Self, Society, and Womankind Kathy E. Ferguson, 1980-12-05 Self, Society and Womankind Kathy Ellen Ferguson, 1976 Self, War, and Society Mary Jo Deegan, 2017-09-08 George Herbert Mead 1863 1931 is a founding figure in the field of sociology His stature is comparable to that of his contemporaries Emile Durkheim and Max Weber Mead s contribution was a profound and unique American theory that analyzed society and the individual as social objects As Mead saw it both society and the individual emerged from cooperative democratic processes linking the self the other and the community Mary Jo Deegan a leading scholar of Mead s work traces the evolution of his thought its continuity and change She is particularly interested in the most controversial period of Mead s work in which he addressed topics of violence and the nation state Mead s theory of war peace and society emerged out of the historical events of his time particularly World War I During this period he went from being a pacifist along with his contemporaries John Dewey and Jane Addams to being a strong advocate for war From 1917 1918 Mead became a leader in voicing the need for war based on his theory of self and society After the war he became disillusioned with President Woodrow Wilson with Americans failure to support mechanisms for international arbitration and with the political reasons for American participation in World War I He returned to a more pacifist and co operative model of behavior during the 1920s when he became less political more abstract and more withdrawn from public debate The book includes Deegan s interpretation of Mead s early social thought his friendship and family networks the historical context of America at war and the importance of analysis of violence and the state from Mead s perspective She also provides illustrative selections from Mead s work much of which was previously unpublished The Social Self in Zen and American Pragmatism Steve Odin, 1996-01-01 This is the first book on East West comparative thought to critically analyze the Zen Buddhist model of self in modern Japanese philosophy from the standpoint of American pragmatism The Social Reconstruction of the Feminine Character Sondra Farganis, 1996-06-30 A classic in feminist theory The Social Reconstruction of the Feminine Character is a stimulating and thought provoking book that brings to light the ways in which views of women are shaped by concrete conditions It compares feminism to other contemporary social movements that are raising questions about advanced industrial society In this new edition Farganis includes chapters on feminist legal theory and queer theory and updates the chapters on science reason and morality Between Self and Society John Rodden, 2016-01-15 Between Self and Society explores the psychosocial dramas that galvanize six major British novels written between the eighteenth and twentieth centuries The book challenges an influential misconception that has for too long hindered appreciation of the psychological novel John Rodden argues that there should be no simplifying antithesis between psychological inner conflicts within the mind or soul and institutional outer conflicts within family class community Instead it is the overarching dramatic yet often tortuous relations between self and society that demand our attention Rodden presents fresh interpretations of an eclectic group of prose fiction classics including Tobias Smollett s The Adventures of

Roderick Random William Godwin's Caleb Williams Thomas Hardy's The Mayor of Casterbridge Ford Madox Ford's The Good Soldier Wyndham Lewis's Tarr and D H Lawrence's Women in Love Far from being merely admirable experiments let alone daring though interesting failures these fictions are shown to possess aesthetic unity stylistic consistency and psychic force Between Self and Society thus impels our careful reconsideration of novels that represent major artistic achievements yet have been either unjustly neglected or appreciated in limiting ways that do injustice to their psychological aspects Rodden's vibrant discussion invites an upward revaluation of these works and encourages the full recognition of their value and significance in British literary history Frantz Fanon and the Psychology of Oppression Hussein Abdilahi

Bulhan, 2004-05-31 Frantz Fanon July 20 1925 December 6 1961 was a Martinique born French Algerian psychiatrist philosopher revolutionary and writer whose work is influential in the fields of post colonial studies critical theory and Marxism Fanon is known as a radical existential humanist thinker on the issue of decolonization and the psychopathology of colonization Fanon supported the Algerian struggle for independence and became a member of the Algerian National Liberation Front His life and works have incited and inspired anti colonial liberation movements for more than four decades Wikipedia Everything You Ever Wanted To Know About Heaven Peter Kreeft, 2009-10-27 In the style of C S Lewis Kreeft provides an unexcelled look at the nature of Heaven that offers readers a refreshingly clear theologically sound and always fascinating glimpse of that undiscovered country Kreeft's engaging and informative account thoughtfully answers intriguing questions about heaven that speaks to the mind and heart The Other Within Fredrika Scarth, 2004-11-22 In The Other Within Fredrika Scarth builds upon the recent studies that have surfaced as part of the Simone de Beauvoir renaissance to offer a reading of The Second Sex as an ethical text Scarth provides us with a unique and enlightening study of Beauvoir's writing on the female body and in particular on maternity as an important piece of Beauvoir's writing Unlike other feminist scholars who find in Beauvoir's writing a horror and repudiation of mother hood Scarth argues that Beauvoir's writing on maternity can open up new possibilities of embodied subjectivity and agency and can found a truly ethical relationship with the other The Man Question Kathy E. Ferguson, 2023-04-28 Turning on its head that familiar woman question this innovative work poses masculinity as a problem that requires explanation Ferguson rebukes the sense of coherence contained in patriarchal theory in the name of a voice that both calls upon and challenges the category woman Stepping back from the opposition of male and female she artfully loosens the hold of gender on life and meaning creating and at the same time deconstructing a women's point of view Posing the man question provides a way not only to view male power and female subordination but also to valorize and problematize women's experiences thus destabilizing conventional notions of man and woman This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1994 Turning on its head that familiar woman question this innovative work poses masculinity as a problem that requires explanation Ferguson rebukes the sense of coherence contained in patriarchal theory in the name of a voice that both calls upon and challenges Feminists Who Changed America, 1963-1975 Barbara J. Love, 2006-09-22 Documenting key feminists who ignited the second wave women's movement Barbara J Love's Feminists Who Changed America 1963 1975 will be the first comprehensive directory to document many of the founders and leaders including both well known and grassroots organizers of the second wave women's movement It tells the stories of more than two thousand individual women and a few notable men who together reignited the women's movement and made permanent changes to entrenched customs and laws The biographical entries on these pioneering feminists represent their many factions all parts of the country all races and ethnic groups and all political ideologies Nancy Cott's foreword discusses the movement in relation to the earlier first wave and presents a brief overview of the second wave in the context of other contemporaneous social movements Knowing what We Know Gail Garfield, 2005 Annotation Bringing together life history interviews with nine women this study urges a departure from established approaches that position women as victims of exclusively male violence Instead the author explores what happens when women's ability to make decisions and act upon those choices comes into conflict with cultural and social constraints Charting Women's Journeys Judith Grant, 2008-01-01 Charting Women's Journeys is about the meaning of addiction and recovery in the lives of twenty five Appalachian women who have been practicing abstinence from the use of alcohol and or drugs for eighteen months or more in a small rural community in the United States The empirical focus is on the ways in which these women's lives have been transformed through the processes of addiction to and abstinence from these substances Handbook of Sociological Theory Jonathan H. Turner, 2006-11-22 This wide ranging handbook presents in depth discussions on the array of subspecialties that comprise the field of sociological theory Prominent theorists working in a variety of traditions discuss methodologies and strategies the cultural turn in sociological theorizing interaction processes theorizing from the systemic and macro level new directions in evolutionary theorizing power conflict and change and theorizing from assumptions of rationality Handbook of the Sociology of Gender Janet Saltzman Chafetz, 2006-11-22 During the past three decades feminist scholars have successfully demonstrated the ubiquity and omnirelevance of gender as a sociocultural construction in virtually all human collectivities past and present Intrapsychic interactional and collective social processes are gendered as are micro meso and macro social structures Gender shapes and is shaped in all arenas of social life from the most mundane practices of everyday life to those of the most powerful corporate actors Contemporary understandings of gender emanate from a large community of primarily feminist scholars that spans the gamut of learned disciplines and also includes non academic activist thinkers However while incorporating some cross disciplinary material this volume focuses specifically on sociological theories and research concerning gender which are discussed across the full array of social processes structures and institutions As editor I have explicitly tried to shape the contributions to this volume along several lines that reflect my long standing views about sociology in general and gender sociology in particular First I asked authors to include cross national and historical material as much as possible This request reflects my belief that understanding and evaluating the here and now and working realistically for a better future can only be accomplished from a comparative perspective Too often American sociology has been both tempero and ethnocentric Second I have asked authors to be sensitive to within gender differences along class racial ethnic sexual preference and age cohort lines

The Foundations of Vulnerability Theory Jennifer Hickey,2023-11-03 This volume is the first collection of Martha Albertson Fineman s most important and influential work Feminist legal theorist Martha Albertson Fineman has spent decades pushing the boundaries of law questioning and reconceptualizing legal and social definitions of family dependency vulnerability and state responsibility The pieces collected in this book trace the arc of Fineman s scholarship from gender equality to the role of the family as a social institution to dependency to autonomy to the legal subject and vulnerability theory This book reflects a lifetime of radical reimagining of the relationship between the state individuals families and other social institutions that is just as relevant today if not more so In this book Fineman offers a foundation for the achievement of true social justice through the centering of our shared human vulnerability and dependency grounded in the recognition of the ontological body and its material needs Arranged in sections and introduced by leading scholars in the field these pieces ask us to re examine our legally enshrined commitment to formal equality and the mythological autonomous independent legal subject recognizing instead that we must call for an active and responsive state that meaningfully provides resilience through its social institutions This collection demonstrates an evolution of heretical thought that has always pressed for a deeper understanding of the foundations of law and society offering a model for other scholars on how to keep pressing through the hard work of thinking and rethinking the conceptual basics of language law society and justice This book will appeal to academics policymakers lawyers activists and students in law and politics theory with interests in law and society human dependency and vulnerability state responsibility and feminism and the family as well as others who have applied Fineman s vulnerability theory to issues in the fields of bioethics artificial intelligence and policing to name just a few

The Existential Phenomenology of Simone de Beauvoir Wendy O'Brien, Lester Embree, 2013-06-29 While earlier research considered Simone de Beauvoir in the perspectives of Existentialism or Feminism this work is the first to emphasize her reflective and descriptive approach and the full range of issues she addresses There are valuable chapters and sections that are historical and or comparative but most of the contents of this work critically examine Beauvoir s views on old age whereon she is the first phenomenologist to work biology gender ethics ethnicity where she is among the first and politics again among the first Besides their systematic as well as historical significance these chapters show her philosophy as on a par with those of Merleau Ponty and Jean Paul Sartre in quality richness and distinctiveness of problematics and the penetration of her insight into collective as well as individual human life within the socio historical world
