

A photograph of a busy street in Chinatown, New York City. In the foreground, several people are walking across a crosswalk. In the background, a large banner hangs across the street, celebrating the 46th anniversary of the People's Republic of China. The banner features the Chinese text '庆祝中华人民共和国成立四十六周年!' and the English text 'CELEBRATING THE 46TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA'. The street is lined with traditional Chinese buildings and modern skyscrapers are visible in the distance.

Reconstructing Chinatown Ethnic Enclaves And Global Change:

Reconstructing Chinatown Jan Lin, An exploration of this fascinating community as a window on globalization In the American popular imagination Chinatown is a mysterious and dangerous place clannish and dilapidated filled with sweatshops vice and organized crime In this well written and engaging volume Jan Lin presents a real world picture of New York City's Chinatown countering this orientalist view by looking at the human dimensions and the larger forces of globalization that make this vital neighborhood both unique and broadly instructive Using interviews with residents firsthand observation archival research and U S census data Lin delivers an informed reliable picture of Chinatown today Lin claims that to understand contemporary ethnic neighborhoods like this one we must dispense with notions of monolithic community When he looks at Chinatown Lin sees a neighborhood that is being rebuilt both literally and economically Rather than a clannish and unified peer group he sees substantial class inequality and internal social conflict There is also social change most visibly manifested in dramatic episodes of collective action by sweatshop workers and community activists and in the growing influence of Chinatown's denizens in electoral politics Popular portrayals of Chinatown also reflect a new global reality as American cities change with the international economy traditional assumptions about immigrant incorporation into U S society alter as well Lin describes the public disquiet and official response regarding immigration sweatshops and the influx of Asian capital He outlines the ways that local state and federal governments have directed and gained from globalization in Chinatown through banking deregulation and urban redevelopment policy Finally Lin puts forth Chinatown as a central enclave in the world city of New York arguing that globalization brings similar structural processes of urban change to diverse locations In the end Lin moves beyond the myth of Chinatown clarifying the meaning of globalization and its myriad effects within the local context

clannish and unified peer group he sees substantial class inequality and internal social conflict There is also social change most visibly manifested in dramatic episodes of collective action by sweatshop workers and community activists and in the growing influence of Chinatown's denizens in electoral politics Popular portrayals of Chinatown also reflect a new global reality as American cities change with the international economy traditional assumptions about immigrant incorporation into U S society alter as well Lin describes the public disquiet and official response regarding immigration shops and the influx of Asian capital He outlines the ways that local state and federal governments have directed and gained from globalization in Chinatown through banking deregulation and urban redevelopment policy Finally Lin puts forth Chinatown as a central enclave in the world city of New York arguing that globalization brings similar structural processes of urban change to diverse locations In the end Lin moves beyond the myth of Chinatown clarifying the meaning of globalization and its myriad effects within the local context

The Power of Urban Ethnic Places Jan Lin, 2010-10-18 The Power of Ethnic Places discusses the growing visibility of ethnic heritage places in U S society The book examines a spectrum of case studies of Chinese Latino and African American communities in the U S disagreeing with any perceptions that the rise of ethnic enclaves and heritage places are harbingers of separatism or balkanization Instead the text argues that by better understanding the power and dynamics of ethnic enclaves and heritage places in our society we as a society will be better prepared to harness the economic and cultural changes related to globalization rather than be hurt or divided by these same forces of economic and cultural restructuring
