Selected Writings of Alexandra Kollontai Aleksandra Kollontai, Alix Holt, 1980 Alix Holt in her careful objective comments on the life and work of Miss Kollontai has served her subject well She has given us this chance to become acquainted with the thought of a woman liberated before her time New York Times Book Review Selected Writings of Alexandra Kollontai Aleksandra Kollontai, 1977 Selected Writings of Alexandra Kollontai Aleksandra Kollontai, Alix Holt, 1977-01-01 Kollontai 150, 2022 Selected Writing of Alexandra Kollontai Aleksandra Kollontai, 1980 Selected Writings of Aleksandra Kollontai Aleksandra Kollontai, 1977 Women, the State and Revolution Wendy Z. Goldman, 1993-11-26 Focusing on how women peasants and orphans responded to Bolshevik attempts to remake the family this text reveals how by 1936 legislation designed to liberate women had given way to increasingly conservative solutions strengthening traditional family values Arise! Christina Heatherton, 2022-10-04 An international history of radical movements and their convergences during the Mexican Revolution The Mexican Revolution was a global event that catalyzed international radicals in unexpected sites and struggles Tracing the paths of figures like Black American artist Elizabeth Catlett Indian anti colonial activist M N Roy Mexican revolutionary leader Ricardo Flores Magón Okinawan migrant organizer Paul Shinsei Kichi and Soviet feminist Alexandra Kollontai Arise reveals how activists around the world found inspiration and solidarity in revolutionary Mexico From art collectives and farm worker strikes to prison universities Arise reconstructs how this era's radical organizers found new ways to fight global capitalism Drawing on prison records surveillance data memoirs oral histories visual art and a rich trove of untapped sources Christina Heatherton considers how disparate revolutionary traditions merged in unanticipated alliances From her unique vantage point she charts the remarkable impact of the Mexican Revolution as radicals in this critical era forged an anti racist internationalism from below Writings from the Struggle Cathy Porter, 2019-04-25 Never before translated writings of one of Russia's most important leaders in the struggle for women's liberation Reference Guide to Russian Literature Neil Cornwell, 2013-12-02 First Published in 1998 This volume will surely be regarded as the standard guide to Russian literature for some considerable time to come It is therefore confidently recommended for addition to reference libraries be they academic or public Alexandra Kollontai: Writings from the Struggle Cathy Porter, 2020-03-05 Alexandra Kollontai was a major figure in the Russian revolutionary movement an activist from the 1890s a pioneer of women's liberation and one of the founders of International Women's Day This new collection is a wide ranging selection of her writings from the revolutionary struggle from her first discovery of Marx in her twenties to her place in the first Bolshevik government and her fight to defend Soviet power Edited and translated by Cathy Porter this collection includes articles translated for the first time into English Gender, State and Society in Soviet and Post-Soviet Russia Sarah Ashwin, 2012-10-12 One of the few English language studies to focus on the male experiences this book addresses the important questions raised by the rise and fall of the Soviet experiment in transforming gender relations

Issues covered include the paternal role women as breadwinners men's loss of status at work changing gender roles in the press the relationship between the sexual and gender revolutions Featuring an outstanding panel of Russian contributors this collection is a valuable resource for students and scholars of Politics Gender Studies and Russian Studies Women's History in Global Perspective Bonnie G. Smith, 2004 The American Historical Association's Committee on Women Historians commissioned some of the pioneering figures in women's history to prepare essays in their respective areas of expertise These volumes the second and third in a series of three complete their collected efforts The first volume of the series dealt with the broad themes necessary to understanding women's history around the world As a counterpoint volume 2 is concerned with issues that have shaped the history of women in particular places and during particular eras It examines women in ancient civilizations including women in China Japan and Korea women and gender in South and South East Asia Medieval women women and gender in Colonial Latin America and the history of women in the US to 1865 Authors included are Sarah Hughes and Brady Hughes Susan Mann Barbara N Ramusack Judith M Bennett Ann Twinam and Kathleen Brown As with volume 2 volume 3 also discusses current trends in gender and women's history from a regional perspective It includes essays on sub Saharan Africa the Middle East early and modern Europe Russian and the Soviet Union Latin American and North America after 1865 Asuncion Lavrin Ellen Dubois and Judith P Zinsser writing with Bonnie S Anderson Incorporating essays from top scholars ranging over an abundance of regions dates and methodologies the three volumes of Women's History in Global Perspective constitute an invaluable resource for anyone interested in a comprehensive overview on the latest in feminist scholarship Bonnie G Smith is the Board of Governors Professor of History and director of the Institute for Research on Women at Rutgers University She is the author of Confessions of a Concierge Madame Lucie's History of Twentieth Century France and many other books Curriculum Theorizing and Teacher Education Anne M Phelan, 2015-02-11 If teacher education as a field of study is to contribute to the revitalization re moralization and re politicization of Education this book argues that it needs to be alert to questions of teachers intellectual and political freedom and to concerns about the legitimacy of what we do in teacher education in the name of Education Anne Phelan demonstrates how curriculum theorizing can serve such an educational project by engaging concerns about subjectivity human agency and action society and historical moment thereby widening the field of insight in teacher education and informing debates about new trajectories for policy and practice Exploring teacher education through ethical political aesthetic vocabularies drawn from the Humanities is vital at a time when the dehumanizing influences of performativity standardization and accountability are evident in education systems across the world and when we are in danger of losing the things that we most value and are the least measurable relationships independent thought and ethical judgment Curriculum Theorizing and Teacher Education will be of interest to teacher educators who are practicing researching or re designing teacher education as well as policy makers who are curious about new possibilities for framing the problem of teacher education at provincial state and federal levels From Victimhood to Empowerment Salome Tsopurashvili, 2025-07-24 From Victimhood to Empowerment Representing Women in 1920s Soviet Georgian Cinema brings the cinematographic works of Georgia's State Film Industry from the margins of the Soviet film studies to the centre. The book focuses on women's representations and explores how the gender roles were modified throughout the decade according to the new social and political ideals employing the discourse analysis, postcolonial perspectives and psychoanalytical feminist film theories. Bringing together Soviet Georgia's most important films of the period, the book inspects the female body's symbolic function in the aspects of class dichotomy and ethnic hierarchies. It analyzes the construction of the Oriental other by the Russian colonial imagination and its subsequent dismantling in the context of the Caucasus's de-Orientalization. It also examines the characteristics embodied by the heroine and villain of the new social order: the New Soviet Woman and the NEP woman, and explores women's transformation within the revolutionary setting during the decade. In the light of Bolsheviks' preoccupation and endeavour to improve woman, the book surveys to what extent women's screen images were emancipated and what the functional meaning of this emancipation was in the given context, how the new ideals of the New Soviet woman were inscribed in the period's films and how these ideals were combined with Georgian nationality. Encyclopedia of Women Social Reformers Helen Rappaport, 2001-12-06 The first comprehensive guide to women activists from every part of the world, illuminating the broad range of women's struggles to reform society from the 18th century to the present. Despite being marginalized, disenfranchised, impoverished and oppressed, women have always stepped forward in disproportionate numbers to lead movements for social change. This two-volume encyclopedia documents the visions, struggles and lives of women who have changed the world. This encyclopedia celebrates the lives and achievements of nearly 300 women from around the globe, women who have bravely insisted that the way things are is not the way they have to be. Nadeshda Krupskaya, the wife of Lenin, spearheaded the drive against illiteracy in post-revolutionary Russia. American Dorothy Day founded the Catholic worker movement. Begum Rokeya Hossain organized a girls' school in Calcutta in 1911. Rachel Carson launched the modern environmental movement with her book Silent Spring. The stories of these women and the hundreds of others collected here will restore missing pages to our history and inspire a new generation of women to change the world. Textual Liberation (Routledge Revivals) Helena Forsas-Scott, 2014-11-13 Feminist writing has emerged in recent years as a major influence of twentieth-century European literature. Textual Liberation, first published in 1991, provides a timely and wide-ranging survey of twentieth-century feminist writing in Europe, presenting texts from a number of countries and highlighting some of the transnational parallels and contrasts. The contributors emphasize the wider contexts, political, social, economic, in which the texts were produced. They cover feminist literature in Britain, Scandinavia, Germany, Eastern Europe, Russia, France, Spain, Italy and Turkey, and consider a range of genres including the novel, poetry, drama, essays and journalism. Each chapter contains an extensive bibliography with special emphasis on material available in English. A stimulating introduction to the development of European feminist writing Textual Liberation will be an invaluable resource for students of women's literature, women's studies and feminism

Marxism and America Christopher Phelps, Robin Vandome, 2021-06-08 In Marxism and America an accomplished group of scholars reconsiders the relationship of the United States to the theoretical tradition derived from Karl Marx. In brand new essays that cover the period from the nineteenth century when Marx wrote for American newspapers to the present when a millennial socialism has emerged inspired by the presidential campaigns of Bernie Sanders, the contributors take up topics ranging from memory of the Civil War to feminist debates over sexuality and pornography. Along the way they clarify the relationship of race and democracy, the promise and perils of the American political tradition and the prospects for class politics today. Marxism and America sheds new light on old questions helping to explain why socialism has been so difficult to establish in the United States even as it has exerted a notable influence in American thought

Love and revolution Matt York, 2023-03-21 Based on award winning research Love and revolution brings classical and contemporary anarchist thought into a mutually beneficial dialogue with a global cross section of ecological anti-capitalist feminist and anti-racist activists discussing real life examples of the loving caring relations that underpin many contemporary struggles. Such a revolutionary love is discovered to be a common embodied experience among the activists contributing to this collective vision manifested as a radical solidarity, as political direct action, as long term processes of struggle and as a deeply relational more than human ethics. This book provides an essential resource for all those interested in building a free society grounded in solidarity and care and offers a timely contribution to contemporary movement discourse

Nadezhda Krupskaya and the New View of Radical Society in Russia M. A. Iasilli, 2024-06-25 The Russian Revolution is typically studied from a perspective of power and authority. The shadow of Communism tends to portray the revolutionary character of 1917 as an ominous path toward totalitarianism. While the revolutionary story has been overshadowed by the authoritarianism of Stalinist regimes, the Revolution has much more complex underpinnings that tie back to the nineteenth century Russian populist movement and the women who were drawn into it. Nadezhda Krupskaya and the New View of Radical Society in Russia reexamines the fundamental ideas and moments that led to the revolution and its eventual bureaucratization from the perspective of Nadezhda Krupskaya, Vladimir Lenin's wife. Her involvement provides a new perspective in how we should consider the role of culture as opposed to ideology, particularly the subordination of Communism as well as the women in Soviet politics. M. A. Iasilli provides a nuanced view of the Russian Revolution that demonstrates a Bolshevik legacy and connection with their populist ancestors, the Narodniks, and argues that the revolution wasn't merely Marxist fanaticism but something much deeper and emotional.
