Cultural Trauma and Collective Identity Jeffrey C. Alexander, Ron Eyerman, Bernard Giesen, Neil J. Smelser, Piotr Sztompka, 2004-03-22 In this collaboratively authored work five distinguished sociologists develop an ambitious theoretical model of cultural trauma and on this basis build a new understanding of how social groups interact with emotion to create new and binding understandings of social responsibility Looking at the meaning making process as an open ended social dialogue in which strikingly different social narratives vie for influence they outline a strongly constructivist approach to trauma and apply this theoretical model in a series of extensive case studies including the Nazi Holocaust slavery in the United States and September 11 2001

Essential Personality Donald Pennington, 2018-04-17 Essential Personality provides a clear accessible and systematic introduction to the major theoretical approaches for the understanding of human personality This introductory book assumes no prior knowledge of this core area in psychology and is written for students studying personality for the first time whether at A level first year undergraduates on psychology degree programmes or students on other courses for example nursing social work or criminology Each chapter considers one or more of the major approaches to personality For each approach a brief biographical outline of the originating theorist is given This is followed by clear and straightforward descriptions of the major aspects of each theory together with clear definitions of key concepts and concludes with an evaluation section that addresses the model of humans underlying the approach research evidence in support of the theory and questioning the theory Discussion is also given to personality assessment and therapeutic applications of the theory or approach The individual chapters provide figures diagrams and tables to give a clear understanding of theory and research and at the end of each chapter a summary and suggestions for further reading is provided A glossary at the end of the book provides definitions and explanations of key items concepts etc

The Collected Works of D.W. Winnicott Donald Woods Winnicott, 2017 Volume 5 introduced by Jennifer and Marcus Johns covers the years 1955 1959 an extremely productive period of Winnicott's work in broadcasting social work child psychiatry and psychoanalysis His two Tavistock publications The Child and the Family and The Child and the Outside World and his first collection of essays Through Paediatrics to Psychoanalysis were published during this time In 1955 he married Clare Britton with whom he had been working during the previous decade and in 1956 he became President of the British Psychoanalytical Society It was in this capacity that many of the large number of letters in this volume were composed relating to the work of his analytical colleagues and the integration of the different training and theoretical groups within the BPAS

Virginia Woolf in Context Bryony Randall, Jane Goldman, 2012-12-17 As a paradigmatic modernist author Virginia Woolf is celebrated for the ways her fiction illuminates modern and contemporary life Woolf scholars have long debated how context whether historical cultural or theoretical is to be understood in relation to her work and how her work produces new insights into context Drawing on an international field of leading and emergent specialists this collection provides an authoritative resource for contemporary Woolf scholarship that explores the distinct and overlapping dimensions of her writings Rather than survey existing scholarship these essays extend Woolf studies in new directions by examining how the author is contextualised today The collection also highlights connections between Woolf and key cultural political and historical issues of the twentieth century such as avant gardism in music and art developments in journalism and the publishing industry political struggles over race gender and class and the bearings of colonialism empire and war

Human Experience John Russon, 2010-03-29 Co winner of the 2005 Biennial Book Prize for the best philosophy book published in English presented by the Canadian Philosophical Association John Russon's Human Experience draws on central concepts of contemporary European philosophy to develop a novel analysis of the human psyche Beginning with a study of the nature of perception embodiment and memory Russon investigates the formation of personality through family and social experience He focuses on the importance of the feedback we receive from others regarding our fundamental worth as persons and on the way this interpersonal process embeds meaning into our most basic bodily practices eating sleeping sex and so on Russon concludes with an original interpretation of neurosis as the habits of bodily practice developed in family interactions that have become the foundation for developed interpersonal life and proposes a theory of psychological therapy as the development of philosophical insight that responds to these neurotic compulsions

Psychoanalysis of Sense Guillaume Collett, 2016-10-26 Guillaume Collett questions to what extent we can locate Deleuze within the Lacanian School during the late 1960s prior to Guattari In so doing he offers a new integrated reading of Deleuze's The Logic of Sense 1969 by understanding it as a psychoanalysis of sense and gives a new interpretation of Deleuze's conception of philosophy itself The Psychoanalysis of Sense shows that Deleuze was not merely aware of the debates animating the Lacanian School during the 1960s he sought to contribute to them Emphasising his appropriation of the work of post Lacanian Serge Leclaire Collett explains how Deleuze constructed a more singular and immanent theory of the linguistic structure of the unconscious granting the erogenous body a larger structuring role

A Group-Analytic Exploration of the Sibling Matrix Val Parker, 2019-11-19 A Group Analytic Exploration of the Sibling Matrix How Siblings Shape our Lives offers a fresh approach to siblings recognising how these relationships are embedded in the framework of the family and how sibling experiences shape our lives influencing relationships with partners friends and colleagues and affecting how we take our place in groups and in society The book is divided into three parts Part One focuses on the sibling life cycle exploring how these relationships shift and change throughout life according to context and circumstances In Part Two Parker uses clinical examples to consider how therapists working with individuals and groups might expand their thinking to incorporate the sibling matrix The final part investigates how the sibling matrix manifests in organisational life and considers how we might develop mutuality and cooperation in our universal sibling matrix Drawing on the author's wealth of experience as a clinician the book incorporates compelling personal stories and clinical examples to bring to life the realities and nuances the good and bad the healthy and supportive and also the potentially damaging aspects of sibling relationships Accessibly written this is a rich and rewarding invitation to reflect on our own experience whether as clinicians researchers or as members of our own sibling matrix

Social Science Quotations Robert Merton,2018-04-27 Social Science Quotations has been prepared to meet an evident unmet need in the literature of the social sciences Writings on the lives and theories of individual social scientists abound but there has been no fully documented collection of memorable quotations from the social sciences as a whole The frequent use of quotations in scientific as well as literary writings that are mere summaries or paraphrases typically fail to capture the full force of formulations that have made quotations memorable This book of quotations invites the further reading or rereading of the original texts beyond the quotations themselves Sills and Merton draw extensively upon the writings that constitute the historical core of the social sciences and social thought those works with staying power often described as the classical texts Many quotations have been drawn from these classical texts because the quotations contain memorable ideas memorably expressed Both consequential and memorable these words have been quoted over the generations entering into the collective memory of social scientists everywhere and at times diffusing into popular thought and into the vernacular as well This book is useful to social scientists anthropologists economists historians political scientists psychiatrists psychologists sociologists and statisticians and for all who want to learn or verify memorable formulations and phrases concerning social thought and social theories It is particularly useful for graduate students taking courses that examine the history of their discipline

Men's Silences Jonathan Rutherford,2023-03-31 First published in 1992 Men's Silences represents a personal and a political attempt to break out of the narrow parameters of men's sexual politics It focusses on men's feelings to language The early chapters provide a social context for exploring the practice and theorizing of men's sexual politics The book continues by developing an alternative theoretical framework for addressing male subjectivity using Wittgenstein's theory of language and the psychoanalytic theories of Winnicott Bion and Klein The author argues for the centrality of the pre oedipal mother son relationship in the making of male subjectivity language and identity This book will be of interest to students of sociology gender studies political science and cultural studies

Psychotherapy with Women Marilyn Lawrence,Marie Maguire,1999 Psychotherapy with Women provides a clear account of current feminist practice in working with women within the helping professions It has arisen out of work at the Women's Therapy Centre in London and brings together contributions from eminent women psychotherapists The contributors draw on a wide range of theoretical perspectives ranging from the work of Freud and Jung to more contemporary psychodynamic theories Yet this book is essentially about psychotherapy in practice examining core issues including sexuality aging family dynamics disability and ethnicity Publisher's description

Landscapes of Abandonment Roger A. Salerno,2012-02-01 Using social theory and cultural analysis Roger A Salerno

explores the relationship of abandonment to the construction of contemporary capitalistic cultures Beginning with an array of narratives on the emergence of capitalism in the West and its undermining of traditional social institutions and structures he provides an overview of both the definition of and reactions to abandonment analyzing its historical social and psychological dimensions The author contends that abandonment anxiety and feelings of estrangement not only have deep psychological roots but also important social causes and cultural manifestations such as a quest for security or a hunger for commodities Salerno surveys important contributions of writers artists philosophers and social scientists and how their work expresses this sense of modern abandonment He also examines how and why this phenomenon has become a central motif in renderings of community the environment and the process of globalization and presents a richer understanding of our modern social condition
