Howard Roger Garis

Run The Wild Steer Run:

Run Wild, Run Free Nancy Morse, Guilt over his wife's death while he was competing on the rodeo circuit seven years ago forced Hank Reardon to retreat to his ranch in the shadow of the Tetons. These days the former rodeo champion breeds horses and breaks wild mustangs stubbornly clinging to his vow never to compete again. Assigned to photograph the annual mustang roundup it's easy for photojournalist Kit Sloan to see that the hard working hard roping cowboy who hides behind his guilt still has the stuff of a rodeo champion. With Kit spurring him on Hank returns to the circuit. But their love is threatened by Hank's vendetta against a wild stallion and his struggle to put the past behind him. From the Prairie

Schooner to a City Flat Charles Brougher Jernigan, 1926. Presents Jernigan's experiences and observations as pastor, evangelist, organizer of Nazarene Churches or Holiness Churches in twenty-five states. Jernigan served as district superintendent of the Nazarene Kansas Oklahoma District 1908-1912 then as superintendent of the Western Oklahoma District 1922-1923. One Man's West, 2007-10-01. The American West of the 1930s and 1940s was still a place of prospectors, cowboys, ranchers, and mountaineers, one that demanded backbreaking, lonely, and dangerous work. Still, midcentury pioneers such as David Lavender remembered not the cold and the cruel fatigue but rather the multitude of tiny things which in their sum make up the elemental poetry of rock and ice and snow. And as the nation exhausted its gold and silver veins, as law reached the boomtowns on the frontier, and as the era of the great cattle ranches and drives came to an end, Lavender felt compelled to document his experiences in rugged southwest Colorado to preserve this rapidly disappearing way of life. One Man's West is Lavender's ode to his days on the Continental Divide and the story of his experiences making a living in the not so wild but not yet tamed West. Like stories told around a campfire, One Man's West is captivating yet conversational, incredible yet realistic, and introduces some of the most charming characters in western literature. This new Bison Books edition features an introduction and afterword by the author's son that discuss other phases and facets of his father's remarkable life, as well as a tribute to the author by his grandson. It also includes nine new photographs from the Lavender family archives. Running Wild Jeanne Tai, 1994. 14 writers from mainland China, Hong Kong, and Taiwan, the United States, and New Zealand. An intriguing introduction to the multitude of new voices in Chinese literature. Running Wild Linda Howard, Linda Jones, 2012-11-27. In the first novel of this steamy contemporary Western romance series by two blockbuster authors, a cowboy and a woman on the run take a stand and fight for love. Carlin Reed lives in fear, off the grid, moving from place to place. So Battle Ridge, Wyoming, a small town in the middle of nowhere, seems like a good place to lie low for a while. But after becoming cook and housekeeper to cattle rancher Zeke Decker, Carlin suspects that she's made her first mistake. Rugged, sexy, and too distracting for his own good, Zeke is pure temptation mixed with something deep and primal that makes Carlin feel almost safe. Soon things are getting way too hot in the kitchen. Zeke doesn't challenge Carlin's terms: cash, dead bolts, and no questions. It is easy to see that she's a woman in trouble. Problem is, he's so blindsided by his attraction to her he can't think straight Zeke tries to stay all business no complications but that game plan is sabotaged the second Carlin gets under his skin And when her terrifying past follows her to the ranch Carlin faces a heartbreaking choice run away from the man she loves or put him in the crosshairs of a madman     The Ramblin' Kid Earl Wayland Bowman,2025-08-31 Reproduction of the original The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage     Ford Times ,1916 The Ford owner's magazine     Annual Report of the City of Des Moines Des Moines (Iowa).
