Recovering The Past Celtic And Roman Mission:

Recovering the Past John Finney, 1996 John Finney's account of and exploration of the differences between Celtic and Roman evangelism will challenge and change the way we evangelise A Celtic Model of Ministry Jerry C. Doherty, 2003 Why is the Christian Church declining in numbers and effectiveness in the twenty first century In A Celtic Model of Ministry Jerry Doherty experienced clergyman and Celtic scholar shows that the decline is caused by a crisis of individualism a crisis of faith and a crisis of lifestyle Doherty responds to these crises by providing a Celtic spirituality by way of ministry of early Celtic Christians in Ireland Wales Scotland Brittany and the Isle of Man He provides a model for ministry today in the local congregation and a guideline for the successful future of the Church modeled after the early Celtic communities Doherty applies the model in congregational development studies and ministry He explores the problems that have caused the decline of the Church and how paradigms of ministry in current use are no longer adequate In A Celtic Model of Ministry Doherty proposes that a new model for thinking and building ministry today especially in the local congregation may be found in early Celtic Christian communities Churches need to be a spiritual center a learning center and a community center A Celtic Model of Ministry uses Celtic spirituality in a practical way for ministry in the local congregation and is written primarily for professionals clergy and church workers but can be easily read by lay people Chapters are A Crisis of Individualism The Solution Community Celtic Spirituality and Community Creating Community A Crisis of Faith and A Crisis of Lifestyle

Christianity Encountering World Religions (Encountering Mission) Terry C. Muck, Frances S. Adeney, 2009-04-01 The current religious climate poses unique challenges to those engaged in mission Thus the authors of this book propose a new yet very biblical model for interacting with people of other faiths They term this model giftive mission as it is based on the metaphor of free gift We bear the greatest gift possible the gospel message Adopting this perspective not only has the potential for greater missionary success but also enables us to more closely imitate God's gracious activity in the world The core of the book explores eleven practices that characterize giftive mission Each practice is illustrated through the story of a figure from mission history who embodied that practice Further discussion shows how to incorporate these practices in specific mission settings Going Full Circle Mark Powers, 2013-07-03 In the grip of serious numerical decline American Evangelical churches are now experiencing a missional movement God is calling his people to return to a biblical lifestyle that goes full circle in continual worship discipleship and missions Mark Powers connects the dots between these three main elements of authentic Christian living He presents a theology of missional worship a detailed discipleship plan and a strategy for local music missions Going Full Circle uses everyday language to present a simple thought process to move worshipers and worship leaders to become worshipping disciples on mission Are you a casualty of worship wars Are you worried about the decline of your church Are you thrilled with fast growth churches but sense there must be something more than spectator worship Are you confused by the word missional that seems to be popping up everywhere This book is for you and your friends Read it share it and join the movement Soulfaring Cintra Pemberton,1999-10 Pilgrimage going to ancient holy sites in search of God has become increasingly popular for people seeking to deepen their relationship with the Holy Sister Cintra Pemberton seeks to enrich the experiences of today s pilgrims by helping them draw on the history of pilgrimage itself as well as by suggesting particularly rich sites to visit Part One of Soulfaring explores the history of pilgrimage beginning in Celtic times and moving through the early Christian period the Middle Ages and even the revival of pilgrimage today Part Two explores fifteen sites in Wales Ireland Scotland and the Isle of Man Each of the descriptions of the various sites includes not only suggestions of what may be seen there but the author s personal meditations on the experience of the Holy in each place Transnational Religious Organization and Practice Stanley J. Valayil C. John,2018-02-19 In Transnational Religious Organization and Practice Stanley John provides the first in depth analysis of a migrant Christian community in the Arabian Gulf The book explores how Kerala South India Pentecostal churches in Kuwait organize and practice their Christian faith given the status of their congregants as temporary economic migrants and noting that the transient status heightens their transnational orientation toward their homeland in India The research follows a twofold agenda first examining the unique sociopolitical and migrational context within which the KPCs function and second analyzing the transnational character and structural patterns that have emerged in this context The ethnographic research identifies and analyzes the emerging structures and practices of the KPCs through three lenses networks agents and mission This study concludes with a proposal for an interdisciplinary theoretical framework to be employed in the study of transnational religious communities Pneumanaut Eric Keck,2006 Marks of the Body of Christ Carl E. Braaten,Robert W. Jenson,1999 Martin Luther once listed seven marks of the church those defining ecclesial features that show where the true church is to be found This insightful volume brings together essays by ten leading Catholic Episcopal Lutheran Methodist and Orthodox theologians each analyzing one of the seven traditional marks of the church and discussing how it is found or not found in today s churches Writing about each mark of the church are these scholars Gerhard O Forde and Richard Lischer on proclamation Susan K Wood and John H Erickson on baptism K Paul Wesche and Richard A Norris Jr on the eucharist David S Yeago on the office of the Keys Carl E Braaten on ordination Robert W Jenson on catechesis and William J Abraham on discipleship The picture of contemporary church life that is developed by these authors is grim but their analyses and practical suggestions are both constructive and necessary The Chant of Life Mark L. MacDonald,2003 What does it mean to inculturate liturgy Why is it necessary What value does it hold for the people Does it impact the church as a whole What does the process of inculturation teach about liturgy Bishop McDonald as editor has assembled a broad list of contributors who address the issues of liturgical inculturation from theological scriptural musical spiritual and pastoral perspectives in the context of the Native American community The discussions are of value to the wider church as it looks forward to a new era Sharing Friendship John B. Thomson,2016-03-03 Sharing Friendship represents a post liberal approach to ecclesiology and theology generated out of the history practices and traditions of the Anglican Church Drawing on the theological ethics of Stanley Hauerwas this book explores the way friendship for the stranger emerges from contextually grounded reflection and conversations with contemporary Anglican theologians within the English tradition including John Milbank Oliver O Donovan Rowan Williams Daniel Hardy and Anthony Thiselton Avoiding abstract definitions of character mission or friendship John Thomson explores how the history of the English Church reflects a theology of friendship and how discipleship in the New Testament the performance of worship and the shape of Anglican ecclesiology are congruent with such a theology The book concludes by rooting the theme of sharing friendship within the self emptying kenotic performance of Jesus mission and looks at challenges to the character of contemporary Anglican ecclesiology represented by secularization and globalization as well as by arguments over appropriate new initiatives such as Fresh Expressions
