Gardens and the Passion for the Infinite Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka,2013-06-29 What essentially is a garden Is it a small plot of land that we put aside to cultivate our favourite vegetables or to grow flowers for our personal enjoyment Or is it a symbol a mirror a reflection of our human passions Within the context of phenomenology onto-poiesis of life we find the significance of the garden inscribed within the web of the Human Condition creatively unfurling its form from the vital basis to its loftiest swings of the period The aesthetic synthesis of our passions is carried by the logic promise of life its infinite renewal and infinite response The topic of the present volume is the mysterious ways in which Imaginatio Creatrix plays within the human ingrownness in natural life transposing dreams nostalgias and enchantments

Crafting Anatomies Katherine Townsend, Rhian Solomon, Amanda Briggs-Goode, 2020-02-20 The human body lies at the centre of our relationship to fashion and textiles Crafting Anatomies explores how the body has become a catalyst for archival research creative dialogues and hybrid fabrications in fashion design Focusing on how our response to the corporeal has shifted over time the book looks at how it is currently influencing design and socio material practices With contributions from a multidisciplinary range of scholars and researchers Crafting Anatomies examines how new technologies have become integrated with traditional fashion and textiles techniques bringing together art science and biomedical approaches Traversing the cutting edge of design research the chapters take us from the forgotten lives of historical garments to the potential of biofabrication to cross the boundaries between skin and textile Illustrated with 120 images visualising original research the book reveals how the human body continues to inspire future design from historical wearables to prosthetic limbs and 3D printed footwear In doing so it provides an inspiring account of how fashion and textile culture now impacts socio creativity and the formation of contemporary identity
