Shedding The Veil: Mapping The European Discovery Of America And The World Thomas Suarez,1994-04-29

Shedding the Veil is a highly original overview of Europe's exploration and discovery beyond her own confines. It tackles the subject via an analysis of maps dating from circa 1434 to 1865 with an emphasis on the period before 1600. The book begins with an appraisal of the peculiar circumstances which led late medieval Europe to pursue long distance travel both overland and by sea, introduces cosmographic traditions inherited from classical times and investigates pre-Columbian excursions into the western ocean. Finally the great voyages and mappamundi of the early sixteenth century are described in depth. After 1600 the focus begins to narrow North America and particularly to the colonization of the American Northeast. All maps discussed in detail are illustrated: 40 full page b/w plates, 25 full page color plates. Shedding the veil: mapping the

European discovery of America and the world Thomas Suarez,1992 New Feminist Discourses Isobel

Armstrong,2012-09-10 This collection of new feminist essays represents the work of young critics researching and teaching in British Universities. Aiming to set the agenda for feminist criticism in the nineties, the essays debate themes crucial to the development of feminist thought: among them, the problems of gendered knowledge and the implications of accounts of gendered language, cultural restraints on the representation of sexuality, women's agency, cultural and political change, a feminist aesthetics and new readings of race and class. This variety is given coherence by a unity of aim: to forge new feminist discourses by addressing conceptual and cultural questions central to problems of gender and sexual difference. The topics of discussion range from matrilinear thought to seventeenth-century prophecy, the poetry of Amelia Lanyer to Julia Margaret Cameron's photographs, from Dorothy Richardson and Virginia Woolf to eighteenth-century colonial painting of the South Pacific, from medieval romance to feminist epistemology. The essays utilise and question the disciplines of literary criticism, art history, photography, psychoanalysis, Marxist history and post-structuralist theory. What is Veiling? Sahar Amer,2014

Examines the practice of veiling in Muslim culture, discussing its history, its religious, social and political significance, and its importance to both conservative and progressive Muslim women as a symbol of commitment to their beliefs. Publisher information

Virginia Woolf - Mrs Dalloway Michael Whitworth,2015-09-29 Virginia Woolf's Mrs Dalloway (1925) has long been recognised as one of her outstanding achievements and one of the canonical works of modernist fiction. Each generation of readers has found something new within its pages, which is reflected in its varying critical reception over the last ninety years. As the novel concerns itself with women's place in society, war and madness, it was naturally interpreted differently in the ages of second-wave feminism, the Vietnam War and the anti-psychiatry movement. This has of course created a rather daunting number of different readings. Michael H. Whitworth contextualizes the most important critical work and draws attention to the distinctive discourses of critical schools, noting their endurance and interplay. Whitworth also examines how adaptations such as Michael Cunningham's The Hours can act as critical works in themselves, creating an invaluable guide to
