Self Knowledge And Social Action:

Self-knowledge and social action Obadiah Silas Harris, 1974 Axel Honneth Dagmar Wilhelm, 2018-11-13 Axel Honneth is one of the most influential social and political philosophers in contemporary German political thought and one of the central figures of the third generation of the Frankfurt School Honneth's philosophical project presents at once a solution to a problem that has beset Frankfurt School Critical Theory from the first generation onwards and offers a re conceptualisation of social philosophy and its methodology in general Honneth's work presents a viable alternative to mainstream especially Rawlsian political philosophy by taking on challenges mainstream theories tend to avoid This book provides one of the first substantial critical assessments of Honneth's achievements so far Dagmar Wilhelm locates Honneth in critical theory and mainstream political theory debates and offers a detailed exploration of his account of social philosophy methodology social pathology recognition and humiliation The book also includes an in depth discussion of Honneth's critique of capitalism and programme for the new left and an assessment of the future of the project of the Frankfurt School in light of Honneth's approach Goal Concepts in Personality and Social Psychology Lawrence A. Pervin, 2015-06-19 Is behavior motivated And if so can it be motivated by the anticipation of future events What role does cognition play in such motivational processes And further what role does motivation play in ongoing cognitive activity Questions such as these provide the foundation for this book originally published in 1989 More specifically the chapters in this book address the question of the utility of goals concepts in studying motivation and social cognition Know Thyself Thomas O. Buford, 2011-01-01 Know Thyself An Essay in Social Personalism proposes that social Personalism can best provide for self knowledge In the West self knowledge has been sought within the framework of two dominant intellectual traditions order and the emerging self On the one hand ancient and medieval philosophers living in an orderly hierarchical society governed by honor and shame and bolstered by the metaphysics of being and rationalism believed persons gain self knowledge through uniting with the ground of their being once united they would understand what they are what they are to be and what they are to do On the other hand Renaissance and modern thinkers such as Pico della Mirandola Copernicus Descartes Locke and Kant shattered the great achievement of the high middle ages and bequeathed to posterity an emerging self in a splintered world Continuing their search for self knowledge the moderns found themselves faced with the dualism of the emerging self of the Renaissance and the natural world as understood by modern scientists New problems spun out of this dualism including the mind body problem the other minds problem free will and determinism the nature and possibility of social relationships values moral norms and their relationship to the natural and social worlds and the relationships between science and religion Finding self knowledge among these splinters without a guiding orientation has proven difficult Even though luminaries such as Spinoza Berkeley and Hegel attempted to bring order to the sundered elements their attempts proved unsatisfactory We contend that neither order nor the emerging self can adequately provide for self knowledge Since those culturally embodied master narratives lead us to an impasse we turn to social Personalism Self knowledge developed in this book shows how persons in relation to the Personal learn who they are what they are to become and what they must do to achieve that goal It also shows that the achievement of self knowledge is supported by a natural social and cultural environment rooted in trust In this humane and timely discussion Thomas O Buford offers a personalist understanding of self knowledge that avoids the impersonalisms that erode the dignity of persons and their moral life which characterize modern life Encyclopedia of Knowledge Management, Second Edition Schwartz, David,Te'eni, Dov,2010-07-31 Knowledge Management has evolved into one of the most important streams of management research affecting organizations of all types at many different levels The Encyclopedia of Knowledge Management Second Edition provides a compendium of terms definitions and explanations of concepts processes and acronyms addressing the challenges of knowledge management This two volume collection covers all aspects of this critical discipline which range from knowledge identification and representation to the impact of Knowledge Management Systems on organizational culture to the significant integration and cost issues being faced by Human Resources MIS IT and production departments Psychology Library Editions: Social Psychology Various,2021-07-09 Psychology Library Editions Social Psychology 30 volume set brings together an eclectic mix of titles from a wealth of authors with diverse backgrounds seeking to understand human behaviour and interaction from a socio psychological perspective The series of previously out of print titles originally published between 1908 and 1993 includes those from some authors considered to be founders of social psychology and traces the development of the subject from its early foundations

Ethics without Self, Dharma without Atman Gordon F. Davis, 2018-07-18 This volume of essays offers direct comparisons of historic Western and Buddhist perspectives on ethics and metaphysics tracing parallels and contrasts all the way from Plato to the Stoics Spinoza to Hume and Schopenhauer through to contemporary ethicists such as Arne Naess Charles Taylor and Derek Parfit It compares and contrasts each Western philosopher with a particular strand in the Buddhist tradition in some chapters represented by individual writers such as Nagarjuna Vasubandhu Santideva or Tsong

Khapa It does so in light of both analytic concerns and themes from the existentialist and phenomenological traditions and often in an ecumenical spirit that bridges both analytic and continentalist approaches Some of the deepest questions in ethics dealing with the scope of agency value laden notions of personhood and the nature of value in general are intertwined with questions in metaphysics One set of questions addresses how varying conceptions of selfhood relate to moral values e g the concern of self or selves for the well being of others another set of questions addresses how a conception of oneself or one s selves should or should not affect how one thinks of happiness or eudaimonia or in classical Indian terms artha sukha or nirvana Western philosophy has featured discussion of both but some would argue that certain traditions of Asian philosophy have offered a more sustained and even treatment of both sets of questions The Buddhist tradition in particular has not only featured much discussion on both fronts but has attracted many contemporary philosophers to its distinctive spectrum of approaches and to what is from many Western points of view a seemingly subversive analysis of ego selfhood and personhood whether in metaphysical phenomenological or other incarnations Encyclopedia of Knowledge Management Schwartz, David,2005-09-30 This encyclopedia is a research reference work documenting the past present and possible future directions of knowledge management Provided by publisher
