Museum British Museum. Department of Oriental Printed Books and Manuscripts, Alexander George Ellis, 1926 Selections from the Koran George Sale, 2014-08-20 The Quran literally meaning the recitation also romanised Qur'an or Koran is the central religious text of Islam which Muslims believe to be a revelation from God Allah Its scriptural status among a world spanning religious community and its major place within world literature generally has led to a great deal of secondary literature on the Quran Quranic chapters are called suras and verses are called ayahs Muslims believe that the Quran was verbally revealed from God to Muhammad through the angel Gabriel Jibril gradually over a period of approximately 23 years beginning on 22 December 609 CE when Muhammad was 40 and concluding in 632 CE the year of his death Muslims regard the Quran as the most important miracle of Muhammad a proof of his prophethood and the culmination of a series of divine messages that started with the messages revealed to Adam and ended with Muhammad They consider the Quran to be the only revealed book that has been protected by God from distortion or corruption Introduction to Philosophy of Religion James Kellenberger, 2017-09-29 Using various and competing religious sensibilities Introduction to the Philosophy of Religion helps students work through the traditional material and their own religious questions Wanderings & Wonderings John James Aubertin, 1892 Catalogue W. Heffer & Sons, 1929 Divine Action and Natural Selection Joseph Seckbach, Richard Gordon, 2009 The debate between divine action or faith and natural selection or science is garnering tremendous interest This book ventures well beyond the usual contrasting American Protestant and atheistic points of view and also includes the perspectives of Jews Muslims and Roman Catholics It contains arguments from the various proponents of intelligent design creationism and Darwinism and also covers the sensitive issue of how to incorporate evolution into the secondary school biology curriculum Comprising contributions from prominent award winning authors the book also contains dialogs following each chapter to provide extra stimulus to the readers and a full picture of this hot topic which delves into the fundamentals of science and religion Islam T. Archibald Books, 1911 Studying Islam in the Arab World Sari Hanafi, 2023-12-22 Addressing the rupture between religious and social sciences in Arab universities this book provides a critical assessment of the curricula of Shariah and Islamic Studies departments across the Arab World arguing for increased interdisciplinary dialogue Based on over 250 interviews with university students and teachers this study is the sum of five years of field research observing the curricula and teaching styles of colleges in the Shariah sciences The author provides critical insight into these curricula by focusing on case studies in Lebanon and Jordan Morocco Kuwait and Qatar and in Malaysia In doing so the book aims to answer the following questions What is the aim of religious education Does it aim to create people who specialize solely in religious affairs or does it aim to form the student according to a comprehensive human framework What is the nature of the relationship between the social sciences and the Shariah sciences The book concludes by examining three pioneering institutions which have introduced alternative curricula in teaching Shariah studies The book has wide geographic and ideological coverage and will appeal to university students academics and policy analysts
