Robinson Jeffers and a Galaxy of Writers William B. Thesing, 1995

The View from the Tower Theodore Ziolkowski, 2014-07-14 Immediately after World War I four major European and American poets and thinkers W B Yeats Robinson Jeffers R M Rilke and C G Jung moved into towers as their principal habitations Taking this striking coincidence as its starting point this book sets out to locate modern turriphilia in its cultural context and to explore the biographical circumstances that motivated the four writers to choose their unusual retreats From the ziggurats of ancient Mesopotamia to the ivory towers of the fin de si cle the author traces the emergence of a variety of symbolic associations with the proud towers of the past ranging from spirituality and intellect to sexuality and sequestration But in every case the tower served both literally and symbolically as a refuge from the urban modernism with whose values the four writers found themselves at odds While the classic modernists Eliot Woolf Hart Crane often singled out the broken tower as the image of a crumbling past these writers actualized their powerful visions Yeats and Rilke moved into medieval towers in Ireland and Switzerland while Jeffers and Jung built themselves towers at Carmel and Bollingen as secluded spaces in which to cultivate the traditions and values they cherished The last chapter traces this perseverance of the ancient image through its heyday in the twenties and into the present where it has undergone renewal institutionalization and parody Originally published in 1998 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The Letters of Robert Frost Robert Frost, 2016-09-13 The second installment of Harvard's critically acclaimed five volume edition of Robert Frost's correspondence contains letters from 1920 to 1928 400 of them gathered here for the first time His 160 correspondents include family friends colleagues fellow writers visual artists publishers educators librarians farmers and admirers

Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The Twentieth Century Eric L. Haralson, 2014-01-21 The Encyclopedia of American Poetry The Twentieth Century contains over 400 entries that treat a broad range of individual poets and poems along with many articles devoted to topics schools or periods of American verse in the century Entries fall into three main categories poet entries which provide biographical and cultural contexts for the author's career entries on individual works which offer closer explication of the most resonant poems in the 20th century canon and topical entries which offer analyses of a given period of literary production school thematically constructed category or other verse tradition that historically has been in dialogue with the poetry of the United States Robinson Jeffers Robert J. Brophy, 1975 The Bloomsbury Handbook to Cold War Literary Cultures Greg Barnhisel, 2022-06-30 Adopting a unique historical approach to its subject and with a particular focus on the institutions involved in the creation dissemination and reception of literature this handbook surveys the way in which the Cold War shaped literature and literary production and how literature affected the course of the Cold War To do so in addition to more traditional sources it uses institutions like MFA programs university literature departments book review sections of newspapers publishing houses non governmental cultural agencies libraries and literary magazines as a way to understand works of the period differently Broad in both their geographical range and the range of writers they cover the book's essays examine works of mainstream American literary fiction from writers such as Roth Updike and Faulkner as well as moving beyond the U S and the U K to detail how writers and readers from countries including but not limited to Taiwan Japan Uganda South Africa India Cuba the USSR and the Czech Republic engaged with and contributed to Anglo American literary texts and institutions Ernie O'Malley : IRA Intellectual Richard English,1998-03-26 Ernie O Malley 1897 1957 was one of the most talented and colourful of modern Irish republicans An important IRA leader in the 1916 1923 Irish Revolution this bookish gunman subsequently became a distinguished intellectual and the author of two classic autobiographical accounts of the revolutionary period On Another Man's Wound and The Singing Flame His post revolutionary life took on a bohemian flavour Travelling extensively in Europe and America he mixed with a wide range of artistic and literary figures and devoted himself to a variety of writing projects In his IRA career he mixed with revolutionaries such as Michael Collins and Eamon de Valera in his post IRA years his friends included Samuel Beckett Louis MacNeice John Wayne and John Ford This important new thematic biography draws on previously unseen archival sources and introduces O Malley to both scholarly and general readers O Malley's post revolutionary life was as turbulent as his IRA years and illuminates many persistent themes of Irish history ranging from the origins and culture of militant republicanism and the complexities of Anglo Irish relations to the development of intellectual and artistic life in twentieth century Ireland This exciting new biography will be essential reading for anyone seeking to understand the background to modern Irish politics and the past and present role of the IRA Memory Piano Charles Simic,2006 This title examines not only other writers works with a critical eye but also breaks boundaries in Simic's exploration of the outer and inner reaches of the human condition Included here are essays on April Bernard Robinson Jeffers Donald Justice Pablo Neruda Gerald Stern Richard Wilson and more
