Semantics, World View and Bible Translation
Gerrit van Steenberg, 2006-03-01 This study draws a number of disciplines together from a Bible translation perspective It offers a thorough semantic analysis of selected Hebrew lexical items referring to negative moral behaviour in the book of Isaiah and discusses the implications of the analysis for Hebrew lexicography The book first offers a critical appraisal of componential analysis of meaning followed by a number of proposals to improve this analytical tool in order to bring it in line with modern insights from cognitive linguistics

Professional Discourse Britt-Louise Gunnarsson, 2009-04-08 Professional Discourse gives a broad and multifaceted perspective on discourse in the professions For each of these professions the book explores the dual relationship between discourse and context outlining how professional discourse is continuously reconstructed in relation to changing contextual frameworks The case studies discussed in the book are based on authentic texts and spoken data collected within different environments and related to different domains The book includes discussion of both theory and methodology thus providing tools for exercises and future studies The reader is introduced to a variety of analytical approaches that of textlinguistics pragmatics genre studies sociolinguistics interactional sociolinguistics and sociology psycholinguistics and cognitive psychology The book gives theoretically grounded and systematically investigated answers to questions of relevance for advanced learners practitioners and academic scholars

Semantic Digital Libraries Sebastian Ryszard Kruk, Bill McDaniel, 2008-10-08 Libraries have always been an inspiration for the standards and technologies developed by semantic web activities However except for the Dublin Core specification semantic web and social networking technologies have not been widely adopted and further developed by major digital library initiatives and projects Yet semantic technologies offer a new level of flexibility interoperability and relationships for digital repositories Kruk and McDaniel present semantic web related aspects of current digital library activities and introduce their functionality they show examples ranging from general architectural descriptions to detailed usages of specific ontologies and thus stimulate the awareness of researchers engineers and potential users of those technologies Their presentation is completed by chapters on existing prototype systems such as JeromeDL BRICKS and Greenstone as well as a look into the possible future of semantic digital libraries This book is aimed at researchers and graduate students in areas like digital libraries the semantic web social networks and information retrieval This audience will benefit from detailed descriptions of both today's possibilities and also the shortcomings of applying semantic web technologies to large digital repositories of often unstructured data Introducing Semantics Nick Riemer, 2010-03-25 An introduction to the study of meaning in language for undergraduate students Handbook of Research on Innovations in Systems and Software Engineering Díaz, Vicente García, Lovelle, Juan Manuel Cueva, García-Bustelo, B. Cristina Pelayo, 2014-08-31 Professionals in the interdisciplinary field of computer science focus on the design operation and maintenance of computational systems and software Methodologies and tools of engineering are utilized alongside the technological advancements of computer applications to develop efficient and precise databases of information The Handbook of Research on Innovations in Systems and Software Engineering combines relevant research from all facets of computer programming to provide a comprehensive look at the challenges and changes in the field With information spanning topics such as design models cloud computing and security this handbook is an essential reference source for academicians researchers practitioners and students interested in the development and design of improved and effective technologies Afrikaans Linguistics WAM Carstens, Nerina Bosman, 2024-10-03 Offering a contemporary exploration of the multifaceted landscape of Afrikaans linguistics Afrikaans Linguistics Contemporary Perspectives marks a seminal contribution to the field This volume for the first time presents accessible insights into diverse linguistics subdisciplines inviting international scholars to familiarise themselves with Afrikaans language studies Throughout much of the late 19th and 20th centuries Afrikaans scholars predominantly communicated in Afrikaans resulting in a significant gap in the dissemination of knowledge about the language The chapters in this book written by prominent South Africans as well as international scholars working in the field of Afrikaans serve as a pivotal bridge by providing essential historical context while also paying attention to the development of Afrikaans linguistics during the 20th century The primary focus remains on illuminating 21st century research trajectories offering a comprehensive snapshot of contemporary scholarship in Afrikaans linguistics Representation in Old Testament Narrative Texts Jacobus Marais, 2021-10-11 This work focuses on the literary conventions of narrative texts in the Hebrew Bible in particular the mode of representation in the book of Judges The theory of integrational semantics developed by Benjamin Hrushovski is systematized to form a theoretical framework within which representation is conceptualized The author suggests a novel reading of the Judges narratives to demonstrate particular conventions of representation The notions of paradoxality perspectivity and juxtaposition are used to demonstrate the potential value of types of logic alternative to modernist logic in reading ancient Hebrew narratives A hypothetical representeme is constructed for the book of Judges to make it clear that the mode of representation is neither mimesis nor historiography but narrative representing by convention and not by correspondence to history Base-1 method: A structural-functional approach to word, sentence and discourse
