The New Russia Ian Jeffries,2013-12-19 The rapid changes in Russia since the collapse of the Soviet Union are often bewildering with many frequent highly significant changes in the different sectors of the economy and the political system There have been frequent changes of personnel in government and economic management and many changes have been reversed and sometimes forgotten or at other times reinstated What happened when Who was responsible for what Did such a change in one sector precede or follow a particular change elsewhere These are points not easily remembered This book provides full details of the many changes and enables sense to be made of what would otherwise be a confusing situation Developments are arranged chronologically by sector and the book is unusual in extensively chronicling both economic and political developments and the crucial connections between them There is a generous introduction and overview to help the reader find his or her way around The material covers the period up to late autumn 2000 and thus offers a valuable guide to policies in the Putin era

Change in Putin's

Russia Simon Pirani,2009-11-06 This is an investigation into the interaction of power money and people in Russia during the presidencies of Vladimir Putin and Dmitry Medvedev Profiling Putin s team including his security services and pro market economic reformers Simon Pirani argues that the growth during the oil boom was one sided The gap between rich and poor widened Now the boom is over this problem has only grown As well as explaining Russia s economic trajectory the book provides a unique account of the social movements that are working against an increasingly authoritarian government to change Russia for the better The International Politics of Eurasia: v. 8: Economic Transition in Russia and the New States of Eurasia S. Frederick Starr,Karen Dawisha,2016-09-17 First Published in 1996 This ambitious ten volume series develops a comprehensive analysis of the evolving world role of the post Soviet successor states Each volume considers a different factor influencing the relationship between internal politics and international relations in Russia and in the western and southern tiers of newly independent states The contributors were chosen not only for their recognized expertise but also to ensure a stimulating diversity of perspectives and a dynamic mix of approaches This is Volume 8 Economic Transition in Russia and the New States of Eurasia Economic Opening Up and Growth in Russia Evgeny Gavrilenkov,Paul J.J. Welfens,Ralf Wiegert,2013-03-19 After a decade of sharp economic decline Russia switched to an impressive period of economic growth Yet the economic record is still mixed and many key problems remain unresolved both in the economic sphere and the political system The focus is on economic dynamics in Russia reasons for its hesitant opening up process as well as the special role of the natural resources sector which is expected to continue to grow This analysis highlights the existing deficiencies of the Russian economic system and raises doubts about the sustainability of growth Twin focus is on required reforms and endogenous forces that impair liberalizing trade and investment in an orderly way Russian discussions on WTO and other international topics are reflected Russia and Eurasia at the Crossroads Egor S. Stroev,Leonid S. Bliakhman,Mikhail I. Krotov,2012-12-06 This last century of the second millennium has compressed human history to such an extent that whole ages of engineering economics social politics and the humanities have been accommodated in decades or even years Mankind has matured and applied its cognitive and creative genes to advance science and to internationalise future goals including the vital goal of sustainable social development However having no control over the new pace of history twentieth century civilisation has faced global cataclysms of a frequency and depth unprecedented and inconceivable in the past millennia Among the recent crises to be resolved in the third millennium is disintegration of the Soviet Union the biggest state and third largest population in the world Regretfully the pace of change in the Soviet Union had been slower than the rates of reform elsewhere Attempts at economic redecorating instead of radical market oriented reforms failed In Soviet society general discontent with the progress of perestroika in the 1980s provoked the child complacency syndrome that is typical of a young mind contemptuous of any adult action it is convinced that things could have been done much better and much quicker With the new millennium approaching the Soviet Union gave way to 15 new states ridden with both inherited and acquired economic political and social maladies It is common knowledge however that childhood epidemics are short lived
