number 45 and 46 in the Library of America series They are joined in the series by a companion volume number 192s The Lincoln Anthology Great Writers on his Life and Legacy from 1860 to Now Selected Speeches & Writings of Abraham Lincoln Abraham Lincoln,1951 Selected Speeches & Writings Abraham Lincoln,1951 For Jobs and Freedom Asa Philip Randolph,2014 Selected speeches and writings Aleksej N. Kosygin,1981 Selected speeches and writings [Izbrannye reči i stat'i, engl.] (1.ed.) Boris Nikolaevič Ponomarev,1981 For Jobs and Freedom A. Philip Randolph,Andrew Edmund Kersten,David Lucander,2015-01 This volume documents Randolph s life and work through his own writings The editors have combed through the files of libraries manuscript collections and newspapers selecting more than seventy published and unpublished pieces that shed light on Randolph s most significant activities Selected Speeches Demosthenes,2014-05-08 Even if everyone else succumbs to slavery we must still fight for our freedom Admired by many in the ancient world as the greatest of the classic Athenian orators Demosthenes was intimately involved in the political events of his day As well as showing a master orator at work his speeches are a prime source for the history of the period when Athens was engaged in a doomed struggle against the rising power of Macedon under the brilliant father and son Philip and Alexander Demosthenes wrote for the courts both for political trials in which he was involved and for other cases in which he acted as ghost writer for plaintiff or defendant and his lawcourt speeches give an unrivalled glimpse of the daily life of ancient Athens He also played a central role in education in Greece and Rome from the Hellenistic period onward and was imitated by the greatest of Roman orators Cicero This selection includes the fullest range of Demosthenes speeches for trials both public and private and for the assembly in a single volume The Keys of Power Nathan Crick,2017-08-31 Examines Transcendentalism as a distinct rhetorical genre concerned primarily and self consciously with questions of power Nathan Crick has crafted a new critical rhetorical history of American Transcendentalists that interprets a selection of their major works between the years 1821 and 1852 as political and ethical responses to the growing crises of their times In The Keys of Power Crick argues that one of the most enduring legacies of the Transcendentalist movement is the multifaceted understanding of transcendental eloquence as a distinct rhetorical genre concerned primarily and self consciously with questions of power Crick examines the Transcendentalist understanding of how power is constituted in both th self and in society conceptualizing the relationships among technology nature language and identity critiquing the ethical responsibilities to oneself the other and the state and defining and ultimately praising the unique role that art action persuasion and ideas have in the transformation of the structure of political culture over historical time What is offered here is not a comprehensive genealogy of ideas a series of individual biographies or an effort at conceptual generalization but instead an exercise in narrative rhetorical theory and criticism that interprets some of the major specific writings and speeches by men and women associated with the Transcendentalist movement Sampson Reed Amos Bronson Alcott Orestes Brownson Ralph Waldo Emerson Margaret Fuller Henry David Thoreau and Frederick Douglass by placing them within a specific political and social history Rather than attempting to provide comprehensive overviews of the life and work of each of these individuals this volume presents close readings of individual texts that bring to life their rhetorical character in reaction to particular exigencies while addressing audiences of a unique moment This rhetoric of Transcendentalism provides insights into the keys of power that is the means of persuasion for our modern era that remain vital tools for individuals seeking to reconcile power and virtue in their struggle to make manifest a higher ideal in the world
