Uncommon Wealths in Postcolonial Fiction engages urgently with wealth testing current assumptions of inequality in order to push beyond reductive contemporary readings of the gaping abyss between rich and poor Shifting away from longstanding debates in postcolonial criticism focused on poverty and abjection the book marshals fresh perspectives on material spiritual and cultural prosperity as found in the literatures of formerly colonized spaces The chapters follow the money to illuminate postcolonial fiction's awareness of the ambiguities of wealth acquired under colonial capitalism and transmuted in contemporary neoliberalism They weigh idealistic projections of individual and collective wellbeing against the stark realities of capital accumulation and excessive consumption They remain alert to the polysemy suggested by Uncommon Wealths both registering the imperial economic urge to ensure common wealth and referencing the unconventional or non Western the unusual even fictitious and contrasting privately coveted and exclusively owned wealth with visions of a shared good Arranged into four sections centred on aesthetics injustice indigeneity and cultural location the individual chapters show how writers of postcolonial fiction including Aravind Adiga Amit Chaudhuri Anita Desai Patricia Grace Mohsin Hamid Stanley Gazemba Tomson Highway Lebogang Matseke Zakes Mda Michael Ondaatje Kim Scott and Alexis Wright employ prosperity and affluence as a lens through which to re-examine issues of race ethnicity gender and family the cultural value of heritage land and social cohesion and such conflicting imperatives as economic growth individual fulfilment social and environmental responsibility and just distribution CONTRIBUTORS Francesco Cattani Sheila Collingwood Whittick Paola Della Valle Sneja Gunew Melissa Kennedy Neil Lazarus John McLeod Eva Maria Miller Helga Ramsey Kurz Geoff Rodoreda Sandhya Shetty Cheryl Stobie Helen Tiffin Alex Nelungo Wanjala David Waterman fascinating story in its own right and as a call to reconsider what one truly aspires to in life Midwest Book Review In our dysfunctional economy success often comes at great personal cost we're tired we're stressed out and we have no time for family and friends It's time to redefine rich From a third generation farmer and successful entrepreneur Redefining Rich is an entrepreneur's guide to balancing work and family with the pleasures of the good life with simple exercises and important lessons to serve everyone from the new sole proprietor to a seasoned CEO Shannon Hayes was in the final months of her PhD program recently engaged and beginning to plan her future Having grown up on a northern Appalachian sheep farm she had two advantages a hard won education and hillbilly pragmatism But when it came time to enter the job market Hayes made a tough discovery the economy just doesn't work It doesn't work for women for free thinkers for the working class or for white collar professionals It doesn't work in rural America much less in the cities and the suburbs It forces us to choose between career and family profit and creativity So Hayes and her husband walked away from their career paths and chose to forge a life on her family's frost plagued mountain farm starting up a small cafe in town Together they found their sweet spot a place where the Appalachian farm culture and sensibilities she and her community have lived by helped them thrive even in a tough economic environment Against the odds the Hayes family built a business that lets them live abundantly spend time with family and enjoy the gifts of nature And the business even helped reinvigorate their chronically economically depressed town But the journey to this point was rife with challenges tumbles and mistakes With humor lively stories and assurance Hayes reveals the best lessons she's learned for taking an alternate path whether it lies in rural America in the burbs or the heart of the city She outlines the fundamentals of sustainable wealth how to develop income streams get organized bring family into the business ask for fair prices and market efficiently and the most important lesson of all set personal boundaries and say no even while sustaining relationships Hayes shows entrepreneurship is the means to build sustainable communities keep families together and foster great creative fulfillment Redefining Rich will comfort instruct amuse and inspire those of us who are trying to make our lives work in untraditional ways
