Selective Genocide In Burundi:

Selective Genocide in Burundi, 1972-06-16 This report provides an account of the circumstances and events leading to the 1972 mass killings of Hutus by the Tutsi dominated army

Selective Genocide in Burundi René Lemarchand, David Martin, 1974

Remembering Genocides in Central Africa Rene Lemarchand, 2021-01-04 Scene of one of the biggest genocides of the last century Rwanda has become a household word yet bitter disagreements persist as to its causes and consequences Through a blend of personal memories and historical analysis and informed by a lifelong experience of research in Central Africa the author challenges conventional wisdom and suggests a new perspective for making sense of the appalling brutality that has accompanied the region's post independence trajectories All four states adjacent to Rwanda are inhabited by Hutu and Tutsi and thus contained in germ the potential for ethnic conflict but only in Burundi did this potential reach genocidal proportions when in 1972 in response to a local insurrection at least 200 000 Hutu civilians were killed by a predominantly Tutsi army By widening his analytic lens the author shows the critical importance of the Burundi bloodshed to an understanding of the roots of the Rwanda genocide and in later years the significance of the mass murder of Hutu civilians by Kagame's Tutsi army not just in Rwanda but in the Congo The regional dimension of ethnic conflict traceable to Belgian engineered Hutu revolution in Rwanda in 1959 three years before its independence is the principal missing piece in the genocidal puzzle of the Great Lakes region of central Africa But this is by no means the only one Reassembling the missing pieces within and outside Rwanda is not the least of the merits of this highly readable reassessment of a widely misunderstood human tragedy

Critical Perspectives on African Genocide Alfred Frankowski, Jeanine Ntihirageza, Chielozona Eze, 2021-02-23 Genocide has become a part of the contemporary global expression of political violence After all every continent has had its genocide but genocide in Africa and the African diaspora is distinctly different from those in Europe or the West This text approaches genocide from within the context of Africa and the African diaspora to examine political and philosophical after effects of global colonialism As genocidal state violence has become prominent through colonialism its appearance in Europe and the West have developed sharply against how it appears in colonized spaces within the African diaspora This text argues that such a difference in orientation is needed to develop new concepts critical approaches and perspectives on the intersections between colonialism political violence and anti black politics as a way of critically understanding global genocide and the presence of continual genocidal violence

Selective genocide in Burundi. By René Lemarchand and David Martin René Lemarchand, David MARTIN (Journalist.), 1974

Politics and Violence in Burundi Aidan Russell, 2019-10-17 Reveals the neglected history of decolonisation and violence in Burundi through the political language of truth citizenship and violence

Truth, Silence and Violence in Emerging States Aidan Russell, 2018-10-31 Around the world in the twentieth century political violence in emerging states gave rise to different kinds of silence within their societies This book explores the histories of these silences

how they were made maintained evaded and transformed This book gives a comprehensive view of the ongoing evolutions and multiple faces of silence as a common strand in the struggles of state building It begins with chapters that examine the construction of regimes of silence as an act of power and it continues through explorations of the ambiguous limits of speech within communities marked by this violence It highlights national and transnational attempts to combat state silences before concluding with a series of considerations of how these regimes of silence continue to be extrapolated in the gaps of records and written history This volume explores histories of the composed silences of political violence across the emerging states of the late twentieth century not solely as a present concern of aftermath or retrospection but as a diachronic social and political dimension of violence itself This book makes a major original contribution to international history as well as to the study of political terror human rights violations social recovery and historical memory

On the Nature of Genocidal

Intent Jason J. Campbell, 2012-10-04 Campbell offers a conceptual look into the nature of genocidal intent systematically analyzing the conceptual and logical structures for genocidal intent and discussing its theoretical foundations The analysis offers particular insight into the process of operationalizing genocide and mass extermination The investigation includes discussion of the roles orchestrators play and the systematic development of a genocidal strategy which requires the intent to purge pre selected demographic identifiers from the population Campbell also analyzes in detail the dynamic process of generational conflict wherein former perpetrators become victims and victims become perpetrators

Encyclopedia of

African History 3-Volume Set Kevin Shillington, 2013-07-04 Covering the entire continent from Morocco Libya and Egypt in the north to the Cape of Good Hope in the south and the surrounding islands from Cape Verde in the west to Madagascar Mauritius and Seychelles in the east the Encyclopedia of African History is a new A Z reference resource on the history of the entire African continent With entries ranging from the earliest evolution of human beings in Africa to the beginning of the twenty first century this comprehensive three volume Encyclopedia is the first reference of this scale and scope Also includes 99 maps

AF Press Clips, 1976

Securing Africa Toyin Falola, Charles Thomas, 2013-10-30 Africa has been and currently is the site of numerous conflicts and crises Authors previously wrote of these as specifically African problems or the problems of Europeans in Africa but newer scholarship on other aspects of Africa has come to stress the interconnectness of Africa and the wider world Still it has often been limited to studies of isolated instances within African countries with little to no connection to greater patterns of international power and violence This volume explores the historical and present local and international dimensions of the myriad security crises in Africa from the role of international relations during liberation to multination efforts against piracy

The Dynamics of Violence in Central Africa René Lemarchand, René

Lemarchand, 2012-04-18 Endowed with natural resources majestic bodies of fresh water and a relatively mild climate the Great Lakes region of Central Africa has also been the site of some of the world's bloodiest atrocities In Rwanda Burundi and the Congo Kinshasa decades of colonial subjugation most infamously under Belgium's Leopold II were followed by decades of civil warfare that spilled into neighboring countries When these conflicts lead to horrors such as the 1994 Rwandan genocide ethnic difference and postcolonial legacies are commonly blamed but with so much at stake such simple explanations cannot take the place of detailed dispassionate analysis The Dynamics of Violence in Central Africa provides a thorough exploration of the contemporary crises in the region By focusing on the historical and social forces behind the cycles of bloodshed in Rwanda Burundi and the Congo Kinshasa Ren Lemarchand challenges much of the conventional wisdom about the roots of civil strife in former Belgian Africa He offers telling insights into the appalling cycle of genocidal violence ethnic strife and civil war that has made the Great Lakes region of Central Africa the most violent on the continent and he sheds new light on the dynamics of conflict in the region Building on a full career of scholarship and fieldwork Lemarchand s analysis breaks new ground in our understanding of the complex historical forces that continue to shape the destinies of one of Africa s most important regions

NGO's and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights W. Korey,2001-02-02 When the Universal Declaration of Human Rights was adopted 50 years ago Eleanor Roosevelt its principal architect predicted that a curious grapevine would carry its message behind barbed wire and stone walls This book tells the extraordinary story of how NGOs became the grapevine she anticipated sharpening our awareness about the violations of human rights shaming its most notorious abusers and creating the international mechanisms to bring about implementation of the Declaration Korey traces how NGO s laid the groundwork for the destruction of the Soviet empire as well as of the apartheid system in South Africa and established the principle of accountability for crimes against humanity The notion of human rights has progressed from being a marginal part of international relations a half century ago to stand today as a critical element in diplomatic discourse and this book shows that it is the NGOs that have placed human rights at the centre of humankind s present and future agenda

Regional Intervention Politics in Africa Stefanie Wodrig,2017-02-24 This book analyses regional interventions in African conflict spaces by engaging with political discourse theory Interventions are a performance of agency but what happens if interventions are performed by forces that scholars have hardly ever considered as relevant agents in this regard Based on a study of regional politics towards the crises in Burundi and Zimbabwe the book analyses how these interventions shaped and changed the emerging regional interveners The book engages political discourse theory proposing an understanding of intervention as a field in which multiple and heterogeneous interpretations of the violence the crisis and the future post conflict order meet It is not hard to imagine that this encounter is not harmonious per se but full of frictions By making use of political discourse theory as a grammar for studying the complexity of an intervention the focus is directed to the emerging subjectivities of regional interveners This enables a view of regional interventions that neither reduces their subjectivity to universalist categories associated with liberal peace nor overenthusiastically embraces them as the solution to all problems This book will be of interest to students of international intervention discourse theory African politics war and conflict studies security studies and IR

Politics of Innocence Simon Turner, 2012 Based on thorough ethnographic fieldwork in a refugee camp in Tanzania this book provides a rich account of the benevolent disciplining mechanisms of humanitarian agencies led by the UNHCR and of the situated dynamic indeterminate and fluid nature of identity re construction in the camp While the refugees are expected to behave as innocent helpless victims the question of victimhood among Burundian Hutu is increasingly challenged following the 1993 massacres in Burundi and the Rwandan genocide The book explores how different groups within the camp apply different strategies to cope with these issues and how the question of innocence and victimhood is itself imbued with ambiguity as young men struggle to recuperate their masculinity and their political subjectivity
