encompassing idea of what makes an Indian poet Included are lost uncollected or out of print poems by major poets essays that place entire bodies of work into their precise cultural contexts and a collection of classic black and white portraits by Madhu Kapparith These images taken over a period of thirty years form an archive of breathtaking historical scope They offer the viewer unparalleled intimacy and access to the lives of some of India s greatest poets Strange Music Laura Fish,2009-10-06 In Laura Fish s ambitious and captivating novel three very different women struggle for freedom While Elizabeth Barrett Browning is confined to bed chafing against the restriction of her doctors and writing poetry and fretful letters at her family s Jamaican estate Kaydia the Creole housekeeper tries to protect her daughter from their predatory master and a recently freed black slave Sheba mourns the loss of her lover As Elizabeth a passionate abolitionist struggles to come to terms with the source of her wealth and privilege both Sheba and Kydia fight to escape a tragic past which seems ever present The resulting novel is an extraordinary evocation of the dark side of the nineteenth century that is both horrifying and ultimately redeeming Through Asia, Volume 1 Dr. Sven Hedin,2023-08-10 Right in the heart of Asia where Britain Russia and China stretched encroaching fingers towards a possible meeting lies the mysterious tract of country passed over in half a page in our geography books and omitted except in vague and general outline from our atlases It is a region about which people have inquired little North and South have been eagerly explored the Pole and Sahara are brought so to speak to our doors But the centuries have passed with but few attempts to penetrate the core of the mysterious East There is something about the very name of Khotan of the Pamirs of Mus tagh ata which tickles the imagination and we confess to something of a superstitious thrill in opening Dr Sven Hedin s book For if the hidden Lama is to be unveiled surely we have a right to expect portents But what do we find That Dr Hedin visited the Temple of the Ten Thousand Images and had tea with the Living Buddha Yet that was a mere incident disposed of in a few lines of a book whose every page is alive with serious interest Dr Hedin has plenty of humour and of good humour but his book is one to be taken seriously He has traversed thousands of miles where no European had ever before set foot his adventures and experiences have been in themselves extraordinary and his discoveries of far reaching importance but perhaps the charm of the book lies as much as anywhere else in the writer s art of telling his story simply and unaffectedly and of keeping the warm human interest alive from first to last There is hardly a more fascinating or a more thrilling travel book The descriptions of the various attempts to scale the Mus tagh ata of the wonderful scenic effects of the mental and physical sensations of the traveller and the grand invincibility of the Father of the Ice Mountains are enough to set the nerves a tingling in the bare reading Journals of Australian Explorations Augustus Charles Gregory,Francis Thomas Gregory,1884
