Selections From The Contributions To The Irish Homestead Volume 2:

Selections from the Contributions to "The Irish Homestead". George William Russell, 1978 Selections from the Contributions to the Irish Homestead George William Russell, The Years of O'Casey, 1921-1926 Robert Goode Hogan, Richard Burnham, 1992 This documentary history covers a period of Irish political and dramatic climax that had an impact not only on the nation but on the world as well During these years both Ireland and its major theater attained a position however precarious of stability De Valera and the Republicans laid down their arms and entered politics while by a state subsidy the Abbey was formally recognized as the Irish National Theatre The importance of these years goes far beyond Ireland itself because the Irish masterpieces of Sean O'Casey The Shadow of a Gunman Juno and the Paycock and The Plough and the Stars made an impact upon world drama nearly as profound as that of Luigi Pirandello or of Eugene O'Neill As this book is a documentary history the story is told primarily through the words of the writers actors producers critics and members of the audience who themselves lived and created the story However these contemporary accounts are frequently amplified and put into modern perspective particularly at crucial moments such as a major production a final production or a death The authors have particularly done so with writers of some importance such as Edward Martyn William Boyle or T C Murray Since the theater of these years was especially influenced by the state of the country the authors give considerable space to the disruptive political events of the times Always however this is done from the particular vantage point of the theater and its workers for the Irish theater vigorously reacted to and quickly assimilated the turbulent political events of the day the raids the reprisals the burnings and the murders These 1800 days really break into two periods The first comprises the violence of the Black and Tan War the exhaustion that led to the treaty and the bitterness occasioned by the treaty that led to the culminating ferocity of the civil war The second is politically and theatrically a time of consolidation and assimilation The two early plays of O'Casey might well be seen as symptoms of this healing process The wound in the body politic was deep however and not to be so quickly or so easily healed moreover such matters as The Plough and the Stars and O'Casey's departure from Ireland inevitably seem to be later more lasting symptoms of divisions that still fester in Ireland today The authors account of Ireland's drama is not merely confined to the capital city of Dublin but also to Belfast Cork and the provinces Also included are a full bibliography and cast listings of all the significant new plays produced or published during the period Lady Gregory Judith Hill, 2011-04-14 Lady Gregory Abbey Theatre founder and patron of W B Yeats writer and daughter of a Galway landowner became a key figure in the Irish Revival This new biography investigates Augusta Gregory's varied relationships and the contradictions and achievements of her life This portrait of a fascinating woman places Lady Gregory in the Ireland of her time showing how her nationalism in politics and literature shaped her life and work The Crane Bag Book of Irish Studies: 1982-1985 Mark Patrick Hederman, Richard Kearney, 1982

Twentieth-Century Irish Literature Aaron Kelly, 2008-06-02 This Guide surveys existing criticism and theory making clear

Captain Jack White Leo Keohane,2014-09-12 Captain Jack White DSO 1879 1946 is a fascinating yet neglected figure in Irish history Son of Field Marshal Sir George White V C he became a Boer war hero and crucially was the first Commandant of the Irish Citizen Army One of the few notable figures in Ireland to declare himself an anarchist he led a remarkable life of action and was a most unsystematic thinker This is a long overdue assessment of his life and times Leo Keohane vividly brings to life the contradictory worlds and glamour of this mercurial figure who knew Lord Kitchener was a dinner companion of King Edward and the Kaiser who corresponded with H G Wells D H Lawrence and Tolstoy and shared a platform with G B Shaw Conan Doyle Roger Casement and Alice Stopford Green The founder of the Irish Citizen Army along with James Connolly White marched and argued with James Larkin during the 1913 Lockout worked with Sean O Casey liaised with Constance Markievicz and socialised with most of the Irish activists and literati of the early twentieth century A man who lived many lives White was the ultimate outsider beset by divided loyalties with an alternative philosophy and an inability to conform
