Selected Readings from the Works of Mao Tse-Tung Tse-Tung Mao,1967 Selected Readings from the Works of Mao Zedong Zedong Mao,1967 Selected Readings from the Works of Mao Tsetung Mao Tsetung,2013 Introducing Selected Readings from the Works of Mao Tse-tung Zedong Mao,196? Comparative Political Philosophy Anthony Parel,Ronald C. Keith,2003-01-01 Comparative Political Philosophy Studies Under the Upas Tree examines four major traditions of political philosophy and discusses similarities in their key ideas and assumptions An intellectually daring enterprise this fascinating volume focuses on key texts from Chinese Indian Western and Islamic political philosophy A Glossary of Political Terms of the People's Republic of China Gucheng Li,1995 A glossary of political terms of the People's Republic of China is a collection of 560 important and frequently used Chinese political terms and phrases that appeared between 1949 and 1990 Each entry begins with an explanation of the term and its origin a description of how and under what circumstances the term was used and a discussion of the changes of meaning over the years as well as the political and social significance of the words Jacket The Death of Secular Messianism Anthony E. Mansueto,2010-08-01 The Death of Secular Messianism argues that the claims of secularists notwithstanding modernity did not so much abandon humanity's historic search for the divine but rather transposed it into a new innerworldly key This secret religion of high modernity came in both positivistic and humanistic variants The first sought to overcome finitude by means of scientific and technological progress The second sought to overcome contingency by creating a collective Subject the Modern Democratic State or the Communist Party in and through which human beings would become the masters of their own destiny In making his case for this thesis the author outlines a new political theological and social theoretical perspective which saves what is best in modernity its focus on human creative activity and its commitment to rational autonomy and democratic citizenship while re engaging humanity's great spiritual traditions The State, Identity, and the National Question in China and Japan Germaine A. Hoston,2021-02-09 The first decades of the twentieth century witnessed an explosion of nationalist sentiment in East Asia as in Europe This comprehensive work explores how radical Chinese and Japanese thinkers committed to social change in this turbulent era addressed issues concerning national identity social revolution and the role of the national state in achieving socio economic development Focusing on the adaptation of anarchism and then Marxism Leninism to non European contexts Germaine Hoston shows how Chinese and Japanese theorists attempted to reconcile a relatively new appreciation for the nation state with their allegiance to a vision of internationalist socialist revolution culminating in stateless socialism Given the influence of Western experience on Marxism Chinese and Japanese theorists found the Marxian national question to be not merely one of whether the working man has no country but rather the much more fundamental issue of the relative value of Eastern and Western cultures Marxism argues Hoston thus placed native Marxists in tension with their own heritage and national identity The author traces efforts to resolve this tension throughout the first half of the twentieth century and concludes by examining how the tension persists as Chinese and Japanese dissidents seek identity affirming modernity in accordance with the Western democratic model

Linguistic Engineering Ji Fengyuan, 2003-11-30 When Mao and the Chinese Communist Party won power in 1949 they were determined to create new revolutionary human beings Their most precise instrument of ideological transformation was a massive program of linguistic engineering They taught everyone a new political vocabulary gave old words new meanings converted traditional terms to revolutionary purposes suppressed words that expressed incorrect thought and required the whole population to recite slogans stock phrases and scripts that gave correct linguistic form to correct thought They assumed that constant repetition would cause the revolutionary formulae to penetrate people s minds engendering revolutionary beliefs and values In an introductory chapter Dr Ji assesses the potential of linguistic engineering by examining research on the relationship between language and thought In subsequent chapters she traces the origins of linguistic engineering in China describes its development during the early years of communist rule then explores in detail the unprecedented manipulation of language during the Cultural Revolution of 1966 1976 Along the way she analyzes the forms of linguistic engineering associated with land reform class struggle personal relationships the Great Leap Forward Mao worship Red Guard activism revolutionary violence Public Criticism Meetings the model revolutionary operas and foreign language teaching She also reinterprets Mao s strategy during the early stages of the Cultural Revolution showing how he manipulated exegetical principles and contexts of judgment to frame his alleged opponents The work concludes with an assessment of the successes and failures of linguistic engineering and an account of how the Chinese Communist Party relaxed its control of language after Mao s death
