Hsiao, 2022-08-16 The Soldier Writer the Expatriate and Cold War Modernism in Taiwan Freedom in the Trenches argues that what appeared to be a genesis of new literature engendered by the modernist movement in postwar Taiwan was made possible only through the splendid isolation within the Cold War world order sustaining the bubble in which Free China lived on borrowed time The book explores the trenches of freedom in whose confines the soldier poets were surrealistically acquiesced to roam free under the aegis of pure literature and the buffer zone created by the US presence in Taiwan and the modernists expatriate writing from America that aided their moderated deviance from the official line It critically examines the anti establishment character and gesture in the movement phase in terms of its entanglements with the state apparatus and the US aided literary establishment Taiwan s modernists counterbalance their retrospectively perceived excess and nuanced forms of exit with a series of spiritual as well as actual returns upon which earlier traditionalist undercurrents would surface This modernism s mixed legacies with its aesthetic avant gardism marrying politically moderate or conservative penchants date back to its bifurcated mode of existence and operation of separating the realm of the aesthetic from everything else in life during the Cold War
