Mysterious Parable A Literary Study Catholic Biblical Quarterly Monographs No 6:

Studying the Parables of Jesus Peter Rhea Jones, 1999 Peter Rhea Jones has spent the majority of his career studying and teaching the parables Studying the Parables of Jesus is a primer on the historical and literary approaches to biblical study It informs and inspires in dialogue with contemporary methods and contemporary meanings It provides an introduction to the methods of interpretation of the parables as well as an opening chapter on the recent history of interpretation The chapters of exegesis approach a select group of parables for a more intensive analysis While reserving much of the technical details for the endnotes the text includes discussion of critical issues and alternative opinions Questions and exercises are appended at the close of each chapter for personal use or classroom discussion

Histories that Mansoul and Her Wars

Anatomize Robert J. McKelvey, 2011-06-16 Robert McKelvey argues that John Bunyan wrote The Holy War as a warfare allegory symbolizing the salvation history of Scripture from a Calvinistic covenantal perspective In this cosmic drama of redemption the Histories That Mansoul and her Wars Anatomize include the individual soteric microcosmic level or ordo salutis unfolding analogous to the redemptive historical macrocosmic level or historia salutis The eternal covenant of redemption provides the foundation for this history of salvation which progresses from creation to the anticipation of consummation This scheme finds its roots in the Puritan philosophy of universal history which sees all historical events serving God's redemptive purposes The individual through union with Christ founded on election participates in the drama by inclusion within the trans historical covenant of grace As a depiction of cosmic war The Holy War sets forth the enmity between the church and Antichrist which is representative of the greater battle between Christ and the devil from Genesis to Revelation As a pastoral guide to persecuted saints Bunyan retrospectively rehearses the history of redemption to grant comfort In addition he prospectively reveals the consummation of redemption to encourage perseverance and instill eschatological hope This thesis is substantiated contextually through Bunyan's life and writings historiographically by surveying the history of Holy War interpretation pre-textually by examining the introduction to the allegory and textually by analyzing the allegory itself

Biblica: Vol.58 , Many Things in Parables

Charles W. Hedrick, 2004-01-01 In this splendid introduction to the elusive rhetorical device central to the New Testament picture of Jesus Charles Hedrick explores the nature of the parable and its history of use He asks basic questions such as what is a parable is Jesus really the author of the parables and what does a parable mean and then reviews a range of sources from Aesop's fables to modern New Testament scholarship to answer them He also surveys the various ways the parables have been approached in literary criticism throughout history giving specific examples of each method and
