Professionalism and Leadership in Early Childhood Education and Care Mary A. Dyer, Samantha McMahon, 2022-12-23 Professionalism and Leadership in Early Childhood Education and Care explores the tension between what early years practitioners are expected to achieve and the level of expertise and understanding required to underpin this It examines the impact of recent policies on the agency of individual practitioners and the culture and ethos of their settings and questions the driving factors behind reforms to curriculum and practice and where this locates practitioners and their provision. Bringing together the latest research and ideas on professionalism and leadership, the book explores how professional status is understood and acquired and what makes this problematic in ECEC. It explores the impact of different leadership approaches, what needs to be challenged and sets out how the workforce might assert its own identity and values and continue to advocate for the needs of young children. Including case studies to illustrate the lived experiences of individual practitioners as they worked towards becoming graduate professionals, this will be valuable reading for early years professionals engaged in undergraduate and postgraduate study and those researching policy development and professional identity within ECEC.

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2003. Supporting Children's Learning in the Early Years Linda Miller, Jane Devereux, Carrie Cable, Gill Goodliff, 2014-12-05. Supporting Children's Learning in the Early Years is aimed at early years practitioners who are developing their knowledge and understanding of professional practice through studying at undergraduate level. The book encourages readers to consider their professional development as reflective practitioners, building on and supporting the government agenda to provide quality provision for young children and their families. Combining theory and practice and bringing together current research and thinking in a broad range of areas, the book covers Learning environments, young children as learners, assessment of learning, well-being, and children's rights, diversity and inclusion, Learning and development, children's development including social and emotional development, literacy and mathematical development, the potential of ICT, fostering creativity, musical development, and knowledge and understanding of the world. Reflective practice, the learning environment, safeguarding, and wellbeing of the reflective practitioner. Throughout the contributions in this book, encourage the reader to consider the diverse range of experiences which young children bring to early years and early primary settings and suggest ways in which they can be supported The book will also be a valuable and unique resource for training providers of a range of courses at further and higher education level that prepare people to work with and lead in early years settings in the UK Early Years: Progress in Developing High Quality Childcare and Early Education Accessible to All Committee of Public Accounts,2004

Research shows that high quality childcare and early education has positive influences on child development and that lack of accessible and affordable childcare can be a barrier to work for parents of young children The Government has increased spending on early years provision and developed the National Childcare Strategy and a number of other initiatives Following on from a National Audit Office report on this topic HCP 268 session 2003 04 ISBN 0102927332 published in February 2004 the Committee s report examines the progress that has been made in increasing the supply of early years provision improving choice for parents and delivering improvements in care standards Findings include that although there has been significant investment and good progress made in increasing the number of childcare places available there are continuing regional gaps in provision particularly in London Early year programmes need to focus on services for deprived children outside recognised disadvantaged areas and more use should be made of school premises to meet unmet demand
