Selected Poems Of Jay Wright:

Selected Poems of Jay Wright Jay Wright, 1987      Transfigurations Jay Wright, 2000 Few poets have as much to tell us about the intricate relationship between the African American past and present as Jay Wright His poems weave a rich fabric of personal history using diverse materials drawn from African Native American and European sources Scholarly historical intuitive and emotional his work explores territories in which rituals of psychological and spiritual individuation find a new synthesis in the construction of cultural values Never an ideologue but always a poet of vision he shows us a way to rejoice and strengthen ourselves in our common humanity Here together for the first time are Wright's previously published collections The Homecoming Singer 1971 Soothsayers and Omens 1976 Explications Interpretations 1984 Dimensions of History 1976 The Double Invention of Komo 1980 Elaine's Book 1988 and Boleros 1991 along with the new poems of Transformations 1997 By presenting Wright's work as a whole this collection reveals the powerful consistency of his theme a spiritual or intellectual quest for personal development as each book builds solidly upon the previous one Wright examines history from a multicultural perspective attempting to conquer a sense of exclusion from society and his own cultural identity and find solace and accord by linking American society to African traditions He believes that a poem must articulate the vital rhythms of the culture it depicts and is dedicated to a pursuit of poetic forms that embody the cadence of African American culture In The Albuquerque Graveyard he offers a poignant elegy to victims of slavery's Middle Passage and also reveals the purpose of his poetry to the Black limbo an unwritten history of our own tensions The dead lie here in a hierarchy of small defeats Defying characterization Wright has experimented with voices languages cultures and forms not normally associated with African American literature He is well schooled in the cultures of West Africa Europe and the Americas and true to his New Mexican birth he is a powerful synthesizer of human experience Transfigurations reveals Wright to be a man of profound knowledge and a poet of exalted verbal intensity      Soul and Substance Jay Wright, 2023-06-06 Jay Wright is widely recognized as one of the most important American poets of the past half century But in recent years he has also written a series of unconventional essays that he calls examination papers which he defines as designated inquiries to myself In these linked essays most of which resemble prose poems with only a few lines set on each page Wright explores abiding artistic and philosophical concerns including language aesthetic form knowledge time and death Soul and Substance presents these pieces for the first time      The Guide Signs Jay Wright, 2007 In The Guide Signs acclaimed poet Jay Wright closes a movement he opened with his first book The Homecoming Singer in 1971 a movement that takes its design from the ancient people of Mali Wright continued this theme in subsequent works all gathered in Transfigurations Collected Poems whose eight books represent the eight master signs The two books of The Guide Signs represent the primordial Nommo twins All together these ten books as the ten earlier signs taken from the complete signs of the world provide the base for the soul and life force given to everything Wright encourages the reader to participate in weaving the fragile and fragmentary fabric of experience and to do what Horace Silver encourages his listeners to do get down in the music with us      Jay Wright Harold Bloom,2004 Published in 2000 Transfigurations Collected Poems reveals once again Jay Wright s mastery of complex form and his influential voice as an African American poet      The Ruined Elegance Fiona Sze-Lorrain,2015-09-29 A lyrical collection that explores the interplay between poetry and history In her new collection Fiona Sze Lorrain offers a nuanced yet dynamic vision of humanity marked by perils surprises and the transcendence of a ruined elegance Through an intercultural journey that traces lives encounters exiles and memories from France America and Asia the poet explores a rich array of historical and literary allusions to European masters Asian sources and American influences With candor and humor each lyrical foray is sensitive to silence and experience I want to honor the invisible I ll use the fog to see white peaches There are haunting narratives from a World War II concentration camp the Stalinist Terror and a persecuted Tibet during the Cultural Revolution There are also poems that take as their point of departure writings paintings sketches photographs and music by Gu Cheng Giorgio Caproni Bonnard Hiroshige Gao Xingjian Kert sz and Debussy among others Grounded in the sensual these poems probe existential questionings through inspirations from nature and the impermanent earth Described by the Los Angeles Review of Books as a high lyricist who refuses to resort to mere lyricism in order to articulate her experience Sze Lorrain renews her faith in music and poetic language by addressing the opposing aesthetics of ruins and elegance and how the experience of both defies judgment      A Glossary of Chickens Gary J. Whitehead,2013-03-07 An inventive and observant collection of lyric poems from the Princeton Series of Contemporary Poets With skillful rhetoric and tempered lyricism the poems in A Glossary of Chickens explore in part the struggle to understand the world through the symbolism of words Like the hens of the title poem Gary J Whitehead s lyrics root around in the earth searching for sustenance cluck rather than crow and possess a humble majesty Confronting subjects such as moral depravity nature s indifference aging illness death the tenacity of spirit and the possibility of joy the poems in this collection are accessible and controlled musical and meditative imagistic and richly figurative They are informed by history literature and a deep interest in the natural world touching on a wide range of subjects from the Civil War and whale ships to animals and insects Two poems present biblical narratives the story of Lot s wife and an imagining of Noah in his old age Other poems nod to favorite authors one poem is in the voice of the character Babo from Herman Melville s Benito Cereno while another is a kind of prequel to Emily Dickinson s She rose to His Requirement As inventive as they are observant these memorable lyrics strive for revelation and provide their own revelations      Poets and Poems Harold Bloom,2009 Presents a compilation of Bloom s introductions to the Modern critical views and Modern critical interpretations series of books focusing on poets and poems      The Vintage Book of African American Poetry Michael S.
