Recollections Of The Cambridge Union 181:

Memoirs of Archbishop Temple: London memoir, 1885-1896 Ernest Grey Sandford, 1906 Memoirs of Archbishop Temple Ernest Grey Sandford, 1906 Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress, 1950 Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1955 Scots and the Union Christopher A Whatley, 2014-04-14 Public opinion in Scotland in 1707 was sharply divided between advocates of Union opponents and a large body of don't knows In 1706-7 it was party and dynastic advantage that was the main reason for opposition to the proposed union at elite level Whatever the reasons now for maintaining the Union they are in some important respects different from those which took Scotland into the Union such as French aggression securing the Revolution of 1688-89 and the defence of Protestantism This new edition assesses the impact of the Union on Scottish society including the bitter struggle with the Jacobites for acceptance of the union in the two decades that followed its inauguration The book offers a radical new interpretation of the causes of union Now as in 1706-7 some kind of harmonious relationship with England has to be settled upon There exists on both sides of the border mutual antipathy but also powerful bonds of language kin and economics In the case of Scotland there is a strong sense of being different from England a separate nation But arguably this was even more powerful in the mid 19th century when demand grew not for independence but Home Rule As in 1707 economic considerations are central even if the nature of these now are different the Union was forged in an era of muscular mercantilism Perceptions of economic gain and loss affected behaviour in 1706-7 and continue to affect attitudes to the Union today This new edition lends historical weight to the present day arguments for and against Union Alport Mark Garnett, 1999 In a political career that has spanned more than half a century Lord Alport of Colchester has been at the heart of British politics MP Minister diplomat and peer Alport's career is an inside account of party politics political machinations and Britain finding a new role in the world Rab Butler's right hand man founder of the influential One Nation Group Minister for Commonwealth Relations British High Commissioner in the Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland and throughout the Thatcher and Major administrations a formidable critic of the party he has served since 1936 Alport's biography provides an assessment both of Alport and the Conservative Party as a whole The Times Literary Supplement, 1982 Literature and Cultural Memory, 2017-03-06 Cultural Memory a subtle and comprehensive process of identity formation promotion and transmission is considered as a set of symbolic practices and protocols with particular emphasis on repositories of memory and the institutionalized forms in which they are embodied High and low culture as texts embedded in the texture of memory as well as material culture as a communal receptacle and reservoir of memory are analysed in their historical contingency Symbolic representations of accepted and counter histories and the cultural nodes and mechanisms of the cultural imaginary are also issues of central interest Twenty six contributions tackle these topics from a theoretical and historical perspective and bring to the fore case studies illustrating the interdisciplinary agenda that underlies the volume Contributors Luis Manuel A V Bernardo Lina
