Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers John R. Shook, 2005-01-01 The Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers includes both academic and non academic philosophers and a large number of female and minority thinkers whose work has been neglected It includes those intellectuals involved in the development of psychology pedagogy sociology anthropology education theology political science and several other fields before these disciplines came to be considered distinct from philosophy in the late nineteenth century Each entry contains a short biography of the writer an exposition and analysis of his or her doctrines and ideas a bibliography of writings and suggestions for further reading While all the major post Civil War philosophers are present the most valuable feature of this dictionary is its coverage of a huge range of less well known writers including hundreds of presently obscure thinkers In many cases the Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers offers the first scholarly treatment of the life and work of certain writers This book will be an indispensable reference work for scholars working on almost any aspect of modern American thought Cézanne Steven Platzman, 2001 Platzman's accessible and richly illustrated book examines the stylistic development of Cézanne's self portraits in an effort to understand how the artist saw himself and others 111 b w 82 color illustrations Self Portrait Anthony Bond, Joanna Woodall, Timothy J. Clark, L. J. Jordanova, Joseph Leo Koerner, 2005 This text celebrates the lives of artists and their unique perspective on themselves and their work An impressive array of self portraits is presented in this major survey of the genre from the fifteenth century to the present day Vital Contact Patrick Chura, 2013-11-05 The book analyzes American literature about middle or upper class characters who voluntarily descend the class ranks to experience vital contact by living or associating temporarily with the poor The motivations of these characters and historical figures such as John Reed and Walter Wyckoff range from straightforward bohemian slumming among the exotics to more complex and psychologically wrought investigations of cross class empathy The study begins by charting downclasing processes in works of canonical nineteenth century authors including Melville Hawthorne James Howells and Jewett It then undertakes an original analysis of John Reed s involvement with the 1913 Paterson silk workers strike as a context for understanding Ernest Poole s now forgotten but then best selling fictionalization of the strike in his novel The Harbor In other richly historicized chapters it analyzes distillations of class radicalism in several works by Upton Sinclair in the early drama of Eugene O Neill and in feminist novels of the 1910s by Elia Peattie and Clara Laughlin The concluding chapter looks at sophisticated treatments of vital contact in fiction of the 1930s by Dos Passos Steinbeck and Richard Wright The book provides Americanists with important new ways of thinking about various forms of class identification as they developed in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Studies in Southeast

Asian Art Nora A. Lupieri, 2019-10-14 An international team of twenty scholars under Edmondo F Lupieri s direction produced Mary Magdalene from the New Testament to the New Age and Beyond While the historical figure of the Magdalene may be lost forever the construction of her literary images and their transformations and adaptations over the centuries are a lively testimony to human creativity and faith Different pictures of Mary travelled through time and space from history to legend and mythology crossed religious boundaries going beyond the various Christianities to become a sign of contradiction for many This book describes a special case of biblical reception history that of the New Testament figure of a woman whose presence at the side of Jesus has been disturbing for some but proves to be inspiring for others      Humanities Index ,2001      Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1971      No Turning Back Estelle Freedman,2003-01-01 On the situations of women around the world today this one book provides more illumination and insight than a dozen others combined Freedman s survey is a triumph of global scope and informed precision NANCY F COTT Professor of History Harvard University Repeatedly declared dead by the media the women s movement has never been as vibrant as it is today Indeed as Stanford professor and award winning author Estelle B Freedman argues in her compelling book feminism has reached a critical momentum from which there is no turning back Freedman examines the historical forces that have fueled the feminist movement over the past two hundred years and explores how women today are looking to feminism for new approaches to issues of work family sexuality and creativity Drawing examples from a variety of countries and cultures from the past and the present this inspiring narrative will be required reading for anyone who wishes to understand the role women play in the world Searching in its analysis and global in its perspective No Turning Back will stand as a defining text in one of the most important social movements of all time      Maya Deren and the American Avant-Garde Bill Nichols,2001-10-31 Regarded as one of the founders of the postwar American independent cinema Maya Deren was a poet photographer ethnographer and filmmaker These essays examine Deren s writings films and legacy from a variety of perspectives
