehensive bibliography The Complete Guide to Running Earl W. Fee,2005 In The Complete Guide to Running the secrets of Earl Fee a world master s champion are revealed that helped him achieve over 30 world records in running This material is supported by hundreds of references Fifteen chapters explain how to improve general physical and mental fitness with major emphasis on mental training nutrition physiology inspiration and motivation Ten chapters reveal the how and why of running training for sprinting middle and long distance hurdles and running in the pool Athletes from 9 to 90 will benefit from this information since all are bound by the same training principles Precautions and training are explained for the extreme young and old
