FCS New Venture Creation L3 Sarah Chorley,2008 The Experimental Nature of New Venture Creation Martin Curley,Piero Formica,2013-06-13 This book presents readers with the opportunity to fundamentally re evaluate the processes of innovation and entrepreneurship and to rethink how they might best be stimulated and fostered within our organizations and communities The fundamental thesis of the book is that the entrepreneurial process is not a linear progression from novel idea to successful innovation but is an iterative series of experiments where progress depends on the persistence and resilience of the individuals involved and their ability and to learn from failure as well as success From this premise the authors argue that the ideal environment for new venture creation is a form of experimental laboratory a community of innovators where ideas are generated shared and refined experiments are encouraged and which in itself serves as a test environment for those ideas and experiments This environment is quite different from the traditional incubator which may impose the disciplines of the established firm too early in the development of the new venture Featuring case examples of start ups across a wide spectrum of industries from Wikipedia to Ryanair the authors explore the qualities of successful innovation including a high tolerance of risk and unpredictability and commitment to building knowledge enterprises that value intangible assets This volume is a clarion call to those in academia enterprise and government who seek to work together to promote innovation and entrepreneurship with a stark message for academic institutions engage or be left behind

Driving Factors for Venture Creation and Success in Agricultural Entrepreneurship Arafat, Mohd Yasir,Saleem, Imran,Ali, Jabir,Khan, Adil,Balhareth, Hamad Hussain,2021-10-22 The literature on entrepreneurship research has generally ignored the agricultural sector Few entrepreneurship scholars who are mostly agricultural economists and rural sociologists have contributed in parallel with an isolated body of work without much integration and a larger research agenda Most of the work in agriculture entrepreneurship focuses on the traditional operations of the sector but lacks the theoretical framework required for a broader conceptual understanding of entrepreneurship in the agriculture sector There is not much alliance between these two parallel research streams Theoretical and methodological differences have constrained the interdisciplinary collaboration

Driving Factors for Venture Creation and Success in Agricultural Entrepreneurship assesses the main themes of agripreneurship discusses important contextual aspects of the agriculture sector to enhance the understanding of entrepreneurship and highlights how the key contextual dimensions of the agricultural sector can elucidate some of the less understood aspects of entrepreneurship theory and practice Covering topics such as agribusiness and farm entrepreneurship it is ideal for entrepreneurs agriculturalists professionals researchers students academicians and policymakers working in the field of entrepreneurship in various disciplines management education agriculture education sociology economics psychology and technology
