Red Carpet Bangalore Stories:

The Red Carpet Lavanya Sankaran, 2007-12-18 Wry humor and a delicious grasp of the friction between generations in Bangalore are the hallmarks of Lavanya Sankaran's fresh deeply nuanced debut collection A potpourri of beggars and billionaires and determinedly laid back ways Bangalore India's own Silicon Valley is a crucible for prosperity and at the chaotic crossroads between past and present Here American trained professionals like Tara return to their old fashioned families with heads full of Quentin Tarantino dialogue a successful entrepreneur is shaken when his partner suddenly reneges on their plan to return to America a traditional Indian mother slyly circumvents her Western educated daughter's resistance to marriage a neighborhood gossip is determined to discover what goes on behind the closed curtains of the hip young couple across the street a chauffeur must reconcile his more orthodox credos with his employer's miniskirt lifestyle Witty affectionate and wonderfully wise Lavanya Sankaran's first collection attests to her remarkable literary talent The Red Carpet Lavanya Sankaran, A successful young entrepreneur is faced with a partner who refuses to honor an agreement to return to America a traditional Indian mother circumvents her Western educated daughter's aversion to marriage and a neighborhood gossip is determined to discover what goes on behind the curtains of a hip couple across the street in a debut collection of stories set in modern day India Reader's Guide available Reprint 20 000 first printing The Red Carpet Lavanya Sankaran, 2005 Friction between the generations always the stuff of great fiction is nowhere stronger than in Bangalore India's Silicone Valley where software billionaires beggars and the legacy of the Raj combine and collide THE RED CARPET is an astonishingly enjoyable collection of stories as rich and absorbing as any novel From traditional mothers trying to marry off their Westernised children and old fashioned chauffeurs struggling with racy employers Lavanya Sankaran's tales of the clash between East and West are a pleasure and a revelation The Postcolonial Indian Novel in English Geetha Ganapathy-Doré, 2011-01-18 Indian writers of English such as G V Desani Salman Rushdie Amit Chaudhuri Amitav Ghosh Vikram Seth Allan Sealy Shashi Tharoor Arundhati Roy Vikram Chandra and Jhumpa Lahiri have taken the potentialities of the novel form to new heights Against the background of the genre's macro history this study attempts to explain the stunning vitality colourful diversity and the outstanding but sometimes controversial success of postcolonial Indian novels in the light of ongoing debates in postcolonial studies It analyses the warp and woof of the novelistic text through a cross sectional scrutiny of the issues of democracy the poetics of space the times of empire nation and globalization self writing in the auto meta docu fictional modes the musical pictorial cinematic and culinary intertextualities that run through this hyperpalimpsestic practice and the politics of gender caste and language that gives it an inimitable stamp This concise and readable survey gives us intimations of a truly world literature as imagined by Francophone writers because the postcolonial Indian novel is a concrete illustration of how language liberated from its exclusive pact with the nation can enter into a dialogue with a vast polyphonic ensemble Reading Together, Reading Apart Tamara Bhalla, 2016-10-17 Often thought of as a solitary activity the practice of reading can in fact encode the complex politics of community formation Engagement with literary culture represents a particularly integral facet of identity formation and expresses of a sense of belonging within the South Asian diaspora in the United States Tamara Bhalla blends a case study with literary and textual analysis to illuminate this phenomenon Her fascinating investigation considers institutions from literary reviews to the marketplace to social media and other technologies as well as traditional forms of literary discussion like book clubs and academic criticism Throughout Bhalla questions how her subjects circumstances desires and shared race and class limit the values they ascribe to reading She also examines how ideology circulating around a body of literature or a self selected imagined community of readers shapes reading itself and influences South Asians powerful if contradictory relationship with ideals of cultural authenticity
